REVENUE BILL HAS MANY NEW AND FAR-REACHING ITEMS

Chamber of Commerce Indignant Over Loss of Webb Bill; New Forms of Taxes

Washington, Sept. 7.—The Chamber of Commerce is indignant over loss of the Webb bill, which it advocated relating to the combinations of American businessmen to promote the foreign trade making lawful acts that are declared to be conspiracies in restraint of commerce by the Clayton act. This legislation has been urged by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, and the President had promised it in some of his political speeches.

In sections amending the existing tariff law the bill provides for increased tariff rates on dyestuffs to be applied after the European war in order to encourage upbuilding of the industry in this country.

The Senate adopted the amendments of Senators Thomas and Phelan, authorizing the President to use retaliatory measures against foreign countries that may discriminate against the commerce of the United States.

The Thomas amendment authorizes the withholding of clearances from vessels of foreign nations that refuse to carry American goods, and the Phelan amendment directs the President to deny the mails to countries that resort to improper seizures of mails of American merchants.

Encourage Fish Industry—Which is not based at all on conditions arising from the war would prohibit the admission of halibut or salmon into the United States from any foreign coast through any foreign nation except in bond from a United States port. This is directed against an alleged Canadian monopoly of the Pacific Northwest fish industry and is designed to encourage revival of an American fish industry in those waters.

The bill creates a tariff commission, recommended by President Wilson, to consist of six members, not more than three of whom shall be of one political party, the first members to be appointed for terms of two, four, six, eight, ten and twelve years, respectively, to be designated by the President, their successors to be appointed for terms of twelve years.

A section of the bill is designed as a safeguard against the "dumping" of foreign goods into the United States at cheap prices after the war.

Income Tax Amendment—The bill finally agreed upon provides for an increase from 1 to 2 per cent. on the normal income tax, with an exemption of $4,000 for married and $3,000 for single persons, and for the following surtaxes:

One per cent. on the amount by which the net income exceeds $20,000 and does not exceed $40,000; 2 per cent., $40,000 to $60,000; 3 per cent., $60,000 to $80,000; 4 per cent., $80,000 to $100,000; 5 per cent., $100,000 to $150,000; 6 per cent., $150,000 to $200,000; 7 per cent., $200,000 to $250,000; 8 per cent., $250,000 to $300,000; 9 per cent., $300,000 to $500,000; 10 per cent., $500,000 to $1,000,000; 11 per cent., $1,000,000 to $1,500,000; 12 per cent., $1,500,000 to $2,000,000; and 13 per cent. on the amount by which the net income exceeds $2,000,000.

The corporation income tax is renewed, exempting labor, agricultural and horticultural organizations, mutual savings banks not having capital stock represented by shares, fraternal beneficiary societies, domestic building and loan associations, civic organizations, federal land bank and national farm loan associations.

Special Taxes Imposed—Special taxes are imposed as follows:

Inheritance Tax—A tax on transfer of the net estate of decedents dying after passage of the act, 1 per cent. of the amount of such net estates not in excess of $50,000; 2 per cent., $50,000 to $100,000; 3 per cent., $100,000 to $250,000; 4 per cent., $250,000 to $500,000; 5 per cent., $500,000 to $1,000,000; 6 per cent., $1,000,000 to $1,500,000; 7 per cent., $1,500,000 to $2,000,000; 8 per cent., $2,000,000 to $3,000,000; NO RETALIATION FOR INTERFERENCE

Phelan Amendment Dropped; Agree to Black List Revenge

Washington, D. C., Sept. 7.—Conferees on the emergency revenue bill to-day struck out the Phelan amendment that empowers the President to retaliate against citizens of belligerent nations which interfere with United States mails. The argument which prevailed in the conference was that it might work great hardships on Americans in foreign countries by counter retaliation.

The conference also abandoned the Chamberlain amendment which would admit of Pacific ocean salmon or halibut through a foreign country except in bond from an American port. This it was decided might develop a commercial war with Canada and bring about retaliation against American Atlantic coast fisheries.

Of senate amendments clothing the President with retaliatory power against interferences with American commerce and embargoes on American goods to foreign nations was agreed to. They have the sanction of the State Department, while the Phelan amendment did not.

The conference then approached the wine taxes and dyestuffs, which became the principal stumbling block. Majority Leader Kitchin moved to strike out the Senate amendments increasing the duties on coal tar, medicinal derivatives and flavors. There was no fight, however, on the increases in the rates on intermediate and finished dyestuffs.

The conference eliminated the $300,000 continuing appropriation for the tariff commission. Three hundred thousand dollars was retained for 1917, but as the expenditure was $104,793 as compared to $63,873 expended in a similar time in 1915. Incidentally this breaks all previous records as the figure for other years follow: 1914, $66,884; 1913, $59,382; 1912, $26,499; 1911, $4,296; and 1910, $73,494.

COUNSEL RETAINED TO TEST OIL BRIDGE CASE

Counsel has been retained by the committee of the Chamber of Commerce appointed to carry into the courts the question of the legality of the city's recent grant by ordinance of the privilege to Swift and Company to build an overhead bridge across the street between the packing firm's main and annex buildings.

By the provisions of the Clark act action on the measure cannot be taken until thirty days after it has been approved.
