WIND-UP TODAY ON FARRELL CIRCUIT

Harrisburg Players Leave For Home Tonight; Await Draft Season

The New York State League season in Harrisburg came to an end this afternoon with a double-header between the Islanders and Syracuse. The games were a big attraction because the Stars have won this season's honors. Owing to the lack of interest in minor league towns, post-season series will be cut out this year, and few teams on the Farrell circuit will be busy next week.

The local players will leave tonight for their homes. Some have arranged to play independent baseball for a few days. Manager George Cockill holds in reserve every player under contract and unless drafted they will all return to Harrisburg next season.

New Players Coming
In addition to the regulars there will be a bunch of promising youngsters on whom Manager Cockill holds an option.

No game will be played at Reading on Monday. Reading and Scranton players end their contracts today. The New York State League managers will now await the draft season results after which they will get busy in lining up teams for next season. It is believed that a meeting will be held here early in January for the purpose of reorganizing the New York State League circuit.

FRENCH AND BRITISH IN NIGHT DRIVE ON TEUTONS

Russians Are Fighting Bulgarians on Front From Danube to Black Sea

London, Sept. 9.—Russian troops massed in great force in the Dobruja region have engaged the Bulgarians on the whole front from the Danube to the Black Sea. They are fighting fiercely to wrest the offensive from the invaders.

The Bulgarians, defeated by Austrians and Turks, have advanced in two columns. One, under Von Mackensen, took the offensive along the Danube, striking along the Black Sea coast, has captured Dobrich, ten miles from the coast, and is now at Kabanova and Kah Akria, in southernmost Dobruja.

Each of the enemy's advance the Rumanians fell back, waiting for the Russians to battle in this territory and concentrating their efforts in Transylvania. The Czar's troops have arrived in strength now and a furious struggle is being waged. If the Russians are victorious they will begin the invasion of Bulgaria from the north.

Success For Rumanians
Meanwhile the Rumanians are pushing vigorously the trust in Transylvania. Vienna admits a withdrawal from positions west of the Gyrova line in the northern part of the province, and the Rumanians are abandoning Orzova on the Danube near the iron gate.

King Ferdinand's forces are now more than thirty miles into Transylvania on the north. This stroke in conjunction with the pressure northward from the Hermann line has succeeded to force the Teuton out of Transylvania. It is progressing steadily.

The capture of Orzova gives the Rumanians a grip on the Austrian second line of defense, behind the mountains dividing the Danube from the Teutons. Its loss means the hampering of traffic along the Danube, which served as a supply line for Turkey.

The Rumanian commander evidently is not at all deterred by the invasion of the Dobruja shall not interfere with the operations on Transylvania. He is advising the Austrians on the Danube line give King Ferdinand the opportunity to press the Austrians back to the capital, by increasing activity on this front.

Operation from the Russians in the Dobruja is not expected.

While London is not expected to discount the importance of the fall of Orzova, it does not believe that Von Mackensen's can offer any real threat to Bucharest.

Russian General Escapes From Austrian Prison Camp

Petrograd, Sept. 9.—General Korniloff, formerly commander of the Forty-eighth Russian division, who was captured by the Austro-Germans in Galicia in May, 1915, escaped from the prison camp in which he was held in Austria and has arrived at Bucharest, it is announced by the semi-official news agency. The Russian general reached the capital of Rumania after a month of adventures in his trip across Hungary, walking by night and hiding by day. Frequently he had to go without food for days.

In one place he was halted by Hungarian gendarmes, who killed one of his companions, also an escaped prisoner. General Korniloff after hiding for a time continued his journey to the Rumanian frontier. At the time of his capture, he was reported to have been seriously wounded.

GIRL SAYS SHE WAS IN MACHINE

London, Sept. 9.—It is not likely that Great Britain will change her blacklist policy at the request of the United States, said Lord Robert Cecil, minister of war trade, in discussing yesterday the possible effect of recent American retaliatory legislation. Lord Robert stated that a reply to the blacklist protest made by the United States may be expected soon. He declined to enter into the details of the contents of the reply beyond the statement that the principle of forbidding trading with an enemy country is unlikely to be surrendered in any measure.

The minister of war trade professed himself puzzled by the provision in the Washington revenue bill dealing with the prohibition of imports, as such orders, he said, were adopted strictly in an effort to conserve tonnage and were applied accordingly.

British Minister of War Warns Against Retaliation

London, Sept. 9.—The Official Gazette to-day prints an amendment to the order in council governing the restrictions imposed upon aliens by which after October 1 the written sanction and approval of the Board of Trade must be obtained for the admission to the United Kingdom of aliens who work in any other capacity than munitions workers. A High application of this order, some officials say, apparently would exclude from the United Kingdom foreign actors, singers, musicians, and all others who do not come to work in munitions factories.

