BASKETBALL MEN FIX PEACE PACT

Will Not Interfere With Players This Season; Re-elect President

Philadelphia, Sept. 20 .- Officials of the Pennsylvania Basketball League at a meeting last night went on record as in favor of peace. Last year the three leagues were at loggerheads over players, but when the Pennsylvania State made overtures to President William made overtures to President William J. Scheffer this Fall toward a peace agreement the Eastern magnates went on record at the meeting as in favor of such a pact and to also sign one with the Interstate, the other professional rival in the field.

This means that the players of each league must strictly be accounted for and that no tampering with each other leagues' reserve list will be tolerated. Each league will be required to sign a bond and deposit same with a reliable party to keep the agreement.

Re-elect President

Re-elect President

In re-electing William J. Scheffer president, secretary and treasurer for his eighth consecutive year the magnates showed implicit faith in his ability as an executive. It had been rumored before the league that Scheffer was to have opposition, but his failed to materialize. Joseph L. Balley, of the Greystock team, was elected vice-president, and the board of directors, newly chosen, will consist of William Kennedy, Jasper: Bert Bubp, Reading; Joseph L. Bailey, Greystock; Dr. Charles D. Empey, Camden; B. C. Kuser, Trenton, and Stephen O. Grauley, De Neri.

Will McLoughlin Come Back? Ex-Champion Insists He Will

Maurice McLoughlin, ex-national ten-nis champion of America and famous internationalist, who was beaten in the fourth round for the national cham-pionship recently held at Forest Hills, denies that he is out of the game for good.

Rumor has it that McLoughlin's last words as he left the court to his vanquisher, George M Church, of Princeton, were "Never again!"
The popular Californian has contradicted this in a later interview.
"I shall always enjoy playing," said McLoughlin, "and shall plan to come East to play again for the mere sport of it even though I have no possible chance of winning."

FINALS IN GOLF MATCHES

FINALS IN GOLF MATCHES

Pittsburgh, Sept. 20.—D. C. Corkran, of Princeton, and J. W. Hubbell, of Harvard, will to-day play on the links of the Oakmont Country Club to determine the individual intercollegiate golf championship of the United States. Corkran won his way into the final round by defeating J. N. McDonald, Illinois, in the semifinal round, 4 and 2, yesterday afternoon, while the Crimson player was winning from C. L. Weems, Illinois, 2 up. The final match will be for 36 holes.

Harry Rote the local football star who for several seasons was a big factor in Central High victories; also absketball champion, has joined the Gettysburg squad. He was out yesterday afternoon, while the Crimson player was winning from C. L. Weems, Illinois, 2 up. The final match will be for 36 holes.

property of the American Amateur Trapshooters' Association. The best average—amateur—for one season is the 95.50 by Woolfolk Henderson, of Lexington, Ky. He broke 2,731 of 2,800 targets. The best professional record is held by C. G. Spencer—97.50 at 5,620. The longest run ever made by a trapshooter was compiled by Charley Spencer at the Viola (Ill.) shoot in June, 1912, when he broke 528. Ray Kingsley, of Omaha, has a run of 518 to his credit, and Jay Graham once hit 477 before missing. A record for shooting at 1,000 targets was made when Alex Mermod, of St. Louis, and Fred Stone, the comedian, met in St. Louis on a cold day in April, 1908. Mermod broke 929 and Stone 901 targets, and the time consumed was 1 hour 30 minutes and 23 seconds. Newspapers are giving more attention to trapshooting now and the sport only needs publicity to make it the greatest of American pastimes.

Giants Coming Strong; Americans Still Close

New York's double victory yes-terday over Pittsburgh gave it a winning streak of fourteen straight games and it has a chance of tying or beating its wonderful record earlier in the season of seventeen Metropolitan critics insist that the Giants still have a chance for the championship. This morning they are eight and one-half games behind Brooklyn and six and one-half games below the Phillies.

The Phils have no more games to play with New York this season, but the Braves must meet the Giants five times in three days, while Brooklyn has four contests to settle with McGraw's fast-going men.

