PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NEWS

MANY MOURN FOR MISS M. E. HENRY

Prominent in Mission Work in Marysville College Where Her Interests Centered

Some times when it is announced that a missionary speaker will have charge of a Church meeting, people take the opportunity to remain quietly at home for fear of being bored. For several years past when Miss Margaret Elizabeth Henry, of Tennessee, came to the city it was a question of getting some place large enough to hold the audience sure to gather to greet her, and hear of the wonderful work of the Marysville school, in Tennessee, in which she was so much interested.

Now she news comes that Miss Henry has been removed from the ranks of workers called to the everlasting rest. She passed quietly away in a hospital at Knoxville, never recovering after a serious operation. D. A. R. chapters of numerous States, organizations of men, women, and children, secular and religious bodies and a host of individuals who ever heard her with delight and who were glad to aid her in her work, mourn her passing.

Miss Henry was superintendent of scholarships for the Maryville college, that wonderful place where the Mountaineers may be educated at so small a cost, and during her field work she secured in cash $122,692 beside numerous pledges for the college. There are three separate scholarships, as memorials to Miss Henry from admiring friends. From an old Tennessee family of the Mountaineers, a relative of the celebrated Patrick Henry, of Colonial days, she was educated at Maryville and although after years she received many flattering offers to associate herself with other institutions, with large salary, she refused to leave her first love.

Miss Henry last came to Harrisburg as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Elder Bailey, who entertained her in the old Bailey residence at Chestnut and Front streets, inviting guests to meet her socially and hear the romantic story she had to tell. Several Harrisburg scholarships are held in Maryville college by individuals and missionary bands.

NO PLACE LIKE HOME
Mr. and Mrs. William Coneyman, 2008 Jefferson street, returned to the city after spending the past four months with their daughter, Mrs. E. E. McCullough, of Los Angeles. In spite of the attractiveness of many points of interest visited in the West and Middle West, they still believe Harrisburg the ideal place.

Dr. and Mrs. David J. Hetrick visited Buena Vista Hotel, near Pen Mar.

Miss Ethel Sprout and Miss Cora Wise are home after a visit at the home of John Robb, in Dauphin.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Zechler, of 1411 Thompson street, have returned to the city after visiting in Halifax.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry V. Santry, of New Haven, Conn., visited Dr. and Mrs. David J. Hetrick for a few days.

Mrs. John J. Mullenowney and children, of Paxtang, have gone to Easton for a visit among relatives.

ENGAGE SAXAPHONE QUARTET TO PLAY AT FESTIVAL

The saxophone quartet of the Iroquois band of Palmyra has been engaged to furnish the music at a festival to be held under the auspices of the degree team of the Modern Woodmen in the park at Hummelstown on the evening of August 19.

Elaborate arrangements are being made by the committee in charge and patrons may look forward to a pleasant and enjoyable evening.

The quartet will also accompany the band to the Watoms Park Sunday school picnic on the afternoon of the same day where they may be heard in concert work.

Hick-A-Thrift Camp Opens Along the Juniata

The Hick-A-Thrift class of the Pine Street Presbyterian Church Sunday school will leave Saturday for the annual camping trip. They will pitch their tents along the Juniata river, just beyond Millerstown in Perry county. They have had twelve years of camping, most of the time spent on the Yellow Breeches creek at Bowman'sdale. There will be fishing, corn roasts, baseball games, volley ball, canoeing and swimming. On August 26 they plan holding a big corn roast. There will be twelve tents and the following fellows are anticipated: chicken corn soups, homemade bread and country vegetables.

Paul Richwine, Claude Olewine, Foster Bressler, Clara Stouffer, Blair Smith, Leon Simmonetti, Roy Williams, Charles Williams, Harry Richwine, Benjamin Whitman, Luther Smith, William Jenkins, Levi Bolton, William Naugle, William McKay, John Santo, John Losh, William Grill, Elmer Herring, Dick Herr, Harry Springer, Murray Washburn, Donald Mummert, Clarence Brickley, George Ellis, Edgar Crist, H. STORE CLOSURES SATURDAY 1 P. M. OPEN FRIDAY NIGHT. The Burns August Sale

Is a real sale. The name "August Furniture Sale" has been used carelessly by some stores and abused by making the sale an opportunity to dispose of undesirable odds and ends and goods of inferior quality. But the Burns' August Sale means larger stocks, broadest assortment of newest styles and the lowest sale price upon every piece in this immense stock. In addition you are protected here with this liberal guarantee:
We guarantee to buy back at the price you paid, any article sold in the August Furniture Sale that you can purchase elsewhere at a less price.

Attention! Smokers--

The August Sale Has Something Interesting For You

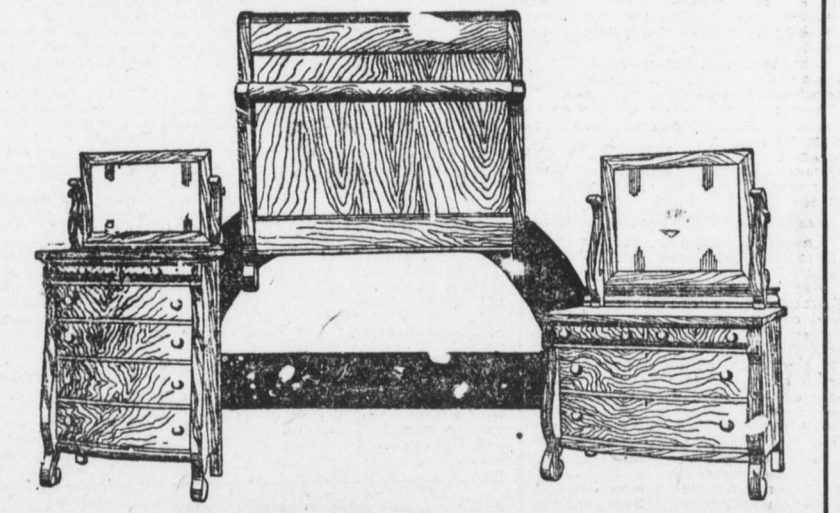

95c

for this Smoking Stand; finished in a beautiful shade of dull mahogany, substantially made, cannot easily be tipped over, has a removable glass ash receiver and metal match box holder.

Child's Crib, $6.50

Another good August Sale value. Finished white enamel, has 11 filling rods in each side. One of the sides lowers on sliding bars. This price includes an easy wire spring, with which each crib is fitted.

This Durable Colonial, Bed Room Suite, 3 Pieces, $60

The suite is designed on the popular Colonial type, of which one never tires, and is finished in dull mahogany. The pieces are all large size and exactly like shown in the illustration. The dresser and chiffonier have swell front drawers, large mirrors and extra heavy mirror frames; the drawers are all stained inside and show the good cabinet work of this suite. All the pieces have the massive scroll feet, which distinguishes the Colonial period. The bed is designed to match the rest of the suite and is of good proportion. We don't know of a better illustration that prices have not advanced here, than the value we are giving you in this suite.

Oak Buffet $23.50

Genuine quartered oak, has a long linen drawer and roomy cupboard; one of the small drawers is lined for silver, heavy plank top, forty-four-inch base. Large bevel mirror. It's an unusually good value.
