WOULD HAVE RAILROADERS PLEDGE SELVES NOT TO LEAVE AS STRIKE PREVENTIVE

Baltimore, Md., Sept. 26.—What he held to be a feasible and equitable method of preventing strikes on railroads or other public service corporations was recommended by Judge C. C. Clements, of the Interstate Commerce Commission, in an address before the annual meeting of the Grain Dealers' National Association here to-day.

JUDGE CLEMENTS, WHO SAID HE WAS EXPRESSING HIS PERSONAL VIEWS AND NOT SPEAKING OFFICIALLY, SUGGESTED WRITING INTO THE LAW A "LEGALLY ESTABLISHED OBLIGATION AND DUTY UPON EVERY EMPLOYEE WHO SEeks AND ACCEPTS EMPLOYMENT WITH THE TRANSPORTATION COMPANIES NOT TO LEAVE THE SERVICE OR COMBINE WITH OTHERS TO DO SO ON ACCOUNT OF ANY CONTROVERSY THEREAFTER ARISING CONCERNING ANY CHANGE IN THE CONDITIONS OF SERVICE OR RATES OF COMPENSATION EXCEPT AFTER DUE AND REASONABLE NOTICE TO BE PRESCRIBED BY STATUTE, PERMITTING A SUFFICIENT LENGTH OF TIME FOR A FAIR AND IMPARTIAL INVESTIGATION AND DETERMINATION OF THE MATTER IN CONTROVERSY, EITHER BY ARBITRATION OR BY SOME DULY CONSTITUTED PUBLIC TRIBUNAL."

Gets Up More Steam Under Tanlac's Stoking

Steel Works Engineer Says Master Medicine Cleaned Out the Clinkers and Made the Fire of Life Burn Brighter

"Everybody's got to praise Tanlac when I'm around," says W. A. Shaffner, an engineer out at the Steelton Steel Works, "for it sure did clear the clinkers out of my system and make the fires of life burn brighter. "Like a lot of other people, I was a sufferer from chronic indigestion; it nagged me all day and all night and never gave me a minute's peace. I didn't have the heart to eat and I had to force myself to eat enough to keep me on the job. "Food didn't appeal to me, I dreaded the thought of eating because it gave me such great distress afterward. I would fill up with gas and there would come a sort of gnawing ache that made me feel as if I had swallowed a red-hot coal. "I was all run down, didn't have any energy or ambition, and I struggled through my work each day in a mechanical sort of a way, satisfied if I kept my fires bright and steam up to the mark. I was nervous and carried a groch most of the time. "I read and heard about Tanlac and when I was down town I stopped in and had a talk with the Tanlac man. He told me about Tanlac and the way it had benefited so many people, some that I knew of, too, and I bought a bottle. "Let me tell you that's the greatest stuff put in bottles; it chased my indigestion clear out of the county and I bet it's going yet. I don't believe it will ever find its way back, and if it does I'm ready to give it a battle. I have a great appetite, my nerves are in fine shape and I'm happy as a clam at high tide. I get up each morning ready for work and I can hustle through the day and enjoy every minute of it. That's what Tanlac has done for me and that's why I'm for it so strong." Tanlac, the famous master medicine, is now being specially introduced here at the Gorgas Drug Store, 16 North Third street, where the Tanlac man is always ready to explain the merits of this wonderful reconstructive tonic. Tanlac is sold also at the Gorgas Drug Store at the P. R. R. Station.

One loyal Harrisburger who is away from home for a short time writes the Chamber of Commerce as follows:
