the cooking and he is a pastmaster in that line. We have had two heavy thunder-storms this week. One very heavy on Monday night and the other this morning between 6 and 7 o'clock. No damage was done except to crack Col onel Nead's ridge pole but a new one was installed this morning. Golf, quoits and dominoes are the few experts in cach. Snakes have on been very plenty. On Tuesday a rat-tler with 14 rattles, measuring 3 feet 9 inches was killed about noon. Colonel Fisher held it down titi Mausteller got a fork over its need when Fisher played on its head with a shovel.
