

FINAL WEEK IN NEW YORK STATE LEAGUE STARTS--MARYSVILLE WINS FLAG

LYKENS WINS IN IMPORTANT GAME

Marysville Lands Upper End Flag; Few Amateur Contests on Saturday Schedule

Lykens is still a strong contender for the championship of the Dauphin-Schuylkill League. In the game with Tremont on Saturday, the leaders won out, score 3 to 2. Williamstown had an easy time with Tower City, winning by a score of 9 to 2.

Marysville took two from Millersburg Saturday and nailed the flag to the mast in the Dauphin-Perry League. Newport stopped Dauphin's stride by batting out two victories. The scores 4 to 2, and 5 to 1. Duncannon came back strong, winning from Hallfax, score 7 to 2.

Few Amateur Games

There was very little doing in the amateur line. West End walked all over Lingelstown, winning by a score of 10 to 1. Belmont, by timely hitting and all round fielding, including a number of sensational spurts won from St. Mary's C. C. of Steelton, score 7 to 6. This closed a successful season for Belmont. In an oldtime hitting argument, Midway won over Harris Park, score 12 to 10.

MARYSVILLE WINS ANOTHER PENNANT

Manager Harry Stees Has Developed Great Minor League Team; to Celebrate

Special to the Telegraph

Marysville, Pa., Sept. 4.—By winning two games last Saturday, the Marysville team clinched the Dauphin-Perry League pennant for the second time. The team now enjoys a lead of four and one-half games with but two more contests to play. Negotiations will be started this week for several post-season series. Arrangements may be made to have the remaining games of the season cancelled.

The team has never been out of first place all season, although being in a tie during the first five games. Manager Harry Stees deserves much credit for the showing made by his squad this year.

Great Baseball Machine

Although he had a team of practically all stars, yet he weeded them into a more effective machine with each player playing a better game than at any time in his career. There are seven .300 hitters on the regular team and the other two regulars are hitting around the .250 mark.

Arrangements are being made by President Stees to hold a banquet at the close of the season. Players and the young ladies who assisted at the recent baseball carnival will be the guests.

KILBANE READY TO FIGHT CHANEY

Championships Will Come With Results of Today's Ring Battles

By Associated Press

Cedar Point, Ohio, Sept. 4.—Despite assurances from both contestants in today's battle for the world's featherweight championship, Johnny Kilbane, title holder, and George Chaney, challenger, that they have easily reached the 122 pounds required, a suspicion existed in each camp before the men entered the ring that the other fellow had found difficulty in making it. The feeling seems strong in the ranks of the Chaney supporters, whose confidence grew as the hour for the contest approached.

The Cleveland boxer, through his manager, Jimmy Dunn, declared, however, that he weighed 121 pounds before leaving Cleveland yesterday and that he was in excellent shape for the bout.

Experts expect the mill to be a contest between the rugged, slam-bank style exemplified by the Baltimore man and the clever defensive battle for which Kilbane is famous. Chaney comes with a reputation as being a dispenser of knockout blows, but Kilbane is expected by his friends from Cleveland to outbox his rival throughout the fifteen rounds and perhaps score a knockout himself.

Odds before the first preliminary went on at 2 o'clock were practically 2 to 1 with Kilbane the favorite and very little Chaney money in sight.

By Associated Press

Colorado Springs, Colo., Sept. 4.—With this city crowded with fight fans and incoming trains and automobiles bringing scores of others, everything was in readiness to-day for the ring contest between Champion Freddie Welsh and Challenger Charlie White, which is to decide the lightweight championship of the world. Followers of the fighting game to-day admittedly were at sea in hazarding a choice between the two men. In the respective camps, the principals were being bet in fine condition and confident.

Betting, following announcement by District Attorney M. W. Purcell that bookmaking would be barred, was of such a nature that the favorite could not be determined. Considerable money, it was understood, is being placed privately.

The men are expected to enter the ring between 2:20 and 3 o'clock this afternoon. Final arrangements for preliminaries and motion pictures are to be made this morning. The ring-side seats this afternoon are expected to be occupied by many persons of prominence, including women from eastern and western cities who have been spending the summer here and at nearby resorts.

