Retained on the Stomach When Other Foods Are Not

DOVITAM is a delicate liquid food that not only nourishes when other foods fail to nourish, but is acceptable and retained on the stomach when other foods are not. The unusual value of DOVITAM is due to its prompt stimulation of digestive processes which have grown inactive.

Endorsed by Good Housekeeping Bureau of Food Sanitation and Health, Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, Director.

Arthur W. Thomas, M. A., Ph.D. (Columbia), says: "This food is ideal for those suffering from bodily injury, emaciation, wasting diseases and shock, on account of its tissue-developing qualities, its highly assimilable form and lack of injurious substances."

Remarkable results have followed its use in malnutrition, tuberculosis, convalescence from fevers, surgical operations and in the case of enfeebled persons and delicate children.

"Cyclone" Kelly Is Back; Popular Tech Trainer

Frank Kelly, the athletic trainer, better known as "Cyclone," is back in Harrisburg. He arrived to-day and will take up his duties at Tech at once. Kelly has been trainer with the Newark team of the International baseball team and also a scout for Brooklyn. Last season he was signed up by Tech and more than made good. He knows how to put an athlete in condition for hard bumps and has had much experience and is a valuable man. Throughout the state high schools are providing trainers for all athletes and there is a probability that Kelly may remain in Harrisburg for some time.

Play Record Golf Match on Reservoir Park Links

A record golf match was finished yesterday at Reservoir Park when George W. Vint and N. P. Greenawald, playing in the Fred B. Harry loving cup tournament, ended their match on the fifty-third green. On two different occasions Vint and Greenawald covered eighteen holes, but no decision was reached until yesterday, when Vint won on the eighth hole of the sixth round.

The Pavord loving cup tournament will be held at Reservoir next Saturday. It will be open to all members of the Harrisburg Park Golf Club. W. W. Smith is the present holder of the trophy.

YANKEES NEAR RECORD

New York, Sept. 27.—If the Yankees can get one home run during the series of four games which opens at Fenway Park to-day they will close the season with the record of having hit at least one circuit clout on every field in the American League. ## Dodgers Still Lead; Phillies Trail Along

The slender margin of one game still keeps Brooklyn in the van in the grueling chase of the National League pennant. The leaders had to win yesterday to retain their place in front, for a defeat in the face of the Phillies' victory, the champions, three with Philadelphia and four with New York; Boston has eleven left, five with New York and six with Pat Moran's men.

The situation is such that New York, in fourth place, still has a physical chance if it can keep up its great winning streak. McGraw's men are six and one-half games behind Brooklyn, with ten games to play. The standing of the three leaders:

DEXTER WINNER IN PACE EVENT

Opening Races at Lancaster Fair Bring Easy Money to Victors

Lancaster, Pa., Sept. 27.—The first day's races at the opening of the Lancaster County Fair attracted a big crowd of people. The 2.23 pace brought out a field of ten horses, but it was practically only a fight for place among Dexter, Prince Pointer and Helen Marsh. The 2.17 trot was an easy money proposition for Bertie Chimes and Abdell Penn, but in the first and second heats the New Jersey mare won out only by a nose from her only real competitor.

JAILED BY ILLEGAL METHOD IS CLAIMS

for his arrest were heard and the court fixed 2 o'clock this afternoon for the purpose.

The young brakeman, according to his petition, was arrested upon complaint of A. L. Hoffman for attempting to defraud his boardinghouse keeper of a board bill of between $40 and $50. He was held before Alburgh man Kramme and despite efforts of himself and his friends to persuade the alderman not to send him to jail, the young prisoner was sent to prison.

Says Warrant Was Illegal

In the request for the writ this morning, however, Penner declares that not only was the commitment made out incompletely but that there was no specific information made and that the warrant itself was not properly drawn.

The request for the writ of habeas corpus was the only high light in a rather routine session of September court this morning.

The No. 2 room Joseph Osborn, one of the Southern negroes who had been arrested in Steelton for carrying concealed deadly weapons got a $5 fine and four months in jail. And in imposing sentence Judge McCarroll again called attention to the determination of the Dauphin authorities to break up the practice of lawlessness near especially by law-breakers who come into the county from other places.

Just Time For One Thing

Osborn's story, briefly was that he only carried the gun because he feared that fellow-negroes were intent upon "shootin' him up." Upon the night of his arrest, he said that someone had been shooting at him and that he had to run.

"Didn't you look to see who was shooting?" demanded Assistant District Attorney Fox.

"Theah wasn't no time, suh, to do but one thing, suh," gravely observed the prisoner.

When the Goin' Was Good

"What was that?"

"Keep right on a-goin' while the goin' was so good, suh," replied Osborn.

Just before court adjourned for lunch Helman Banks and Harry Palmer were placed on trial in No. 1 room on a charge of robbing Paul Faraway. Other charges disposed of included:

Belton Bosser, carrying concealed deadly weapons, $10 fine and seven months; William Gallagher, indecent assault, $5 fine and three months; Paul Kerman, larceny of a Ford car from Hershey creamery on two occasions, Huntington reformatory; Martin G. Green, assault and battery, acquitted.

