Murder Is Said to Have Followed Lawyer's Quarrel

St. Joseph, Mo., Sept. 26.—A special grand jury investigation of the case of Oscar D. McDaniel, prosecuting attorney of Buchanan county, arrested last night on a warrant charging him with the murder of his wife, was ordered to-day.

Mrs. McDaniel who came from a prominent family, was shot to death

Mrs. McDaniel who came from a prominent family, was shot to death at her home on the night of July 15 last. Bart M. Lockwood, special prosecutor, declared to-day that the defendant had told his wife he was going to a lodge meeting on the night of July 14. He was not there, however, and upon returning home about 10 o'clock was reproached by his wife. She threatened proceedings, and a quarrel followee, Lockwood charges.

At the Coroner's inquest McDaniel, who made the discovery, told a story of an attack on his own life made the same night and charged that law violators, against whom he had been active, were responsible.

tive, were responsible.

Several anonymous letters were received purporting to acknowledge the crime and giving as a motive a desire for revenge against the prosecutor. The authorship of these letters is to be investigated.

WATER ADDED TO OATS Watter Added To OATS

Washington, Sept. 26. — Reports that water is being added to shipments of oats to increase their weight have caused the Department of Agriculture to instruct inspectors to watch Interstate shipments closely. Department officials said to-day proceedings under the food and drugs act will be instituted in all cases where evidence of watering is obtained.
