READING LANDS LEAGUE BASEBALL

Albany Team Opens Today With Elmira; Big Program With Music

Special to the Telegraph Reading, Aug. 22.—After one long battle New York State League baseball is now a certainty for this city. The Albany team to-day played Elmira in the opening game. Whether the franchise remains here next season depends upon patronage, and negotiations are now on to play Sunday baseball.

The introduction of New York State League baseball was the occasion for a half holiday. Many prominent city and county officials attended. The game will be played on Circus Maximus field. The Ringgold band was to-day furnished by the Reading Chamber of Commerce. Mayor Filbert tossed out the first ball.

Braves' Offer For Zim Is Still Under Fire

Special to the Telegraph Chicago, Aug. 22.—Negotiations for a trade between the Braves and Cubs involving the transfer of Heinie Zimmerman to Boston reached a deadlock yesterday after Manager Stallings had conferred for hours with President Weeghman and Manager Tinker. The Boston offer for Zimmerman, who was not given out, fell short of what the Cub management considered an equivalent for the third baseman and a counteroffer by Manager Tinker to trade Zimmerman for Maranville did not prove acceptable to Stallings. The Boston club, it is understood, offered to give Chicago two outfielders or a young pitcher.

Many Star Players on Major Optional List

Special to the Telegraph Cincinnati, Aug. 22.—Included in the list of 103 players who were sold to minor league clubs by major league teams under the optional agreement, which provided for their recall on August 15, are some well-known tossers who have made good during their stay in the minors.

WELLY'S CORNER

R. Norris Williams, II, easily won the first round yesterday in the Southampton tennis tournament. He defeated Douglas S. Matters. Williams is still suffering with an injured leg and worked under difficulties. Maurice E. McLaughlin arrived on the battlefield last evening and will play to-day.

President J. H. Farrell of the New York State League, has indefinitely suspended Umpire Dougherty and Manager Jack Lewis of the Wilkes-Barre team. The pair were in an ugly fist fight at Wilkes-Barre last Tuesday.

The State champions from all over the United States will start the big handicap at St. Louis to-day. There are many classy entries. In the meantime other crack shots including J. G. Martin of Harrisburg will get busy smashing targets in the sweepstakes events.

HARRISBURG HOME FROM HARD TRIP

Lose to Barons on Bad Bound in Right Field; Fast Fielding

Harrisburg wound up the worst trip of the season at Wilkes-Barre yesterday, losing to the Barons, score 2 to 1. It was another close battle, and at the finish one run again decided the victory. The Islanders have lost more games by a margin of one run than any team in the league.

MAJOR LEADERS GET LOCAL MEN

Team Home For Hard Series; Cockill to Get Into Uniform

Harrisburg players by their good work won recognition from major league scouts. Dan Brown, the fast outfielder and hitter, has been purchased by Connie Mack. The Athletic leader also recalled Pitcher Volz. A dispatch from Philadelphia says: "Now it seems that even Connie Mack has grown dissatisfied with the work of the Athletic team that is now representing Philadelphia in the American League, for it was announced yesterday that he had begun buying minor leaguers with which to bolster up his nine. The following eight players are said to have been secured, some to report at the close of the minor league season and some early next Spring in time to start south for Spring training:

"Pitchers Farnham, of the Raleigh Club of the North Carolina League; Volz, of the Harrisburg New York State League club, and Johnson, of the Vernon club of the Pacific Coast League; infielder George, of the Vernon club, and Grover, of the Butte Rocky Mountain League team; outfielders Bodie, of the San Francisco club; Thayer, of the Atlanta Southern Association team; and Brown, of the Harrisburg team.

Labor Day Games The transfer of the games to Reading will put the Islanders in that city for two games on Labor Day. As there will be a carnival and a big parade on that day in Harrisburg, Manager George Cockill is of the opinion that Reading will be the best proposition financially.

Harrisburg starts a six-game series to-day. Binghamton will play three games and Elmira two. This will be the last appearance of these teams in this city this season. Elmira has a double-header for Saturday. With the Binghamton game, Eddie Zimmerman, who managed last season's International League team. He will play third base.

Another interesting feature this afternoon was the presence of Manager George Cockill, who has been anxious to get into the game and promised to put on a uniform this afternoon.

After a week away from home during which Harrisburg will play Syracuse and Utica, the Islanders will return for a series of games with Utica, Syracuse and Albany.

Open Season For Birds Is Given Further Regulations

Special to the Telegraph Washington, Aug. 22.—Regulations designating open seasons for hunting migratory birds under the new Federal Migratory Bird law were promulgated yesterday by Secretary Houston, of the Department of Agriculture. They apply only in cases where equal protection to the birds is not provided under State laws, the State regulations governing where the open seasons they designate begin later or end earlier than stipulated in the Federal designations.
