FINAL MATCH IN TENNIS TOURNAMENT

McCreath and Pollock Play Challenge Match; Yesterday's Winners

Another city tennis title was won yesterday by Harrisburg's two tennis stars, William McCreath and Charles Pollock. This pair of clever racket wielders took three straight sets from Glenwood Beard and Robert Shreiner. The winners in one set took six out of seven games.

In the finals of the mixed doubles, Miss Ruth Starry and Charles Pollock, showing excellent form in all branches of play won from Katherine Sweeney and William McCreath. Each score was 6-2.

It is expected that the tournament will end to-day. Miss Ruth Starry yesterday received the silver cup, the trophy as winner of the ladies' singles. This afternoon Glenwood Beard played William McCreath in the challenge match for the city championship. The scores of yesterday follow:

M. P. CHAMPIONS BEAT BILDTOWN

Take Game From Central Division Leaders on Timely Swats

Williamsport, Pa., Aug. 17.—Mike Friel's Harrisburg Motive Power champions caught the twice-time champions of the Central Railroad Division of the Pennsylvania Railroad off their stride yesterday and won by a score of 11 to 7. The locals, still relaxing from their strenuous efforts in winning the championship of the Central division, failed to play together as they usually do and besides showed a disposition to get all of the errors out of their systems before they tackle the Elmira bunch here again next Friday afternoon.

By inserting a safe blow here and there when the locals were making miscues the visitors easily romped away with the game. Beaver gave a nice exhibition of pitching, his work in the pinches being especially good.

ISLANDERS DROP TWO TO MINERS

Pitchers Not in Form; Fielders Have Costly Errors; Other League Games

Scranton, Pa., Aug. 17.—The Islanders were out of form yesterday and Bill Coughlin's Miners trotted home with one easy victory, and a second won through timely hits. Scranton won the first by a score of 11 to 3. The second score was 4 to 3, in a nine inning argument.

In the opening battle John Fox was pitted against Volz. The latter was hit hard, while the Iron Man from Reading kept the safeties well scattered. Helfrich went into the game too late to do much. Errors by Harrisburg were costly.

Volz started the second contest and pitched a good game up to the fifth inning when he was bumped hard. Huenke held the Miners until the finish. Winters, the Harrisburg boy had speed and curves. His support was not of the best, but he was tight in pinches.

Other League Games
Albany and Wilkes-Barre divided a double bill. Both games were fast and the pitchers were in great form. Donahue of Albany, allowed five hits in the first game, and Brown for the Barons, was hit once in the second battle. Syracuse gained a few points in the lead by taking a game from Elmira. It was an eleven-inning pitcher's duel. The score of the Harrisburg games follow:

I believe you will be interested to hear the results of my first inventory. I finished "stock-taking" yesterday. Contrary to usual inventory results I have very few odds and ends—my summer stock is down to almost nothing. What is left now I will clear out in the next few weeks at exceptionally low prices. But the best thought that comes to me is that I am in position to start the Fall season with an appealing stock of clean, fresh shoes. Some styles are already here. Let me show them to you.