Brooklyn and Boston profited by the Phils' defeat yesterday. The Robins now lead by two games, while the Braves are only two points behind Moran's men. The standing:

CORR GIVES IN SCRIMMAGE
State College, Pa., Sept. 20. — The Pennsylvania State 'Varsity was given its first scrimmage of the season yesterday when Coach Harlow lined the 'Varsity against the Freshmen in a day on much for the Freshmen team and scored three touchdowns on line plunges. The 'Varsity was made up of a great many different combinations in every position, and when the scrimmage was closed Coach Harlow was as far away from being decided on the team he will use Saturday as he was before the afternoon work started. Ewing, Clarke and Beck will be the men used in the backfield. Higgins is the only other man sure of his position.

COBB GIVES UP HONOR COBB GIVES UP HONOR

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 20. — Tyrus Cobb, for nine years the leading batsman of the American League, yesterday conceded that Tris Speaker, of the Cleveland club, would be the 1916 champion. Speaker now has a margin of nearly thirty points over Cobb, according to unofficial averages. Cobb said it is a human impossibility for him to try to cut down this lead and at the same time to co-operate in team play to the fullest extent of his ability. Cobb's individual efforts won two of Detroit's recent victories.

Mabel Trask's Fast Time Brings Richest Stake

Columbus, Ohio. Sept. 20. — Mabel Trask, second to Peter Scott last year in the Hoster-Columbus stake for trotters, this afternoon won the $10,000 event, the richest feature of the Columbus grand circuit meeting, and did so without effort, though each of the last two heats were stepped in 2.05 ½. The Cox mare was a 10-to-4 choice over the field, Donna Clay being the hope of those who wagered against Mabel Trask.

To favored Volga went the Horse Review's futurity for 3-year-old trotters. The Cleveland filly raced impressively, taking a new record of 2.07 ¼, in keeping clear of Harrod's Creek in the second heat. The Louis ville colt carried Volga to the half in 1.02 ¼ and stood a whipping through the stretch, when Bingen Silk challenged him for the place.

TED MEREDITH TO LIVE ABROAD TED MEREDITH TO LIVE ABROAD Philadelphia, Sept. 20.—Ted Meredith, former Penn track captain and world's record breaker, who leaves with four other star American athletes for Sweden on Monday to represent the United States in an international meet, announced yesterday that he will not return to this country after the finish of the meet, but will remain in Great Britain for about a year. Meredith, who was working out on Frank-in Field yesterday tuning up for his races abroad, stated that he would stay in England representing an American dye firm, but will return to this country after the expiration of a year.

VETERAN GOLFERS PLAY

Rye, N. Y., Sept. 20. — Without giving Father Time so much as a passing thought, upward of 375 veteran golfers gathered at the links of the Apawamis Club yesterday for the twelfth annual seniors' tournament. To play here one must be at least 55 years old. Many men of affairs were on hand, and among the early finishers in yesterday's eighteen-hole round was Judge Henry Stoddard, of New Haven, who notwithstanding his 70 years went around in 89. He had a seventeen-stroke handicap, so that his 72 net made him look like a prizewinner.

WHEELOCK IN LINE-UP

Annville, Pa., Sept. 20.—Wheelock arrived last night in the Lebanon Valley training camp to assist Coach Guyer with this year's football squad. He was formerly at the Carlisle Indian School and also played a few seasons ago with Lebanon Valley. He was taught the game by Glen Warner, so that his knowledge of the game should help materially in developing a strong team here this year.

Chic Hartman For Bingoes; Ira Thomas Deal Is Off

Binghamton, N. Y., Sept. 20.—According to a report from the offices of George F. Johnson, owner of the local New York State League team, he has given up the idea of naming Ira Thomas, of the Athletics, as manager of the Bingoes for next season and has virtually decided upon Chic Hartman, shortstop of the 1916 team, as the new leader to succeed John Calhoun. Hartman and Johnson had a conference to-night and the owner of the Bingoes told Hartman that he had decided to give one of the team members a chance to lead the club next season, and the choice had narrowed to Sam Frock and Hartman. The elimination of Ira Thomas was due, it is said, to the fact that he had signed up to coach the Williams College team and would not be able to give the attention to the Bingoes' affairs that Johnson desired.
