NEW BUILDING AT MOYER KNITTING MILL COMPLETED

Machinery Transferred From Old Plant This Week; Annex Will Greatly Increase Capacity of Ephrata's Important Industry

Ephrata, Pa., Sept. 23. — During the past week the machinery, and other equipment of the old building of the W. W. Moyer Underwear Knitting Mill, has been moved into the new building receted during the summer and which is now completed. On May 15, ground was broken for the erection of a large three-story brick addition to the mill property. The new building is connected with the old mill by a corrugated iron covered bridge at the third floor. The dimensions of the new building are 35 by 140 feet and it is fireproof throughout, the Rockwood sprinkler system having been installed. The building is well lighted throughout and the sanitation devices are of the best. By the removal of the knitting machines from the old mill, the folders and packers will utilize that space. The house adjoining the new mill furnishes ample space for storage purposes.—On Sunday last Mr. and Mrs. Edward Orth and Mrs. Archive parents, of Harrisburg; Mr.

MOTHER'S STORY OF BABY'S HEALMENT WITH CUTICURA

'When my baby was four months old, a rash appeared on her arms, shoulder, back, chest, and limbs, and also her face. It was pronounced eczema, and she was treated, but it seemed worse. The flesh became as red as flannel, and burned, and at times opened and ran together, making scales, and she was very cross and fretful. She would toss around and someone was compelled to hold her all the time during the day, and I had to get up three or four times during one night with her. "Then I sent for a cake of Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment. They almost instantly stopped the itching, and the eczema disappeared, and in less than a month's time she was healed. (Signed) Mrs. Lewis Seaks, R. F. D. 3, Stewartstown, Pa., Mar. 10, 1916.
Can you read this story without being moved? The suffering of the child, the self-sacrifice of the mother in care of it and the wonderful healment of Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Truly peace falls on many distracted households when Cuticura enters. Too often it is cause for regret that neglect of first symptoms, use of strongly medicated soaps and coarse ointments have done much to taggravate. Mothers should think to this. Buy Cuticura and feel safe. Samples by mail for the asking. Address post-card: "Cuticura Dept. H, Boston." Sold throughout the world.

FIGHT OVER WILL BROUGHT TO END

Mrs. Helena Ertter, of Gettysburg, Becomes Sole Beneficiary of Mrs. Annie Runkle

ADDITION TO FACTORY

Big Gettysburg Furniture Plant Will Employ Many Additional Hands

Gettysburg, Pa., Sept. 23. — After being fought over at various times for a period of two years the caveat filed by Col. William Runkle, of New Jersey, against the probate of the will of Annie M. Runkle, of Gettysburg, was withdrawn from the office of Register and Recorder Charles W. Gardner, leaving Mrs. Helena Etter of Gettysburg, the sole beneficiary of the will. — The new addition to the Gettysburg Furniture Company's plant is ready for use and about one hundred additional hands will be needed. — The engagement of Miss Gertrude Slonaker of this place, and Phares Hershey, of York, has been announced. Mr. Hershey graduated from Gettysburg College, in June and has accepted the position of teacher of Spanish and German in the high school of Lafayette, Indiana. — Bigler, the fast third baseman of the Gettysburg baseball team in the Blue Ridge League, has been drafted by the St. Louis Americans, it is said the recommendation being made by Eddie Plank after seeing Bigler play at different times while Plank was visiting at his home here. This is the second player of the local team to go higher up this year, Artie Koehler, the catcher, having been sold to Detroit some time ago. — The curb market conducted here is in an especially flourishing condition and produce of the choicest kind is to be had from the farmers and marketmen three times a week. — The question of the hotel license at York Springs will figure in the Adams county courts again, an application for a transfer of the license of Irvin Weaver, who was refused a license for the rival house in the office of Clerk of the Courts Shely by C. A. Hamilton who was refused a license for the old estabilished house at York Springs in January.

90 per cent. of all so-called "back-ward" children are not backward at all, but are handicapped by defective eyesight. Eyestrain is the most common eye disorder among school children. Don't let this handicap hold YOUR child back in class; chances are, rest-glasses worn for a short time will correct the fault. If the child doesn't need glasses, we'll tell you so.
