

NEWS OF HARRISBURG CHURCHES

REV. BASSLER, CHAPLAIN OF EIGHT, ON THE BORDER

If you can't imagine how the Rev. Harry Nelson Bassler, chaplain of the Eighth Pennsylvania regiment of the United States National Guard looks as he conducts Church services on the border, perhaps this will help. In the accompanying etching you can see the pastor of the Second Reformed Church with Henry McCormick Gross, a son of Park Commissioner E. Z. Gross, and the Eighth's regimental supply sergeant.

U. B. WILL MEET IN PHILADELPHIA

Annual Conference of Churches East of Susquehanna Opens Next Wednesday

The one hundred and seventeenth annual session of the East Pennsylvania Conference of the United Brethren in Christ will convene in the Second United Brethren Church, Philadelphia, next Wednesday morning. Bishop William M. Weekley, of Parkersburg, W. Va., will preside over the sessions.

Important committees of the denomination will meet Tuesday afternoon to formulate a program for the sessions and arrange for the coming of the ministers on the following day.

The territory embraced by the East Pennsylvania Conference extends from the Susquehanna to the Delaware rivers and covers more than 25,000 members, 151 churches and 123 ministers. There are 40,000 children in the Sunday schools.

Many important questions relative to the conduct of the church will come up for discussion at the coming conference. Home mission methods will come in for special consideration.

Addresses will be made during the sessions by the Rev. Elias D. Dougherty, superintendent of missions of the Lutheran Church in Philadelphia; the Rev. C. W. Erewaker, general secretary of the Sunday schools of the United Brethren Church, of Dayton, Ohio; the Rev. S. S. Hough, general secretary of the foreign missionary board, of Dayton, and many other men prominent in the religious life of the city and state.

Bishop Weekley will deliver the address of welcome to the ministers when they assemble for their first session. The first day will be devoted to appointing of committees, of which about a dozen are to be named.

Thomas Garland, of Allentown, will lead the daily devotional services.

The feature of the sessions will be the consecration of the Rev. and Mrs. C. A. Funk, of Philadelphia, who will soon leave for China to engage in missionary work. On Saturday, the closing day of the sessions, memorial services will be conducted in honor of members who have died during the last year. This service will be in charge of Dr. E. O. Burnett, of Palmyra.

HARRISBURG MINISTER CONDUCTS SERVICES ALONG RIOGRANDE

Church Time on the Border Brings Boys of Eighth Together For Worship Led by Second Reformed Pastor

When you follow the usher up the aisle to your favorite pew Sunday, perhaps, if you let your thoughts travel some thousands of miles, you can picture in your mind's eye, this other service:

Out from a nearby group of officers steps an olive drab clad man. Aside from the fact that he wears a tiny cross on his shirt collar, he looks like any other of the thousands of Uncle Sam's servants, he's just as thoroughly bronzed, not quite as much in need of a beard trimming, perhaps, as some of the others.

JEWISH FEAST IS NEAR AT HAND

Yom Kippur Will Be Observed October 6-7 in Local Synagogue

Jewish congregations of this city are preparing for the Day of Atonement, or Yom Kippur, the tenth day of the month of Aishri, which begins at sunset Friday, October 6, and ends at sunset Saturday, October 7, the thought underlying the day is expressed in the scriptural words "On this day He will atone for you, to purify you from all your sins."

The day is the most solemn of all days in the Jewish calendar. It is passed in fasting and prayer. The whole day is spent in the synagogue. In the evening there is the service which commences with the chanting of the well-known Kod Nidre prayer.

The day proper has four services. Of these the Mussaf, or additional service, contains a description of the atonement rites as practiced in the temple in the Temple at Jerusalem; and the Neilah service is understood to be held when the temple decision is finally made as to man's fate, and thus the Neilah prayers, instead of having the usual phrase, "Inscribe us in the book of life," uses the expression "Seal us in the book of life."

According to Jewish tradition expressed in an ancient law book, the Day of Atonement, when spent in praying and repenting, will bring pardon for sins between man and God; but as for the sins committed by man against his fellow-man, the day cannot bring pardon until he has appeased his fellow-man. This idea is the basis of the effort always made before the Day of Atonement to bring peace between such friends who have become estranged and are on unfriendly terms with one another; and in this way the day will put the worshiper at peace not only with his Maker, but also with his fellow-man.

Reformed Church to Swell Sunday School Number

Determined to make the year 1917, which marks the four hundredth anniversary of the Protestant Reformation, the most notable in its history, the Reformed Church in the United States is entering upon a Sunday school increase campaign which, it is confidently expected, will increase the present membership of 350,000 to 400,000 by April 1. Beginning with rally day, every Sunday school will enter upon a campaign to increase its membership 20 per cent in addition to which a "big push" will be inaugurated to have at least 70 per cent of the enrolled members attend every session.

This handsome building will be a memorial to Philip Schaff, for twenty years a leader in the Reformed Church and for fifty years a pioneer in this country in the great movement for church unity. The Sunday school will raise the $100,000 endowment fund by subscribing to 20,000 participating shares of $5 each, for which cumulative certificates will be issued. The names of the subscribers will be enrolled in the archives of the church.
