SEES REVIVAL OF AMERICAN SPIRIT

wife standing beside him. He expressed gratification in the interest of the crowd which had brought them so early to the station and continued:

"I have found this interest prevalent wherever I have gone and to me it is a very hopeful sign. It means that we are in the midst of a revival of the true American spirit. It means that as we look to the future we want to safeguard all the interests of this country by wise upbuilding and policies.

"I represent here a reunited Republican party ready to meet these exigencies as they arise. I dedicate myself to United States."

"I look forward to an America tested as America has not been tested before, when she has to stand in the competition of the world."

Will Stop "Pork" Business

The nominee assailed the administration also for its appointments to office and declared that if elected he would appoint to office only men who were well qualified.

"I propose that we shall stop this pork business," he said. "I propose that we shall have government in a businesslike way. We won't have any more if I can stop it, of these 'kiss me' men."

"I don't want any hot air in mine," he added.

The Democratic party, Mr. Hughes said, was approaching the idea of a protective tariff like a skittish horse.

"I had no right," he said, "to commit this country to a course of conduct which landed Mexico in anarchy, left it a bloodbath and a field for American revolution and made our name a word of contempt in a sister republic."

"We have gone forward," the nominee said, "in protecting American interests."

"I have allowed our words to be eaten up by hesitation, by delay. We have somehow or other convinced the world that we are weak."

"I propose that we have new birth of American purpose and courage. We have no occasion to fear war in the assertion of those rights, which all respect."

"This administration has come nearer to landing us in war by its weakness than it would ever have done had it stood faithfully for American rights and had let it be known that they would be defended."

"I believe that with our peaceful purposes, of just purposes, we have no need to be drawn into strife, if we are prepared, if we are dignified, if we show that we mean what we say."

"One of the very serious charges which were made against the present administration is the charge of putting incompetent men into important positions. That is not for the benefit of Democracy."

"I propose that in this place there shall be no nomination without regard to political party, say this: That if I am elected President of the United States I propose that every man who is in charge of an important department shall be a man eminently fit to discharge the duties of that department."

"I propose that in diplomatic service training shall count something. I propose that when a man goes from this country to represent the great American people in another nation—and I do not care whether it is a small nation or a big nation, for we want our influence in small and great—I propose that that man shall be a worthy representative to whom the people whom he is accredited to will look with respect and esteem, seeing in him the efficiency of the great United States."

Chicago Wheat Shoots 8 Cents a Bushel Upward on Report of Crop Damage

Chicago, Aug. 9.—Wheat prices shot upward eight cents a bushel to-day at the opening of the wheat market.

The December option touched $1.45 on first trading as against $1.37 at yesterday's finish. Sensational crop damage confirmed by the government report was the cause of the extraordinary advance.

So much excitement ruled in the pit that transactions in many cases jumped three cents. The initial range on December varied from $1.42 to $1.45.

higher and when relative steadiness was established showed 5 1/2 to 6 3/4 cents as compared with yesterday's close.

In later dealings the May deliveries rose to the phenomenal price of $1.50 a bushel, an extreme ascent of 8 1/2 over yesterday's final figures and 46 1/2 as compared with the price at the corresponding time a year ago.

Wildness of buying by wheat traders to-day exceeded any similar display since the outbreak of the European war. The majority of speculators here were decidedly incorrect regarding what the government report would indicate and their belated efforts to acquire holdings were made difficult by like attempts on the part of foreigners and by shorts who were caught by the sudden upward whirl of the market.

Despite lively profit-taking, the offerings continued inadequate. Alarming reports as to a further spread of black rust in Canada added to the strength.
