SCHOOLS WILL BE PAID IN AUTUMN

Heavy Demands on the State Treasury Will Prevent Earlier Payments Say Officials

It will probably be November before the State will be in shape to begin payment of the State school appropriations for this year on anything like a substantial basis. Although money is coming into the State Treasury from corporation taxes, the bulk of the big payments will not start for a month or so and it will be November before the Treasury will bulge with money.

Approximately $5,000,000 has to be paid to the school districts of the State and as this is intended as part reimbursement for the outlay last season there are numerous inquiries being made as to when the money will be looked for. The State school officials have taken up the question but no relief is in sight owing to the large number of unpaid requisitions now on hand.

As a rule, from $750,000 to $1,000,000 of the school appropriation has generally been paid to October 1. The money is due and payable in July.

Violating Game Laws.—State Game Commission wardens, who have been kept busy rounding up foreigners and others who have been hunting for robins and other birds of the insect-destroying variety which are protected by State laws, are now having their own troubles with men and boys who are hunting squirrels. The squirrels are unusually abundant in some sections of the State, according to reports which are coming here and the season does not start until October 15. Stiff penalties imposed wherever the State wardens can catch the illegal hunters.

Big Argument List.—The Public Service Commission yesterday disposed of the biggest list of arguments it has had for a long time and next week a number of decisions will be handed down. The cases argued will cover a number in which precedents will be established.

Meeting in Pittsburgh.—The Compensation Board to-day began its sitting in Pittsburgh to hear appeals from the referees.

To Sit at Coaldale.—Arrangements are being made for a sitting of Public Service Commission representatives at Coaldale next week in a complaint against the Panther Valley Water Company.

To Push Case.—The attorney general's department will push the case brought at Gettysburg against Fulton county for failing to establish the office of scaler of weights and measures. The county objects to the expense.

Returned From Tour.—Insurance Commissioner O'Neil returned last night from the Governor's tour of the northeast. Mrs. O'Neil accompanied him.

Coatesville Can Build.—The State Water Supply Commissioners have approved plans for a bridge to be built by Coatesville across Rock Run. In addition plans have been approved for a bridge in Chester and for a bridge in Ralpho township, Lancaster county.

Commission to Meet Next Month.—The State Commission of Agriculture will meet next month to go over some plans for various reorganizations and new work to be undertaken.

Dr. Marshall Home.—State Veterinarian C. J. Marshall is home from the quarantine tier where he looked into some matters relating to the quarantine regulations, which the State is enforcing very strictly. Dr. Marshall was forced to bring some news to get results.

Argument Postponed.—The Public Service Commission has postponed the argument to have been held to-day in the Mt. Union Water Company case in favor of the borough objects to the charges and service of the water company.

More Held For Court.—The recent arrests of merchants in Philadelphia on charges of selling impure food and rotten eggs have resulted in eight or nine men being held for trial at the coming term of court. The investigations are said to have disclosed some flagrant violations.

Mr. Buller in Bed.—Commissioner of Fisheries Buller, who has been ill, is confined to bed at his home. His cabinet refused to allow him to undertake any work.

Bulletin on Flavors.—The Department of Agriculture has issued, through its division of dairy and food, a bulletin on flavoring extracts. The bulletin also summarizes the work of the division the last few months.

Cases Decrease.—The reports to the State Department of Health show that 1,375 cases of infantile paralysis have been reported since July 1. The reports yesterday showed fewer cases from Philadelphia than at any time in the last six weeks.

Inspected Leper.—Commissioner Dixon and Chief Medical Inspector Reyer yesterday inspected the leper case at Wilkes-Barre with a view to raising a quarantine if a cure is found to have been made.

News Items of Interest in Central Pennsylvania

Carlisle.—Donald Steck, 10-year-old son of Dr. A. R. Steck, died at his home as the result of sustaining three fractures in his arm while playing leapfrog with several companions.

Mount Carmel.—Owen Noon was probably fatally injured, and Samuel Whitmer was seriously hurt at the Locust Spring colliery yesterday when they were crushed between loaded mine cars. Both live at Locust Gap.

Pottsville.—Half of a Pennsylvania railroad train of twenty-five coal cars was precipitated into the Schuylkill river at Landingville yesterday afternoon, when the wheels of one of the cars broke. The crew escaped injury.

Maricopa.—Fire totally destroyed the large barn on the farm of Martin Stuebe, together with this year's crops. The loss is $3,800.

Shamokin.—While Joseph Yairy was at work in the Luke Fuller Colliery to-day, a huge piece of coal fell from the roof, fatally injuring him.

Pottsville.—Edgar Wilson Bechtel, 50 years old, died at his home at Mechanicsville, a suburb of this city, to-day. He served as district attorney in 1896-99.

East Mauch Chunk.—There are eight cases of diphtheria here and the board of health has established strict quarantine.

WANT SITE FOR INDUSTRY.
Elizabethville, Sept. 22. — A firm manufacturing playing pianos has applied to the local businessmen for a location at this place. They are desirous of adding capital to their well-established business, and on account of cheaper rents and taxes, as well as the securing of workmen, desire to locate here. It is understood that a large building has been promised, and if the extra capital can be procured work will begin at once. Two representatives of the firm were here on Monday and their report is favorable for the project here.

