ARRESTS FOLLOW WATER POLLUTION

Attorney General Tells the Fisheries Department to Go Ahead With Suits

Plans for the arrest of men who disregard notices from the State Department of Fisheries to establish filters to protect streams from the waste of the paper manufacturing in northern counties have been made at the State Department of Fisheries and it is likely that they will be started within a few days. Sixty days is the limit given to establish filters as required by law to prevent pollution of streams.

In the Pine creek and other regions along tributaries of the west branch of the Susquehanna there have been numerous reports of pollution by manufacturing plants, including some tanneries and explosive plants, and the owners have not carried out instructions from the department. There have been twenty such cases certified to the Attorney General for action, but in instances of serious pollution he has authorized the department to go ahead and prosecute.

Expect More Tests.—The State dairy and food agents, who have just completed an exhaustive inquiry into the ice cream conditions in Philadelphia, have been at work in other cities and the tests are now being undertaken. They will probably be extended this month.

Hearing to be Later.—The State Water Supply Commission will give a hearing later in the month to the people at Reading interested in establishing stream lines in that city. The Schuylkill was recently inspected.

Asking Bids.—Bids are being asked by the State commission in charge of the construction of the new State institution for women near Muncy. They will be opened on August 21.

Changes Made Now.—The Promotions made in the State Highway Department road superintendencies will become effective immediately. No further changes are contemplated.

More Cases Found.—The State Department of Health last night reported that 250 cases of infantile paralysis had been reported in Pennsylvania since the first of July without counting those reported to Philadelphia health officers yesterday. There have been 58 deaths, of which 28 were in Philadelphia. Ten cases were reported from outside Philadelphia yesterday.

Flags at Half Mast.—All flags on Capitol Hill buildings were placed at half mast to-day by orders of Superintendent Rambo as a tribute to the late General D. McM. Gregg, former Auditor General.

More Cash Coming In.—The publicity given to the situation in the State Treasury, where there is a shortage of available cash to meet the bills and requisitions, is causing considerable activity in pushing for settlements. Some of the big settlements are being sent out and demands are being made for payment on others which have been out some time.

Lawrence Asks Pardon.—J. D. Lawrence, who created a stir here recently by breaking away from a sheriff, is asking the State Board of Pardons for pardon. His name will come up at the September meeting.

No Action Taken.—No action has been taken by the Public Service Commission on the application of the Northern Maryland Company for incorporation. It was presented a few days ago and is for a railroad to run from Washington to Beaver county.

PROTECTION FOR FARMERS URGED

broken by a series of short stops. The party is due in Billings at 7:30 tonight.

Mr. Hughes told an audience of farmers in the Grand Forks auditorium yesterday that the farmers' protective tariff that would protect them as well as the men in the factories.

"I believe in a protective tariff," Mr. Hughes said. "I believe in protection without abuse. I think that is possible. Our opponents who for generations have told us that was contrary to the Constitution of the United States to have duties except for purpose of revenue are now telling us that there is an economic revolution and that perhaps we can have a duty on dyestuffs and a nonpartisan commission. But I believe in trusting those who really accept the doctrine of protection with its enforcement. And I believe in protection for the farmers just as I believe in protection for the men in the factories."

Weakness Breeds Insults
Mr. Hughes repeated his views on preparedness and that he stood for reasonable preparedness. "Weakness breeds insults and insults breed war," he said. "I stand for the protection of American rights."

Resigned Under Pressure
Senator Townsend said he had explained the facts to the Census Commission.

Senators Townsend and Penrose Also Back Durand

Declarations of Hughes

Washington, Aug. 11.—Senator Townsend, Republican, of the Census Commission, made a statement in the Senate to-day, supporting the declarations of Charles E. Hughes, that E. Dana Durand, former director of the census was removed from office to make a vacancy for political reasons and taking issue with Secretary Redfield's rejoinder that Mr. Durand retired voluntarily.

"The secretary of commerce says Mr. Durand resigned," said Senator Townsend. "The fact is that Secretary Redfield called on Durand in April and stated that he desired his position. Durand replied that much important work was in progress and that he ought to be allowed to finish it. The next day, Mr. Harris (William J. Harris) nomination was sent to the Senate and the next day it was announced that Mr. Durand had resigned."

