Mrs. Letts Captures Title in Western Golf Tournament

Grand Rapids, Mich., Aug. 26.—Mrs. F. C. Letts, Jr., of Cincinnati, won the women's western golf title on the links of the Kent Country Club yesterday by defeating Miss Laurie Kaiser, of the Flossmoor Club, Chicago, in the final round of the championships by a margin of 3 and 1.

Playing with an accuracy she had displayed in no other match this week, Mrs. Letts made a record for the first nine holes, going out in 44, seven strokes under par.

Miss Kaiser lived up to her reputation of being one of the best wielders of wooden clubs in the West, but her work on the greens and short approaches was unsteady.

Mrs. Letts, on the other hand, played a deadly short game, capturing the title in the final for the Kent trophy Mrs. J. H. Lindsey, Detroit, defeated Miss Carrie Hubbert, South Shore, Chicago, 3 and 1, while Miss Ruth Dugan, of Columbus, Chicago, defeated Miss Kate Holt, of Kent, Grand Rapids, 7 and 6 in the final for the association trophy.

Welsh Insures His Hands During Training Season

New York, Aug. 26.—Freddie Welsh, who will defend his featherweight title against Charlie White in a twenty-round bout at Colorado Springs Labor Day, has opened negotiations to insure his hands for $20,000 during the training period.

Figures on the cost of $100,000 insurance against rain on Labor Day have been requested of Lloyd's by Eddie Pitts, promoter of the bout.

Requests for women for seats in the arena have caused the management to set aside a block of seats for their use.

BROOKLYN IN BAD SHAPE

Cincinnati, Ohio, Aug. 26.—Jake Daubert, the star of the Dodgers, may not play another game this year. The first baseman and batting leader in the National League is suffering from wobbly legs.

Both pedals seem to have given out completely. There is a slight possibility, in the opinion of doctors, that Daubert may be able to get back in the line-up within ten days. If he does, it is likely that he won't be of real value to the club.

Gay, Pine Grove, Ky., 20 yards, 95; E. Caldwell, Troy, Tenn., 15 yards, 95; J. E. Kays, McNabb, Ill., 18 yards, 95; L. C. Grant, Wilmington, N. C., 18 yards, 95; C. M. Beer, Rockford, Ill., 19 yards, 95; J. G. Frye, Ollie, Iowa, 19 yards, 95.

AMUSEMENTS

It is said that the hundreds of theatergoers who saw John Hyams and Leila McIntyre in their great success, "The Girl From Utah" will scarcely believe it possible that the popular stars could find a more pleasing and more profitable appearance in a more popular play. It is said that the hundreds of theatergoers who saw John Hyams and Leila McIntyre in their great success, "The Girl From Utah" will scarcely believe it possible that the popular stars could find a more pleasing and more profitable appearance in a more popular play.

Kate Elinore, known from coast to coast as the funniest woman on the American stage, comes to Harrisburg to play "My Aunt and My Uncle" at the head of her own company of merrymakers in a musical comedy, "The Girl From Utah."

"Soul Mates," which comes to the Regent Theater to-day, is a psychological drama from the "Soul Mates" original story. "Secret Matings" sell appears in the stellar role. This is a tense and powerful story of the love of a strong man for his wife, who betrays his love and sears his soul with hatred for her.

Billie Burke, in the tenth chapter of "Gloria's Romance," is also shown to-day in beginning her investigation of Freneau's death. Gloria goes first of all to the office of Mulry, Dick's partner, and while there, there is a complete change for the first half of next week in the play "The Marriage of Figaro."

To-night is the last opportunity to see the Majestic and Eddie Carr and Company present a comedy at the sketch called "The Office Boy" that calls forth many outbursts of laughter. Dooley and Rugel, in a lively comedy skit, together with three other acts, complete the bill.

The headline attraction booked for the first half of next week is Spencer Charters, well known Harrisburg man, and his wife, little Irene Myers, in a comedy sketch called "The Hermit's Wife" which this couple are presenting is said to contain good comedy, which is always the main feature in the variety show.

Other acts include Captain Kidder and Company in scenic singing act; Clark and Verdi, two excellent Italian character singing and talking comedians, and two other acts.

The new Barriscale play, "The Payment," is said to be one of the finest and most interesting social comedies that has ever been seen in this city.

Today's attraction at the Victoria is a picture play that is different, it is "Paying the Price." Victoria Today breeze. With its scenes of Government life in Washington and its action on the United States torpedoed destroyer, No. 60, the Wadsworth, the spectacular feature affords the specifically amusing entertainment, but an occasion of extreme pleasure.

COULD NOT WIN FROM COLONELS

Elmira Given Life on Questionable Decisions; Wins Out in the Twelfth

Pitcher Volz lost his game to Elmira yesterday, score 3 to 2. It was a twelve-inning struggle and the younger had the best of the battle up to the time he was relieved by Huenke. The game should not have gone more than the regulation nine innings.

