Young Husband Could See No Other Reason For Pretty Wife's Desertion

Except that his pretty young wife had occasionally complained that she hadn't enough to eat, she hadn't any reason for leaving his bed and board, equally youthful Milton Street, Monday told the Dauphin county court today when arraigned for nonsupport.

The young husband was required to pay $2.50 weekly for the support of his child. Other nonsupport cases heard to-day included John Keener, Middletown, who was directed to pay $5 weekly toward the support of his wife and two children, George Hoffmann also pleaded guilty to nonsupport. His wife left him he said, because he had refused to give her his last dollar and a half to buy a new corset.

Ask Father's Consent by Mail. — When Rodrick Amos who wants to wed Ophelia Johnson applied to-day at the marriage license bureau for the necessary permission, Clark Jacob Alvord handed him a pen and indicated the blank space for the applicant's signature on the docket. Then it developed that the bride is but 19 and that her parents live in Georgia. Before the license can be granted the regularly signed and attested consent of the faraway parents must be filed here.

To Sell Property. — Permission to sell a property belonging to Margaret Ettele, a weak-minded girl, to Thomas Granger, for $475 was granted to-day by the Dauphin county court.

Ask Church Charter. — Application for a charter for the Christian Scientist Church at Front and Emerald streets was made to-day to the Dauphin county court.

To Build New Home. — Robert E. Williams to-day got a permit to build a two-story brick and frame dwelling at 323 Muench street at a cost of $2,500.

Wants Part of Hubby's Check. — The Dauphin county court was asked to-day by Mrs. Adam Hauck to permit her to draw upon a hundred dollar savings certificate which her husband left in the Middletown bank when he deserted her. The woman recently obtained an injunction to prevent the disposal of the check. She wants the money for the support of herself and children.

Demand $10,000 Damages. — Damages to the amount of $10,000 demanded by Mrs. Carmel Dilbertis, widow of Michael Dilbertis, in a suit on trespass begun to-day against C. W. Lutz. Mrs. Dilbertis declares that on October 29, 1915, her husband, Michael, was struck by an automobile driven by Lutz near Rutherford and that he died the following day as a result of the accident. She wants $5,000 for herself and $5,000 for her four children, Domenic, aged 10, Joseph, 6, Mary, 4, and Rosa, 3.

Do you want a clear skin?

If your skin is not fresh, smooth and glowing, or has suffered from an unwise use of cosmetics, let Resinol Soap help to clear it, in a natural healthy way.

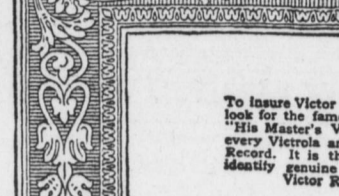

Simply use Resinol Soap regularly once or twice a day, and see if it does not quickly soothe and cleanse the pores, lessen the tendency to pimples, and leave the complexion clear, fresh and velvety.

When the skin is in really bad condition, spread on just a little Resinol Ointment for ten minutes before using Resinol Soap. Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment are sold by all druggists. For samples, write to Dept. 33-R, Resinol, Baltimore, Md.
