AN EVEN BREAK FOR ISLANDERS

Burns Wins First, but Loses Second; Barons Were Hitting Hard

Harrisburg and Wilkes-Barre played an even seven game yesterday. The Islanders, with Burns pitching phenomenal ball, won a whitewash victory in the first, score 7 to 0. He was on the firing line in the second and while hit at intervals held the Barons to one run. Doherty was the big star in this game. With his southpaw puzzlers he held the locals to four hits.

WELLY'S CORNER

Winning one game while Albany was losing to Scranton put Harrisburg in seventh place yesterday. Two games to-day will be a big help in keeping the Islanders on the move. It was a hard fight. Harrisburg is getting the kind of baseball that pays and the crowds are increasing daily. Local fans owe much to George Cockill, whose enterprise, baseball ability and cash made the league game possible in Harrisburg, to Walter Blair, one of the greatest team leaders this city has ever seen, in developing the team. The visit of President J. H. Farrell, of the New York State League, to Harrisburg was an agreeable surprise. While he is a busy man, President Farrell finds time to keep in touch with conditions in every city. His nice words about Harrisburg is strong proof that this city's reputation as a baseball town has not decreased. In addition to looking after the business of the New York State League, President Farrell is secretary of the National Association of Professional Minor Baseball Leagues and chairman of the board of arbitration. Albany fell before Scranton yesterday after a twelve-inning battle, score 9 to 7. Bill Coughlin's boys added runs after two men were out in the third and fifth innings. Syracuse bumped Elmira, score 4 to 1. Ehmke pitched for the Stars and won his twenty-first victory. The Hingoes dropped a game to Utica. The latter hit in bunches while Pitcher Bryant, of the Utes, allowed but two safeties. Farrell was a hitting star for Utica. Team No. 1 won yesterday's Enola Car Shop League game, score 1 to 0. The work of the players was watched closely by outsiders. Victory came without a hit, one costly error by Pitcher Putt, of No. 4 team, being a factor after two men walked. The Smith Shop came off victorious again yesterday in the Lucknow Shop League, score 4 to 0. Gilday allowed his opponents one hit. Edie Hilton, at second base, was a star for the Smith Shop, having five hit chances without a miscue. Rosewood is still climbing in the Allison Hill League. They won from the Stanley team yesterday; score, 9 to 2. Winters, the star local pitcher, was in the line-up for Rosewood and allowed but two hits, fanning ten men. E. Walz was a big star for Stanley. Eastern tennis players at Forrest Hill, N. Y., yesterday won all four matches from the western champions. It was the first half of the east and west contest and the winners came off with many laurels. There is no denying the fact that the games in the New State League offer big inducements for larger patronage.