Volz, while not showing the form he has exhibited on other occasions, was strong in pinches. The Colonels with work, aided by fast fielding, including several double plays. The game was prolonged and the Colonels given life through numerous questionable plate decisions on balls and strikes against Clark's 24.

When the game started in extra innings Harrisburg had several chances to score, but lost out through lack of timely hits and unlucky breaks. Barnhart pitched a good game and received brilliant support.

Both Score in First Both teams scored in the first inning, hits counting with stolen bases. Harrisburg was aided by a home run. Layden walked in the sixth and stole second. Cook's Texas leaguer brought the run. Elmira tied up in the seventh. Ward singled and went around Cook's fumble. Conroy's hit brought a run. In the twelfth singles by Eoenk, Casey and Hunter brought the victory. The score: HARRISBURG

Convict Is Shot as He Tries to Rob R. R. Station

Bethlehem, Pa., Aug. 26.—William Presher, an escaped convict from the New Jersey Penitentiary, was shot here yesterday while trying to break into the New Jersey Central station. The shot was fired only a few feet from a railroad crossing tender. Presher was surprised by Policemen Widdoes, but got away. Diddos fired shots after Presher. They were heard by Ehret, who saw the fugitive coming in Presher's left hip.

Trenton, N. J., Aug. 26.—William Presher, several times an inmate of the State prison, escaped from the convict road camp at Rocky Hill last Sunday. He was only 27 days here, to complete the minimum of his term of two and one-half to seven years. He was received at the prison, March 13, 1914, having been convicted in New Jersey on charges of breaking and entering and larceny.

JAKE DAUBERT IS HOLDING RECORD

Leads National Batters; What Major League Stars Are Doing

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 26.—Jake Daubert, though kept out of the game by "charley horse" for several days, has regained the lead among National League batters, and Hornsby, the St. Louis sensation, is in second, according to averages published here today including games of last Wednesday. Carey, Pittsburgh, still is in front among the base stealers with 42 thefts to his credit.

Black Chicago, leads in sacrifice hits with 32; Williams, Chicago, in home runs with 10; Hornsby and Wheat, Brooklyn, are tied for the lead in total bases with 186 each, and Burns, New York, is in front in runs scored with 71.

Brooklyn Leads at Bat Brooklyn leads in club batting with 261. WELLY'S CORNER

It is not often Harrisburg fans blame the loss of a game to an umpire, but when decisions come as raw as they did yesterday, local patrons have a right to kick. But for the fact that the season is near the end, Harrisburg Club officials and others would enter a vigorous protest against Umpire Pfrman. His work has been severely criticised all season, but during the past week it has been of such a character that not a few patrons have left the grounds and vowed they would not attend a game where Pfrman officiated.

Harrisburg was not in a timely hitting mood yesterday. Volz was not pitching in best form. Either of these two shortcomings would not have lost the game had Harrisburg been given just decisions. It was on balls and strikes that Pfrman was woefully weak. Both sides suffered, but on two occasions Elmira hitters were given life, reached base through rank decisions, and scored. At times the decisions were so ridiculous that even the Elmira players smiled.

While on the question of umpires, it might be timely to suggest that in re-organization of the Farrell League for next season close attention be given in the selection of indicator men. They have been a whole lot responsible for the lack of interest in ball games. Clothed with authority to prevent unnecessary kicking and rowdiness, they permit players to use vile names and do as they please. Few rowdy players have been benched this season in the Farrell league. However, there would not be many kicks but for the lack of ability on the part of the men now officiating in the New York State League.

Freddie Welsh is not going to take any chances losing his ability to fight. In insuring his hands before the Labor Day battle with Charles White he is going to be sure that he will not lose the opportunity to better his bank account. He has no chance to lose.

Those Utes are trying had to get into the first division, and have been cleaning up everybody. Yesterday the Barons took another tumble, Utica losing by a score of 3 to 5. Ring was the pitching star. Three Wilkes-Barre twirlers were unable to stop the Utica slaugter.

Red Calhoun's downhearted tribe came back yesterday and walloped Reading, score 9 to 6. Both Dessau and Harbed were hit. The Bingesos were their bingle in bunches. Scranton yesterday put a spike in Syracuse's climb, winning out by a score of 2 to 1. It was a pitching duel between Friel and Buckles. The latter had the best of the argument.

Hagerstown won from Gettysburg yesterday, score 4 to 0. Howard pitched for the victors and allowed no hits. This twirler has been purchased by a major league team and looks like another Bob Shawkey.

In the Lucknow Shop league series the Planing Mill nine won over the Clerks, score 2 to 1. One error and no hit brought the answer.
