Companions of Drowned Man Are Placed in Jail

Special to the Telegraph York, Pa., Aug. 9.—Three companions of Wilmer Householder, 32, of York, whose body was recovered from the ice of the York Haven Water & Power Company, on the Susquehanna river at York Haven, were committed to jail on suspicion of foul play in connection with his death.

Householder was one of a party of five who went swimming in the race last Sunday, and the others came away in the evening, reporting that their companion was missing, and that his clothing lay on the bank. Grappling was at once begun; but the body could not be located until it came to the surface this morning.

While there are no marks of foul play, it is said that Householder's clothing had been robbed, and that several of the other men had money afterwards which they could not account for. Householder was last seen when he and George W. Harvey swam out to the pier, where they had some sort of struggle. Those arrested, beside Harvey, are: Joseph Foster of Philadelphia, and Edward Detler, of York. Carl F. Lanningan, the remaining member of the party, has not yet been located.

This 4-Ounce Tin. Holds a soluble powder for making about 50 cups of a delicious beverage that is fast taking the place of coffee in thousands of homes. "There's a Reason" Postum, made of wheat, roasted with a bit of wholesome molasses, is a pure food-drink, brimful of the goodness of the grain, and entirely free from the troubles that often attend coffee drinking. If coffee don't agree, use POSTUM. It comes in two forms: The original Postum Cereal, which has to be boiled; and Instant Postum—soluble—made in the cup—instantly. Made right, both are equally delightful, and the cost per cup is about the same. Grocers everywhere sell POSTUM.
