ISLANDERS QUIT HARRISBURG TO-DAY FOR LONG TRIP---MINERS TOOK ONE GAME

FOX SPITTERS TO MUCH FOR LOCALS

Wins Game From Team Out of Form; Errors Are Costly

John Fox, of Reading, once famous as the Iron Man of the Harrisburg Tri-State team, admired by Harrisburg fans, yesterday handed the Isburg fans, yesterday handed the Islanders one big jolt. Chewing a big hunk of Slippery Elm bar, Fox furnished the moisture for his famous spitballs, and won the game, score 4 to 3. Fox always was a good pitcher. However, he faced a team yesterday that was not in form.

The Scranton twirler did not have a whole lot on Helfrich, who was on the firing line for Harrisburg. Fox started better, while Helfrich was a long time getting down to work, and he had the support of a team that was slightly loose. The Miners were also out of ginger and not until the locals started to rally, did they get real busy. Fast fielding at the windup of the game by Scranton saved the victory for the visitors. Only one game was played, as rain interfered with the second and made two games to-day necessary as Scranton will not be here again this season.

GEORGE SISLER INFIELDER

"HE'S BLOWN UP, JIM!"

St. Louis, Aug. 9.—George Sisler, the versatile athlete of Fielder Jones' Browns, got into a new role yesterday afternoon, when he played third base against Washington in the second game of the double-header. Sisler, who is a left-handed player, is the first portsider to play first in nearly a quarter of a century. The former Michigan star gave a very good exhibition at the hot corner. Sisler has now played nearly every position on the team. He has pitched in several games, played first and third and every position in the outfield.

There is no denying the fact that the There is no denying the fact that the Harrisburg team is putting this city on the baseball map. All over the United States sport writers are telling about the phenomenal work of the Islanders. Both George Cockill and Walter Blair are winning praises for their work and the players are being referred to individually in nice terms.

Inquiries are being made as to the permanency of the Harrisburg New York State League earn. There is but one answer. It is here to stay. Because of the standing of the team at the go-off businessmen were only offered coupon books as a means to boost the game. Now that George Cockill brought about the deal that gave Harrisburg a team, with the aid of Walter Blair, the able baseball leader has been successful in giving the city a winning team, some people in Harrisburg would like to get interested. There are hundreds of kinds of tobacco. No two smell alike. The smell tells the quality.

You can tell, by the smell, whether you will like the taste or not. It's the sure test. Your palate might deceive you for a day or soyour nose won't fool you a single minute.

Here is the test - the one the expert tobacco man uses:

Rub a little TUXEDO briskly between your palms until the friction brings out the full aroma. Then smell it. Test other tobaccos the same way—all you can get hold of.

TUXEDO will stand the test -- the others won't. TUXEDO only has the full, sweet, delicious fragrance that proves the flavor, the mildness, the permanent satisfaction you're looking for.

TUXEDO is your tobacco. Your nose will tell you so. Your pipe will prove it to you - all day long - year in and year out.
