REACTION AFTER MEDIATION FAILS

Reading Yields All Its Rise;

More Moderate Reversals Elsewhere After Conference

By Associated Press

New York, Aug. 12.—To-day's market was influenced largely by events attending the railway labor conferences. Rails were irregular, with strength in Reading and heaviness in Western issues. Announcement toward the end of the session of the virtual failure of mediation proceedings was followed by reaction, Reading yielding all its rise with more moderate reversals elsewhere.

Coppers which were the actual leaders, at gains of one to almost three points, lost little of their advance. Shipping issues were heavy in connection with the proposed capital readjustment of the Mercantile Marine Company. The closing was irregular. Bonds were steady.
