RENEWAL OF FIGHT FOR CONSIDERATION OF CORRUPT PRACTICES BILL STIRS SENATE

Washington, D. C., Aug. 25.—Renewal of Senator Owen's fight for consideration at this session of his corrupt practices bill has rattled the composure of the Democratic program to-day. The Senator by insisting again yesterday on speedy consideration of his legislation, threatened today adjournment of Congress and precipitated a heated exchange between Republicans and Democrats of charges that each party had raised huge campaign funds for use in the coming elections. It was problematic whether this prospective crystallization of a party to-day reported to the corrupt practices bill high cause some Democrats who heretofore had intended to oppose action on the measure at this session, to reverse their attitude. Senator Owen said he would make motion to call up his bill after the revenue bill is disposed of. Senator Owen declared the existing contribution law was a fraud upon the American people, accused Republicans of deliberately trying to defeat his measure and charged that the so-called lumber trust had sent $10,000 into Oklahoma to defeat his nomination because he voted to deny Wm. Lorimer a seat in the Senate.

WESTERN UNION CHARGED WITH DISCRIMINATION

Washington, Aug. 25.—The Commercial Cable Company complained to-day that the Western Union Telegraph Company charges full rates for international deferred cablegrams to inferior points where the Postal Telegraph Company does not connect, but only charges half rates to the Marconi Wireless Telegraph Company and the Central and South American Telegraph Company. Reparation of $8,880 is asked. It also is alleged that the Western Union charges the French Cable Company full rates.

Says He Spent $200,000 to Entertain Aged Man

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 25.—Details as to how he spent $200,000 belonging to Edward W. Morrison, 50 years old in "entertaining" the aged millionaire, were given yesterday by John Sommers, jeweler and long-time friend of Morrison, at the resumption of the Federal Court investigation of the old man's bankruptcy proceedings. Sommers said he had spent a large amount to pay liquor bills contracted by Morrison and that large amounts had been expended for a questionable form of entertainment. "I was forced to remain away from home three or four days at a time when I went out with Morrison," Sommers told the Court.

Girl Hugs Burglar While Sister Gets Aid

Valparaiso, Ind., Aug. 25.—Herman Lang, 22, walking from his home in Cleveland to Chicago to find work, walked into the arms of Miss Carrie Hollett, 30, a buxom country lass, and was walked into the county jail to await trial on a charge of burglary. Lang entered the Hollett home, six miles from here, loaded up with jewelry and silverware and departed through an open window. Just at that moment Miss Hollett appeared from around a corner of the house, espied Lang coming around him and gathered the startled burglar into a tight embrace, in the meantime shouting for help. Her sister, Miss Elva, responded, took in the house and returned with an empty double-barrelled shotgun, which she leveled at Lang. She held him prisoner until Carrie telephoned and asked Sheriff Tindall to come and get the burglar.

TIRPITZ WANTS NEW U-BOAT WAR

"Manifesto" Says U. S. Is Already Doing Germany All Possible Damage

Washington, D. C., Aug. 25.—Mail reports of a "manifesto" recently issued by Admiral von Tirpitz, former head of the German navy, calling for an unrestricted renewal of submarine warfare, have been received from Ambassador Gerard, in Berlin, by the State Department. The dispatches are very vague and the text is not included, nor is it revealed what official position, if any, Von Tirpitz now holds. The "manifesto" was issued about a month ago. It declared for a renewal of submarine operations which would cripple England seriously and do no harm so far as the United States was concerned, as that country already is doing Germany much damage as she possibly could, even in a state of war. Why Von Tirpitz, even though retired, would be permitted to issue such a manifesto, if it were violently in disagreement with official policy, is not understood by officials here. As a retired officer he still would be subject to military discipline.
