WELLY'S CORNER

Harrisburg's losses the past two days is an indication that the Islanders are a team of real baseball players. The best aggregations in the country get into a slump. The team that is not a certainty only has winning spurts. Harrisburg's great work since games started at Island Park was due to brilliant playing. It was not an easy task, and any team going the pace that Harrisburg has shown, is bound to hit a slump. Getting into other territory, it is believed will help in putting Harrisburg back in a winning stride.
