

FIGHT COUNCIL TO FINISH ON BRIDGE GRANT

Chamber of Commerce Plans to Take Immediate Action For Test in Court

COMMISSIONERS RAPPED

Property Owners Effected by Connecting Viaduct to Join in Battle

Members of the City Council who are explaining their grant to a private corporation to erect an overhead bridge on Seventh street, on the score of concern for local manufacturing interests, are coming in for a lot of public criticism because in the same breath they declare this permit establishes no precedent.

It was stated today that the Chamber of Commerce had retained counsel and that immediate steps would be taken to secure a legal decision through the courts as to the right of the city to grant its consent for the building of such a bridge in a public highway.

STATE GAZETTE 12 A WEEK

A marked advance in the price of "print" paper and an increased cost of labor makes it necessary for the publishers of the State Gazette to increase the price of that newspaper from 10 cents to 12 cents a week where it is served by carrier.

The publishers of the State Gazette regret the necessity for taking this step, but conditions are such that the present price, 10 cents a week, barely pays the cost of the paper on which the State Gazette is printed.

It is hoped subscribers will understand the necessity for this move and continue to let the State Gazette give them the best news service obtainable in this section of the State.

The increased price will go into effect Monday, September 11, 1916.