Where They Stand Today
In the American League Detroit gained half a game on the leading Red Sox by winning while rain ended the Boston-Washington game in a tie. The Tigers are now only one-and-one-half games behind the leaders. The White Sox maintained the pace and are now but two games behind Boston.

New York, Sept. 9.—Acting as if famished for base hits and runs, the New York Giants yesterday sailed into Grover Alexander and gave him the worst drubbing that he has received this season, the score being 9 to 0. Umpire Klem was forced to stop play with one man out in the Quakers' half of the ninth inning and Luderus on first base.

The score of 9 to 3 is official, and will go down on the books of the National League, according to the rule of Secretary John A. Heydler.

Dispute Over Home Run
There was a big dispute over whether Cravath's home run, which started the ninth inning score, was making claim that the score would have to revert to the last equal inning. Heydler, however, decided that Cravath's home run did count under rule 25 of the playing rules.

A little later it was announced that the second contest was also off and that the Phillies and the Giants would meet in a double-header to-day.

Beautiful Vista of Narrows Now Visible to Motorists

Preliminary to the construction of the new section of highway from Clark's Ferry bridge to Speecheville, along the narrow neck of the Pennsylvania Canal, the trees and underbrush that section have been cut down. This through the narrow, and while the appearance of the trees is regrettable, it is believed that they will be removed to permit of the new and better highway that will take the place of the narrow road along the Northern Central tracks between Speecheville and the Clark's Ferry bridge. It is the hope of the highway engineers that the new highway will be continued from Speecheville to the main highway immediately south of Dauphin, and will be carried across the railroad tracks.

WELLY'S CORNER
League baseball for this season will pass into history to-day. Harrisburg has again made good in a new league. No team on the Farrell circuit has shown the pace equal to the Islanders. As has been said there is a whole lot of credit due George Cockill who brought the team here and to Walter Blair for developing a fine piece of baseball machinery. If this city can start with the present aggregation next season things will be different. While Harrisburg has not been able to get out of the basement, the local club has been a big factor in making the race close. Every player deserves praise, and the best wishes of all fans go home with them with a hope that they will be back next April.

One thing must be assured for next season. No team can prosper under patronage accorded for only nine of the past two weeks. There may be a reason for the falling off in attendance but Manager Cockill has not been able to find out the real cause. He would like to have ardent baseball fans wear him as to the cause for poor crowds. He wants to make the same popular and is willing to consider any suggestions offered for the benefit of the game.

Elmira is anxious to hold seventh place. The Colonels trimmed Wilkes-Barre yesterday, score 7 to 2. Should Elmira lose to-day and to-morrow and Harrisburg win two from Syracuse the local nine will go to seventh place. Scranton had a close call with Binghamton, score 3 to 2.

No one believes the stories about Calhoun quitting. It is reported that Mike O'Neill will go back to Binghamton and that Calhoun will lead one of the Pennsylvania clubs. He sets a good opportunity in Reading. O'Neill is of the opinion that the changes this season will bring the best kind of results next season.

UNIVERSITY CLUB TO OPEN MONDAY
Reading Room Fitted Out and Comforts of Home Are Provided

GOVERNOR'S TOUR IS PLANNED OUT
Will Start on First Trip Through Farming Regions on Tuesday Morning

The University Club of Harrisburg will open its rooms at Front and Market streets to club members Monday evening, September 11. The furniture, which is fumed oak throughout, with the exception of the bedrooms will be moved in Monday and the finishing touches put on. A special committee is working out plans for the opening night, which will be for members only, and will be addressed by a prominent speaker. A housewarming for the friends of the members will be given sometime during the Fall.

Arrangements have been made by the board of directors to be installed. Pictures and various literature from colleges and universities have been received, and the latest magazines and periodicals, as well as the local and metropolitan dailies will be found in the reading room. Writing desks and other conveniences have been provided with a view to making the rooms as comfortable and inviting for the members as possible.

Members of the S. A. E. fraternity have engaged the club rooms for the evening of September 18, and other societies, alumni associations, and graduate organizations are expected to make use of the club as a gathering place. It is the purpose of the directors to give the club as nearly as possible a collegiate atmosphere and to that end the alumni of the various institutions will be requested to subscribe to the daily and monthly publications of their respective colleges or universities.

More than twenty applications for membership await the approval of the board at this time, making the total of members and prospective members over 170. The new club will launch out on the initial year of its existence with the best wishes of its sister clubs in the city.
