HELFRICH HOLDS CALHOUN'S COLTS

The rain was a blessing after the hot spell. While it was difficult to field with accuracy, some fast work was in evidence during the rainfall.

Helfrich Has Puzzlers

Helfrich Has Puzzlers

Helfrich was the big boy for Harrisburg with his puzzlers. Four scattered hits in four innings was the best the Bingoes could do. Some of the hits by the Calhoun crowd were labeled for bingles, but Downey, Brown, Layden and Cook robbed the pennant chasers with sensational fielding.

Hits by Gough, Elliott and Mills and a sacrifice by Wheat brought the first run. In the fourth, singles by Brown, Gough, Mills and Layden, sacrifices by Wheat and Helfrich and an error by Senna, added four more runs. The sixth came in the fifth on Downey's single and stolen base; and a safety by Brown. The score:

Mabel Trask Is Thriller
in Grand Circuit Races

Special to the Telegraph

Cleveland, Aug. 24.—Mabel Trask and St. Frisco, in the western reserve 2:08 trot, furnished the thrills yesterday at the North Randall Grand Circuit meeting. With the wind blowing a gale along the mile ring, the mare, piloted by Cox, and the stallion driven by the veteran Geers, raced neck and neck through the entire course in all three heats, the Trask mare getting the third heat.

It was a great race and stirred the big throng to wild enthusiasm. Mabel Trask was the favorite, but St. Frisco gave her a great battle in the first two heats, the second heat being stepped in 2:04½, remarkably fast time considering the high wind. St. Frisco managed to nose out the Trask mare in the third heat, and the two horses divided the major portion of the $3,000 purse.

Miss Perfection, the favorite in the 2:11 trot, after getting off to a bad start and finishing sixth in the first heat, stepped off in the next two and won handly over Hazel Laing, who had won the first heat.

NEED NEW NAME

Change Will Come During the Winter; Plans Now Under Discussion

When the season's business of the New York State League has been wound up, plans will start for a reorganization of the oldest circuit. Reports say that club owners are already The plan of Manager George Cockill discussing probable changes. the addition of Reading the organization can no longer be called a New York State League. There is a probability that other franchises may be sold before next season's plans are complete. Binghamton backers according to reports are ready to sell out and there have been rumors that Elmira owners might dispose of the club if induce-ments are offered. According to a general belief there will be little trouble in getting cities next season. The Syracuse Post Standard says:

Change Must Come

"An interesting situation has arisen with the transfer of the Albany fran-chise to Reading, Pa. The so-called New York State League of which Reading is now a member, has ceased to be a New York State League, inas-Where Teams Play Today much as four of its members belong to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

"For several seasons Wilkes-Barre and Scranton owners have been clamoring to change the name of the circuit, but John H. Farrell has stuck grimly to his guns, and, backed by the owners of clubs in this State, of which there has always been a majority, succeeded in having the circuit retain the name it has borne for 21 years. Syracuse, Troy, Albany, Utica, Binghamton and Elmira have stood solidly with the league executive and every effort to have the name changed has proven unavailing.

"Now, however, a different situation has arisen. The balance of power is equally divided, between New York and Pennsylvania, each State having four clubs. It is likely that Harrisburg, where the Troy franchise was shifted late in June, and Reading will join hands with Wilkes-Barre and Scranton in the demand that the name of the circuit be changed.

As a matter of fact the present is a misnomer, New York State has shown it cannot support a Class B organization without the assistance of Pennsylvania. That being the case, Pennsylvania should have a word as to the name of the organization." grimly to his guns, and, backed by the Philadelphia, Aug. 24.—Two Philadelphia boys, "Pep" Young and George Burns, were the Slugging aces in Detroit's 10-to-3 victory over the Athletics yesterday. It was the close of the four-game series and the Michigan squad took three.

Young, former Phille and Yankee, who originally came from the Harrisburg Tri-State team, was the leading whaler, with four hits in five times at bat. His batting log showed three bingles and a double.

Burns, of Tioga fame, was right at Young's heels. The tall first baseman, who was in a temporary batting slump earlier in the week, lashed a home run into the left field bleachers and also had a pair of singles.

It took the Philadelphia boys to show the mighty Ty Cobb how to pile up hits.