THREE-BAGGER IS BRIDE WINNER

Sharon Player Lands Big Prize After Several Failures; Wedding Follows Game

Sharon, Pa., Sept. 4.—When James Reed, third baseman of the Farrell baseball team, cracked out a three-base hit in a close game with Greenville yesterday and sent the winning run across the plate it won him a bride. Red has a sweetheart, Miss Hazel Doty, of Canton, Ohio, who is an ardent baseball fan and she told Reed that if he could show her that he was a live baseball player she would marry him. He brought her to Farrell to visit relatives.

Reed was overjoyed in some of the games, and after a contest with Sharpville she told him the engagement was off.

He asked for another chance and it came. Then they went to the office of justice of the peace Daniel Zuschlag and were quietly married.

MORRIS HOPES TO SHOW REAL FORM

CARL MORRIS.

Carl Morris, the original "white hope," is about to attempt a "come back," which he hopes will put him in line for a meeting with Champion Jess Willard. Morris was to-day scheduled to fight Frank Moran, the Pittsburgh heavyweight, at Tulsa, Okla.

Morris was a promising fighter at the beginning of his career, but met reverses which put him out of the running for several years. Now he has regained some of his old-time form and is regarded as a formidable man in the ring. Moran is training more faithfully for the bout with Morris than he did for his bout with Jack Dillon.

Morris is six feet six inches in height and weighs around 260 pounds.

WELLY'S CORNER

In the opening contests to-day of the national amateur golf series at Merion Cricket Club two Harrisburgers played. At 8.55 H. W. Perry started over the course in competition with C. W. Insole, of Oneida, T. V. Devine, of the Reservoir Park Club, played W. E. Code, of Wheaton, starting at 9.35 this morning.

Aaron Shaffner was the winner of the national sportsman's trophy in the third monthly shoot of the High-spre Gun Club, held Saturday. George Shanbaugh won the second cup.

Harrisburg shooters were out with members of the Harrisburg Sportsmen's Association on Saturday in a practice shoot. Martin broke 190 out of 200 and had straight runs of 61 and 43. Freeland broke 125 out of 150. Other scores were: Dunfer, 121 out of 25; Shank, 144 out of 175; Rothrock, 134 out of 175; Segelbaum, 97 out of 125; Roberts, 94 out of 100; Cleckner, 84 out of 50; Peters, 31 out of 50, and Shannon, 30 out of 50.

Izzy Hoffman's Ridgeway team won the Interstate League pennant, winning the final game Saturday from St. Mary's; score, 4 to 0.

To-day starts an important week in major league circles. The Phillies are moving pennantward and may tie up with Brooklyn to-day. The Braves look strong and are advising Boston fans to order world's series tickets at once.

This is the week set for start of activity in football circles. Tech high students will meet Coach Frank Pendergast at the school Wednesday. Equipment will be distributed to the candidates and arrangements made for starting daily practice at Island Park.

The Syracuse Stars made the pennant certain yesterday by winning from Wilkes-Barre. Scranton helped Harrisburg by giving Elmira another game, score 5 to 3. Utica won from Binghamton, score 3 to 2. The teams in the upper end of the circuit switch in to-day's morning and afternoon games.

FINAL WEEK ON FARRELL CIRCUIT

Harrisburg Plays Two Games at Reading; Home Tomorrow For Series With Utes

Harrisburg is without a league baseball game to-day. The Islanders start their final week with two games at Reading. Walter Blair and the pace-makers of the Farrell circuit return to-night for a series of five games.

On Saturday the final road battle on the North end of the route was played at Utica. Harrisburg lost out, score 10 to 9. Volz was unable to keep his puzzlers working and returned in favor of Parsons. Walker came back strong after the second inning and won his game.

The Utes will start a three-day series to-morrow, and Syracuse will follow for the wind-up games. It is not certain if there will be any double-headers. Harrisburg will wind-up the season on Monday next at Reading. Manager George Coyle has been busy planning for a post-season series with major league teams.