POLLUTION PLAN IS NOW ADOPTED

Big Companies Agree to Stop the Drainage of Wastes Into Up-State Streams

M. J. Beach, president of the Elk Tanning Company, and ex-Judge William E. Rice, counsel for the company, at a conference with officials of the Department of Fisheries to-day agreed to take care of the pollution at their various tanneries. Mr. Beach has agreed to install the Albert & Buller filter at the Galton and Falls tanneries at once and to equip the other tanneries under his jurisdiction at the earliest possible date. The Elk Tanning Company is the largest company of its kind in the state and the result of the conference means much toward the purification of the streams of this Commonwealth.

G. W. Olmstead, secretary of the J. G. Curtis Leather Company, located at Ludlow, McKean county, was at the office of the department with reference to the pollution of Two Mile creek by refuse coming from his plant. This is the largest tanning company in the northwestern part of the state and the officials of the Curtis Leather Company have agreed to install and have plans already drawn for the installation of the Albert & Buller filter at their tannery at Ludlow.

The agreement with this company is a distinct victory for the Department of Fisheries, as when the matter was first taken up it was impossible to get anything done at this plant, but with perseverance on the part of the department and after having many conferences with the officials of the company they adopted the plans as submitted to them by Commissioner Buller. This company had an engineer from Massachusetts working on plans for the purification of wastes at their Ludlow plant for three weeks or more. These plans were submitted to the department, but were rejected owing to the fact that they were not practical. After having a three hours conference on Wednesday morning Mr. Olmstead readily agreed to install the filter at once and has already drawn the plans for the installation of this filter.

Selecting Site For New Post Office at Lewistown

Lewistown, Pa., Sept. 22. — Agent N. A. Melick, of the United States Treasury department, has been here for several days looking over the sites offered for the location of a new post office building.

DEGREES CONFERRED

Blain, Pa., Sept. 22. — Members of Blain Lodge, No. 705, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, attended a special meeting of Mackinaw Lodge, at New Bloomfield, to witness the conferring of degrees on Kirby Moose, of Andersonburg, one of the Blain members. County Superintendent D. A. Kline served as toastmaster.

MAIL MATTER IS NOT DISINFECTED

Commissioner Dixon Calls Attention to Some Dangers Which Lurk in Letters

State Commissioner of Health Dixon has issued a warning against handling mail matter at the table. Dr. Dixon says that mail matter comes from all sorts of places and that as mail sacks are not disinfected there is always danger of infection or contagion present.

Dr. Dixon says: "Do you read your morning mail at the breakfast table? Have you ever used a knife or fork to open your letters? It is not an uncommon practice and yet an uncleanly and dangerous one."

"The post office is essentially a public utility and it is universally used by all classes of people. A common point of destination may put my lady's dainty note beside a dirty scrawl from the vilest of slums."

"Millions of pieces of mail matter are handled. A certain number of these come from people who are suffering from all kinds of diseases, some of them loathsome and infectious."

"Stamps and envelopes, contrary to hygienic rules are for convenience sake frequently licked. Despite quarantine precautions mail sometimes comes from houses where cases of communicable disease exists which have not been reported.

"Mail bags are not subjected to regular disinfection, and are not so cleaned as to make them safe from the danger of becoming a factor in the transmission of disease."

"During the recent epidemic of infantile paralysis many of those working on the disease formed the opinion that it may be carried by a third person. Is it unreasonable to presume that the disease may be carried through the mail?"

BERLIN TROLLEY RATES

Berlin, Sept. 22.—Street car lines in many parts of Germany hope in the near future to be able to increase their tariffs by about 50 per cent. in order to meet increased costs. At a congress of street car men held recently in Berlin resolutions were unanimously adopted in which it is pointed out that the present universal tariff of 10 pfennings (2½ cents) was adopted in the nineties, whereas even before the war the expenses of most companies had risen by 50 per cent, and probably will rise even more after the war. A decided deterioration of all lines is to be expected, the resolutions point out, unless they are allowed to raise prices to 15 pfennings (3½ cents).

CHEMISTRY VERY IMPORTANT

London, Sept. 22.—Chemistry's importance in the future prosperity of the nation has been recognized by University college, London, which has just completed the construction of a new chemical laboratory, with an installation and reference library which it is intended shall become one of the most complete and comprehensive of its kind in the world. The faculty of the college in carrying out its plans in Britain sought for ideas in the principal modern laboratories both in this country and abroad. The basic idea was to provide for the needs of independent research and the experimental department has been designed for the carrying out of tests on a large scale with the view of utilization of new discoveries in connection with the industries of the country. The movement has during the war taken advantage of the facilities offered, and much valuable work has been achieved.

Cow Golf Hazard Is New; Scorer Was a Solomon

St. Louis, Sept. 22. — Fred Behring and E. W. Snowden were playing for the Class D championship recently, when a cow strolled across the green. Just then Behring swung, and his ball went into the cow's mouth. He chased the animal, beating it with his club. The cow ran to a point near the next hole before it dropped the ball.

Behring putted the ball in and claimed he made the hole in 2. The official scorer was appealed to. "You made it in 31," he told Behring. "You struck that cow with that club twenty-nine times before she dropped the ball on the green."

SLEEPING CARS FOR DORMITORIES

The students of Dormitory College, Carlinville, Ill., are using discarded sleeping cars for dormitories during the spring and winter months. Each coach has forty upper and lower berths, two-drawing rooms and two washrooms. The girl students are their own porters and make their own beds. — Popular Science Monthly for October.
