Auburn, N. Y., Aug. 15. — Almost half the $500,000 fund called for by Auburn Theological Seminary has been raised, President George B. Stewart announced. Gifts amounting to $230,-000 have been received, practically all from among the alumni and friends. The call for half a million dollars was made by Dr. Stewart on account of the ever increasing demands in the efficient training of ministers.

The second session of the Auburn summer schools is now closing with a record attendance. In the past ten days, which were devoted to the subject of training for Christian workers, many well-known religious and educational leaders have served on the faculty.
