Much-Married Woman to Try It Once More
Washington, D. C. — A dashing brunette, with a meek-looking young chap just out of his twenties, strolled into the marriage license office and applied for a certificate.

"Ever been married before?" queried the clerk.

"Yes, I've buried five and this is my sixth," returned the widow in matter-of-fact fashion.

The widow admitted she was 33. The would-be groom haltingly proclaimed himself 22 and a beginner in matrimony.

MAN FINDS HE IS WED TO SISTER

Wisconsin University Graduate Learns Mistake Nine Years Later

Madison, Wis. — Roger Newton, a University of Wisconsin graduate, now a resident of Globe, Ariz., has discovered that his wife, whom he married nine years ago, is his sister. How he straightened out the kink in his life's story is the problem which is worrying them to distraction.

Newton, whose real name is George Porter, was the son of a carpenter in Spokane, Wash. When his father was injured by a fall George was placed in an orphanage. Later he was adopted by Howard Newton, who moved east.

His adopted parents educated him at the University of Wisconsin. After leaving college, young Porter, who had taken the name of Newton from his adopted parents, returned to the Pacific northwest.

While in Portland, Ore., he met a Miss Elizabeth Porter, who was attending a seminary there. The pair became infatuated and were married. That was nine years ago. The other day, in an old trunk, Newton found

Sold His Daughter; Has Buyer Arrested

Chicago. — John Guy was arrested on a warrant, charging him with contributing to the delinquency of a child. Zaika Marino, a gypsy who was arrested at Guy's instance recently, swore out the warrant. Guy said he had bought Marino's daughter for $2,000, intending her to be the wife of John Guy, Jr., now 14 years old. He declares the girl ran away and Marino refused to refund the $2,000.

Twins to Be Driven in Motor Baby Carriage

Olympia, Wash. — A man in Vancouver has a motor-driven baby carriage, and has applied to the Secretary of State for a license to operate it. He wrote as follows:

"A short time ago I took out a license for a motor attachment for a bicycle, and now I want to transfer that motor to a baby carriage that I purchased when twins were born into my family. May I do this without taking out a new license?"

I. M. Howell, Secretary of State, replied that the transfer would be allowed.

"Dry" City Unable to Cure Women Drinkers

Denver, Col. — Drunkenness among women has been slower to decrease under the State prohibition law than among men. Juvenile Court authorities here declare. Prohibition has cut down the number of cases before the various city courts 75 per cent. Habitual men drunkards have almost disappeared.

FAIR SKIN TURNS TO BRONZE

East St. Louis, Ill., Aug. 8. — Her fair skin turning to a metallic bronze and her vitality sapped by sickness, Mrs. Eva Katoni is believed to be suffering from the rare Addison's disease. Addison's disease gets its name from Dr. Thomas Addison, of Guy's Hospital, London, who in 1855 diagnosed the malady. In addition to a darkening of the skin, the symptoms are a loss of vitality and flesh. The disease is so far as known, incurable.

Fight Themselves Into Unconsciousness

New York. — After fighting like the cats of Kilkenny—"till there was nothing left but the tails of 'em"—four men were found unconscious from the loss of breath and blood, lying on the pavement at Kent Avenue and North Eighth street, Williamsburg. They were Stephen Barr and Samuel Marchok, of 92 Kent avenue and Paul and Michael Baum, brothers, who live near door.
