FINAL TENNIS ROUNDS
Forest Hills, N. Y. Sept. 5.—William M. Johnston, the title holder, will meet R. Norris Williams, 2d, champion of 1914, this afternoon in the final round of the national lawn tennis tournament at the West Side Tennis Club. Both men have earned their places in the last bracket by a series of victories which have demonstrated that the match for the championship will be between the two best players in the country. Johnston's defeat of R. Lindley Murray yesterday in three straight sets and Williams' victory over Clarence J. Griffin by the same short route showed that the two finalists are at the top of their game.

Today's Percentage For Three Contenders

Here are the standings of the three leaders carried out to the hundred thousandths: Boston 71 Philadelphia . 72

Priladelphia 72 49 .595041
Brooklyn ... 72 49 .595041
This shows that Boston leads the Philadelphias and Brooklyn by the hairline margin of .001598, or less than two points.

Williamstown is now the favorite to Harrisburg baseball fans look for fast baseball this week. While the team has been badly crippled, the Ispennant. Lykens was given a double landers are still setting a pace. Every tumble yesterday. Trement and Tower effort will be made to square things with Utica and to try and even up with the Stars. This is the week local patrons should break all records.

Members of the Harrisburg Academy War cance team will meet tonight at Reist's boathouse and elect a captain for next year.

On Saturday, September 16, a picked team from the Stanley, Galahad and Reading teams of the Allison Hill League will play Rosewood this season's champions. John Winters will be on the mound for Rosewood. He has been doing good work for Scranton and will close his season Saturday.

Results of yesterday's New York State League games made no change in the standing. Syracuse took two from Utica and cannot be ousted from first place. Binghamton and Elmira split their double-headers; and Scran-ton took two. Winters figured in the second contest.

Something is doing in the National League. The Phillies yesterday took two from Brooklyn and moved up to within a few points of Boston. To-day and to-morrow they meet the leaders. Two victories will put the Philadelphia pace setters in the lead. Detroit took two games yesterday and moved closer. two games yesterday and moved closer to Boston.

Match play in the Fred B. Harry Match play in the Fred B. Harry loving cup tournament at Reservoir Park started yesterday and a few matches were played. Smith beat Barley; Richards beat Hinkley; Mc-Clure beat Babb; Meikle beat Nugent, and Edmondson beat Lebo. Sixty-four players are entered and some strong competition is looked for before the final round is played.

G. S. Trout captured first honors in G. S. Trout captured first honors in the season handicap tournament at Reservoir last week. This tournament closes Saturday, September 30, and will be a close race with about six players at the finish. W. D. Meikle leads with 20 1-3 points, C. E. Zimmerman has 20 points and E. J. Sherk, the winner of the Juniata cup at Altoona last week, 15 points.

The Bogey tournament at Reservoir finished Thursday with Karl E. Richards and G. W. Vint tied with 4 up on Bogey.

Arrangements are being made for a team match between the Reservoir team and the Colonial Country Club team. This match will probably be staged about September 16 or 23 over the Colonial course and should prove very interesting.

Bob McCreath, captain of the Har-risburg Country Club golf team, walk-ed away from a small field of entries in the annual Labor Day tournament and won from scratch with a score of 78.

Activities have been quiet at the club up the river this summer, but there has been no decline in interest. The players are evidently marking time till the completion of the new course at Fort Hunter, which will be among the best in the State. It is to be of standard size and perhaps a little over. Who knows but what a national tournament may some day be staged here in Harrisburg, if conditions permit?

Out at the Colonial Club they are following Grantland Rice's advice to prevent slicing and pulling: "Try topping the ball awhile."

W. T. Fownes, Jr., of Oakmont, former holder of the amateur title, led the field of 153 starters with the low score of 153 in the qualifying round for the amateur golf championship of the United States Golf Association held yesterday over the courses of the Merion Cricket Club. Most of the favorities qualified in yesterday's play.

Points in the summer handicap tournament at the Colonial Country Club last week were awarded as fol-lows: H. S. Miller, 5; S. B. Nissley, 3; and A. H. Armstrong, 1.

In the Kicker's Tournament at the Colonial Country Club, Dr. Hazen won first prize. Armstrong, Benedict, Gourley and Hunter were tied for second place while J. F. Miller captured the third prize.

On Saturday, R. Murray of the Colonial Club made number six hold in one. "Lake Misery" as this hole is styled certainly has no terrors for him.
