Different Wood For Different Uses

It is too often supposed that all kinds of wood will give equal service under all conditions.

This is not true.

The poorest of oak makes better furniture than the best of ash.

The best of oak makes a poorer axe handle than the poorest of hickory.

Don't make the mistake of using one kind of lumber for all purposes—there is a kind that will suit best.

We shall be glad to advise you the proper kind of lumber to buy.

NEARLY 3000 SIGN One More Day to Secure Names For Petition

With little more than a day remaining to obtain signatures for the jitney petition, striking carmen continued their work in the city and this morning 52 more registered voters signed their names at the City Clerk's office, making the total number of signatures 2817. To-morrow will be the last opportunity to sign the petition after which City Clerk Miller will have ten days to over the list and close all the men who signed are qualified voters.

Yesterday 157 registered voters called at the City Clerk's office and affixed their signatures to the jitney petition making the total at the close of the eighth day, 2765, a thousand more than the required number of signers.

Two Mass Meetings Last night at the two mass meetings at Sixth and Maclay streets and Thirteenth and Market streets, speakers were James H. Maurer, John J. Thorpe, C. F. Quinn, J. J. Parthenore, Hugh L. McLaughlin, and I. E. Robinson. The speakers urged the workers of the city to stand by the strikers, and declared that the company's statements that the cars are not operated by strikebreakers, is untrue. Hugh L. McLaughlin, head of the carmen's union in a statement last night urged that negotiations be started to end the long drawn-out fight, expressing his belief that the public will always remain loyal to the strikers.

Mother and Son to Study Side by Side in University

Pasadena, Ca., Aug. 30.—Side by side, Mrs. C. Pettler and her son, Charles Pettler, seventeen, will pursue their studies at the State University in Berkeley. They have just left Pasadena to take up the work.

Mrs. Pettler, who is in middle life, is a scholar, and her son has inherited her love for study. Each is so enthusiastic over the accumulation of knowledge that neither can bear to avail himself or herself of the opportunities without the other having the same advantage. For this reason they determined on a plan of temporarily closing their home here and going to school together.

Mrs. Pettler believes she can show her son some short cuts to learning, while she herself pursues more advanced subjects.

War to Boost Cost of American Bibles

Boston, Mass., Aug. 30.—The American Bible Society announced that the price of Bibles was likely to be advanced at once. The European war, which has increased the cost of paper and other raw material, was given as the cause.

The stock of Bibles and books printed in foreign languages, previously purchased from Germany, is being rapidly exhausted.

AMUSEMENTS

Kate Elinore comes to the Orpheum to-day, matinee and night, at the head of her own company in a musical comedy, entitled "My Aunt From Utah." In the supporting cast will be found Minnie Burke, Ethel Lloyd, Edith Egan, Mack Claskie, Lawrence Peterson, Waldo Whipple and Donald Archer.

A melodrama of gripping interest, narrating a story in which dramatic and comedy elements are mingled in just the right proportions to maintain the balance proper in play of this type, is promised in "For the Man She Loved" which opens at the Orpheum Theater Friday matinee for an engagement of two days.

One of the real treats of each theatrical season, it is claimed, will be that old but ever popular stage story, "Uncle Tom's Cabin," as presented by Stetson's big spectacular company, which will be seen at the Orpheum next Monday, matinee and night, as the Labor Day attraction. As in former years, Manager Washburn is said to have equipped his company with all new effects and startling scenic, electrical and mechanical devices as promised. The seat sale opens Friday morning.

There is no doubt but what the chief attraction at the Majestic this week is the appearance of Spencer Charters in "The Hermit" a Harrisburg man, assisted by his wife, Irene Myers, present a sketch entitled "The Hermit." The story deals with the quarrel between a newly married couple, and the good advice given them by the hermit (Mr. Charters). Four other acts, including the well-known Italian character actor, Clark and Verdi, are on the bill.

"My Neighbor's Garden," a delightful musical comedy, is the headline for the last half of the week. Surrounding this attraction are Walter Milton and Company, in a comedy sketch called "Don't Walk In Your Sleep," Fred and Adele Astor, who offer a piano, singing and dancing act; Jarrow, the clever magician, and Newhoff and Phelps, in a good comedy singing act.

Blanche Sweet will be seen at the Regent to-day, matinee and night, in "The Duke," a Paramount Picture.

Miss Sweet is surrounded by an all-star cast, including such distinguished artists as Ethel May, Thomas Meighan and Veda Mervin. Henry B. Walthall, star of "The Birth of a Nation," is scheduled for Friday only in "The Sting of Victory." In this play of Civil War days, Walthall takes two of the leading roles, that of Colonel Whiting, U. S. A., and Walker Whiting, a young brother, who is a Confederate officer. The eleventh episode of "Gloria's Romance," featuring Billie Burke, will be on the same program.

Bertha Kalich will be the feature attraction at the Colonial again to-day and to-morrow in a new production, in "Ambition." A photograph play graphically depicting the sacrifice of a man's home to a political power in order that he may secure success. On the same program will be shown the fourth episode of "The Grip of Evil" called "The Looters." The story is filmed in such a manner as to make it unnecessary for you to see each part in order to understand and enjoy the picture. Each part is a complete story in itself and at the same time is a continuation of the original theme, which asks the question, Is Humanity in the Grip of Evil?

An infinite variety of joshing, jolly and jovial joking will be found among the features with Captain Ashborn's big animal circus and Miss Julia Allen's blue ribbon horse show, which are here with the Krause Carnival, now showing at Mulberry and Cameron streets. Manager Krause is offering attractions this season that are entirely new to the carnival field and a pleasant departure from previous carnivals that have visited this city.

Miss Julia Allen, actress and owner of a riding school in Philadelphia in winter time, is positively here handling the reins over "Teddy," the buck and wing dancing equine wonder. Forty-seven tents are required to house the various amusement exhibits, blue ribbon shows and when the thousands of lights are turned on the grounds at Cameron and Mulberry streets resemble a real "gay white way."

Among the sensational free attractions is Miss Elma Meier, the lady champion shallow water diver. Miss Meier's program includes trick and fancy springing exhibitions and twice each day she leaps, head first, from a platform seventy-five feet in the air, into a tank of water containing five feet of water. During the remainder of the week this diving Venus will lecture on proper care and bathing to keep the body healthy and the skin clean and pretty.—Advertisement.

HOW MRS. BEAN MET THE CRISIS

Carried Safely Through Change of Life by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Nashville, Tenn.—"When I was going through the Change of Life I had a tumor as large as a child's head. The doctor said it was three years coming and gave me medicine for it until I was called away from the city for some time. Of course I could not go to him then, so my sister-in-law told me that she thought Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound would cure it. It helped both the Change of Life and the tumor and when I got home I did not need the doctor. I took the Pinkham remedies until the tumor was gone, the doctor said, and I have not felt it since. I tell every one how I was cured. If this letter will help others you are welcome to use it."

—Mrs. E. H. BEAN, 525 Joseph Avenue, Nashville, Tenn.