15-Year-Old Brother of Deputy Register Miles Begins Suit Today

Suit for $1,000 damages against the Harrisburg Taxicab company was begun in the Dauphin county courts to-day by G. W. Miles, on behalf of his 15-year-old son, George M. Miles, for injuries the lad received October 12, 1915, when one of the company's motorcabs pinned the youth against a telegraph pole. Attorney H. B. Saussaman filed the suit.

The youngster was standing on the curb in North Second street near Boas when the car approached. The chauffeur in trying to avoid a depression in the street, according to the statement, swung his car over upon the sidewalk and struck the boy before he could spring to a place of safety. Miles' leg was broken and he was otherwise badly bruised. Father and son ask $500 each. Miles is a younger brother of Deputy Register of Wills, James B. Miles.

Will Permit Vote on Shipping Bill Soon

By Associated Press

Washington, Aug. 11.—Republicans of the Senate indicated to-day that they would permit a vote to be reached on the administration shipping bill late to-morrow or Monday. This developed while Senators Jones and Gallinger were cross-questioning Senator Simmons about progress on the revenue bill being drafted by a finance subcommittee.

Senator Simmons said he hoped to have the revenue measure ready for full committee Monday and to report it to the Senate Tuesday. While it is being perfected the Democrats will call up the workmen's compensation bill or Philippine conference report.

Senator Jones resuming his speech against the shipping bill urged that even if the measure should meet one purpose for which it was proposed and reduce freight rates, foreign importers rather than American shippers, would be the beneficiaries.

Senator Fletcher, of the Commerce Committee, submitted an amendment to provide that whenever regulations or practices of foreign governments operate to discriminate against vessels of the United States it would be the duty of the shipping board to report to the President for diplomatic action or to be brought to the attention of Congress.

By Associated Press

Washington, Aug. 11.—Statements made at the recent convention in Salt Lake City of the National Association of Master Bakers that the price of bread to the consumer would be increased in the near future have attracted the attention of the Federal Trade Commission. It was said at the offices of the commission to-day that should the increase materialize a formal investigation to determine the causes might result. SOUTH CAROLINA BANS TRAVEL

By Associated Press

Columbia, S. C., Aug. 11.—The State Board of Health to-day prohibited children under sixteen years of age from traveling on railroads without a health certificate as a precaution to prevent the spread of infantile paralysis, of which there have been thirty-five cases and five deaths recently in the state.

MAKING CHILDREN EAT

Nothing is ever gained by forcing a child to eat when it refuses food. Make sure that nothing is being eaten between meals to destroy the natural appetite and if your growing child does not have a healthful craving for good, honest food at mealtimes there is something the matter. Threats of punishment if the child does not eat will not correct the difficulty.

A fitful appetite in a growing child, especially if the patient is pale, languid, nervous, irritable, and without ambition, usually means that the blood is thin. A non-alcoholic tonic such as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is demanded.

During her teens a girl lays the foundation for her future health. Lack of blood at this time may rob her of robust, healthy womanhood. It is of the greatest importance to administer to girls who grow pale and weak a safe tonic and Dr. Williams' Pink Pills meet every requirement of the most careful mother. They make the blood rich and red and it carries renewed health and strength to every part of the body.

Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Send today to the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., for the book, "Building Up the Blood." It is free.

Democratic Platform Makers in Trouble Over "Votes For Women" Plank

Saratoga Springs, N. Y., Aug. 11.—The adoption of a party platform was the principal business of the Democratic State convention which met here to-day. Prospects that a contest might develop over an attempt by supporters of Judge Samuel Seabury, of the Court of Appeals to force an endorsement of his candidacy for the gubernatorial nomination in the coming primaries appeared to have been removed with the announcement of the Seabury leaders that they would refrain from such action.

The platform builders worked all last night on the declaration of party principles to be presented. The discussion centered largely around the "votes for women" plank submitted by the suffrage party. National preparedness also claimed considerable attention.
