

"We have not particularly advised retailers to stock up this summer but we believe there will be a scarcity of labor in the coal fields and a very decided shortage of railroad cars.

"With the number of men who have gone back to the war across the At-lantic and the large number being sent to the border, together with enormous business in general, we do not see that there can be anything else but a shortage decided in labor."

Augusta, Me., Sept. 7. — Republi-cans are making a whirlwind finish in their State campaign. The last word will be said by Charles E. Hughes in day night. The eve of their arrival finds the campaign at fever heat. Nothing like it has been seen in Maine, old-time politicians say, in twenty years. In many respects it recalls the Blaine-Cleveland campaign of 1884. Republican leaders, flushed with con-fidence, say nothing is in doubt ex-cept the size of the Republican plurality. From all accounts the coal situation next winter will be serious. It looks very much as if some orders may not be filled.

It is not advisable to wait too long to order your coal. If you want good quality and clean coal you should attend to this soon.
