STATE EXPANDS ITS INSURANCE

All Public and Private Liability Will Be Insured Under Board's New Plans

The State Workmen's Insurance Fund Board has completed steps to make the State fund a medium through which Pennsylvania employers may obtain protection from every contingency that may arise to compel them to pay compensation or damage claims.

Commissioner John Price Jackson, of the Department of Labor and Industry, has authorized Assistant Manager Albert L. Allen, of the fund to obtain reinsurance facilities by which the State fund may provide protection to employers in Pennsylvania whose employees may be injured even when working in other States. Arrangements have been perfected whereby an employer whose compensation risk is insured in the State fund may have his public liability insurance placed through the office of the fund. The fund is also empowered to arrange reinsurance protection to State fund policyholders who may have one or more employees who have rejected the act. Although this last named condition has not arisen the action is taken to make the fund an insurance medium that will meet every contingency.

Under the Pennsylvania workmen's compensation act, the benefits stipulated apply only to workers injured in Pennsylvania. Heretofore the State fund furnished protection only within the State. Under this power for reinsurance conferred on the fund, is established complete protection for Pennsylvania employers insured in the fund and whose traveling salesmen, machinery erectors, motor truck chauffeurs or delivery wagon teamsters may be injured in adjoining States, such employees will receive the insurance benefits granted them under the compensation laws of the State in which they may be injured, or will get damages in the event that the injury occurred in one of the few States in which there are no compensation laws. "Employers in Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, as well as in other cities and towns, near the State line where the employees are frequently engaged in the business of their employer in the adjoining State, will be greatly benefited by this provision. "The public liability reinsurance feature has been arranged because of complaints from several State fund policyholders that they found difficulty in obtaining the public liability coverage and that in some instances that it had even been refused by some companies writing both compensation and public coverage. "State fund policyholders, in all sections of the Commonwealth, will now have the advantage of being able to place all their compensation and public liability through the State fund."

Bare Bodies, Dubious Garb Condemned by Clergyman

Pittsburgh, Pa., Sept. 20. — Condemning the pageant to depict the history of the church, scheduled for the Protestant Episcopal general convention at St. Louis next month, the Rev. John R. Wightman, rector of All Saints Church, addressing the clergy to-day, said that half nude children and girls are scheduled to take part and denounced what he termed "the exploitation of little girls and young women in the bareness of body and doubtful garbing," on an occasion which he said was an "endeavor to exalt the grace and dignity of true modesty." "As an antithesis and as a criticism in this teaching," Dr. Wightman said, "there comes along this exhibition, thrusting little children of the church into undue publicity, less than half dressed."

OLD-TIME PAISLEY SHAWL COMING BACK INTO ITS OWN

Chicago, Sept. 20.—The old Paisley shawl of grandmother's day is coming back into its own, along with a lot of Spanish frills and furbelows. Spanish hats, with small balls falling off the edge of the brim in typical Spanish fashion, will have the approval of the fashion creators.
