

She has been through it so many times before that she never he sitates now. When anyone in the family comes to her with a spot of eczema or an itching rash, she gets out the jar of Resinol Ointment and gives prompt relief. And a few applica-tions seldom fail to clear away the irritation completely.

Resinol Ointment is an excellent healing dressing, too, for burns, scalds, cuts and stubbora little sores. Sold by all druggists, for sample free, write to Dept. 4-R, Resinol, Baltimore, Md. Use Resinol Soap for babies.

LIKE A DRAFT OF COOL AIR ON HOT SWOLLEN FEET

If you want to save your poor feet from agony — if you want to chase away corns, callouses and bunions—
If you want your feet to feel all the time as though a draft of pure, sweet air was being wafted through, your shoes—just go to H. C. Kennedy or any druggist and ask for EZO, the wonderful new foot balm. Rub it into your tired, swollen or aching feet before you go to bed and you'll be sorry you didn't try it long ago.

No matter how many fussy foot remedies you have tried, there's only one that's absolutely certain—that's EZO—Advt.

We chose his name for our new nickel cigar years ago, behad a leader in nickel cigardom. We are proud of the name.

The coroner made no effort to still, I only saw the man when the captain the loud whispers of surprised com-ment the reading of the note caused. "Where wer In fact, there seemed a bit of pride in his manner as he glanced down at the long table with its rows of newspaper if they had entered the hotel through long table with its rows of newspaper men; as though each new twist to the case was of his own devising. There came a glow of professional pride as he realized that this case would spread his name all over the country. He handed the note to the jurymen, and they read it one by one, nodding wisely. Meanwhile the talk went on in the room. The curious phraseology of the table reservation was discussed fully.

room. The curious phraseology of the table reservation was discussed fully.

"'Inclosed are fifty dollars," repeated a Times man to a World reporter, who sat beside him. "Not one person in a thousand would put that sentence in that way. It's too stiltedly correct."

"After your time of midnight!" exclaimed a Sun man. "There isn't a spot on earth, where time is kept, that midnight isn't universal. Why 'your time'?"

Coroner Bierbauer interrupted the speculation to speak: "Those words are written on papyrus, a kind of paper made in ancient Egypt" — from the corner of his eye he saw the impression this new information made—"a writing expert declared that the words had been written by a man. There are two other notes, written by the same person within the last few days, according to the expert. One, addressed to myself, I will now read you:

Coroner Bierbauer: At the Beau-

the same person within the last few days, according to the expert. One, addressed to myself, I will now read you.

Coroner Bierbauer: At the Beaumonder Restaurant you will find a dead and. Kindly proceed at once to make your official investigation so that the tooly may be sent as quickly as possible to the Fresh Pond Crematory for incineration.

"As in the case of the other note, of there is no signature," added the coroner. This note was delivered about the even-thirty last night by a messenger boy from an upper Broadway office. There is no record of who left it. Here is no record to here who left it. Here is no record of who left it. Here is

Words of Encouragement to Childless Women.

Motherhood is woman's natural destiny, but many women are denied the happiness of children simply because of some curable derangement.

Among the many triumphs of Lydia

E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is its marvelous power to overcome such derangements, as evidenced by the following letter:—
Worcester, Mass.—"I suffered from female ills, and was advised to have an operation, but a friend who had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and who has six children, told me to try it. It has helped me so much that I am now well and have a baby boy who is the picture of health, and I thank the Vegetable Compound for my restoration to health."

—Mrs. Bert Garvey, 20 Hacker St., Worcester, Mass.
In many other homes, once childless, there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy and strong.

Write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for advice—it will be confidential.

"No"

"Why didn't you notify the waiting captain of the table reservation?"

"Forgot it. I received the note early yesterday morning. I had an important engagement in the afternoon, and turned it over to my assistant because the night-room men don't report until five o'clock. Why he didn't tell the captain I don't know."

"He started yesterday on a live vacation."
"Where?"
"He didn't tell me. It was none of my business. The vacation was coming to him, and when his time was up at six o'clock he went."
"Did you examine the waiter to see that he qualified for a position in your restaurant?"

that he qualified for a position in your restaurant?"

"No. My assistant has charge of the diningroom force."

"What's his name?"

"John Norman."

The coroner made several notes before he asked the next question, and two of the square-jawed detectives hurried out to get the wheels of the police department started on this new lead.

"What did you do when you saw that the man was deed?"

"I didn't see that he was dead. I asked a friend of mine, Mr. Colton, to find out what was the trouble with him."