Stagers Screaming from Room

motored to this city yesterday from New York. They attended a theater last night and returned to their hotel half an hour after midnight. They were unaccompanied, according to hotel employees, and went immediately to their apartments. Shortly afterward guests on the same floor were startled by four shots, and rushing into the hallway they met the woman registered as Graver's name, who is 23 years old, staggering from her room with a bullet wound in her breast. She was screaming hysterically and it was impossible to secure a coherent story from her. Graver was found dead in one corner of his room and Mrs. Belzer, clutching the still smoking revolver in her hand, in another. All were fully dressed.

How Mrs. Belzer gained entrance to the apartments occupied by her victims is not known. Neither has it been established from whence she came. The police are of the opinion that she followed the Gravers to this city from New York. Mrs. Belzer was about 25 years old.

The other woman, who was removed to a hospital, was still alive at an early hour to-day, but physicians hold out little hope for her recovery. She was hysterical throughout the night and efforts of the authorities to obtain a statement from her proved futile. New York officials have been requested to help clear up the mystery.

Victim Widely Known

Prison Welfare Worker

New York, Sept. 27.—J. C. Graver was well known here in police and humanitarian circles. For ten years he has been probation officer of the court in special sessions. He was removed from that office in 1911. He originated the Tombs Prison school and gained a reputation among prison workers throughout the country. Through his connection with the Newsboys' Home he was a familiar figure to newsboys and bootblacks from the Battery to Harlem. His home address is an uptown family hotel.

ROTARIANS WILL BE STOCKHOLDERS

meeting of the general committee at my offices last night chairman of the twelve sub-committees reported. In nearly every case they met with surprising success. They found the sentiment generally favorable to the enterprise and most of the Rotarians want to have a hand in it. The club will have an excellent showing to make when it reports to the committee of the Chamber of Commerce on Saturday.

Another meeting of the Rotary committee will be held Friday evening at Mr. Musser's offices. By that time it is believed a complete round-up of the club will have been made and work on outside solicitation begun.

Names for the new hotel continue to be suggested. To-day brought one from a well-known Harrisburger as follows:

"Names galore have been suggested for the new hotel to be built in this city. Some are good and some are well that's up to the committee. Nevertheless it shows the natives are having the time of their life trying to name the hotel. I wish to add another excellent showing to make when it reports to the committee of the Chamber of Commerce on Saturday. The name 'The Blue Ridge' which would harmonize with its surrounding for the hotel, it being virtually located at the foot of the range of mountains of that name."

WELLY'S CORNER

The Rosewood A. C. hopes to have one of the strongest basketball teams in Dauphin county. The five last season won the Dauphin county championship and lost to the Toocora Club of Carlisle for the championship of the two counties. No first class team wanting a game will be barred.

The Big Five will again look after the important games at Middletown. This aggregation of tossers will include a number of former high school and college stars. The Harrisburg teams will not be overlooked in the arrangement of the schedule. Middletown is a basketball town and has been quite prominent in past seasons.

Local basketball patrons will not get a league game this year, but will see several of the crack league teams in the Eastern and Central and Pennsylvania Leagues and the best independent teams from all over Pennsylvania. The Harrisburg Independents will shortly take the field and Saturday night games will again be popular.

With favorable weather on days football games are scheduled, a record season is looked for by both Central and Tech High officials. This year both schools have taken on new schools. There is also unusual interest in the game before Alburgh, the regular contestants. Something like a championship form is expected by local coaches about October 15. The Thanksgiving Day battle between the local schools, which may be the last, promises a battle royal.

Three Harrisburg athletes are sure of places on the Gettysburg College eleven. Kote is looming up strong as a quarterback and Emanuel and Houtz have been showing remarkable form. The regular line-up will be announced within ten days.

Charley Keilner has placed his baseball score book on the shelf and is down to football work at Alburgh. He is going to have another crack eleven this year. He is being assisted by Paul Hertzler, the 1914 star half-back.

Arrangements have been made to play all games in the world's series, scheduled at Boston on the Braves' field. The seating capacity is larger and facilities a big improvement over those of the American team.

Members of the Keystone Motorcycle Club will run to Lebanon early Saturday morning, where they have arranged for a series of races on the Lebanon Fair track. The Keystone club has been a big factor in arousing interest in this sport in Central Pennsylvania and there is a hope that a track will soon be provided in the vicinity of Harrisburg where races of this kind may be held.

Harrisburg Case on Trial in Cumberland Co. Court

Carlisle, Pa., Sept. 27.—After being postponed for one week because of the Carlisle Fair, the Cumberland county court of common pleas for September opened here Monday. The majority of cases listed for trial were continued. A special session will be held next week with Judge Staples, of Stroudsburg, specially presiding.

Much interest has been taken in the hearing of a case which opened yesterday and continued to-day. Dr. W. W. Pease, of Harrisburg, brought suit against Robert A. Beattie, of Shippenburg, for damages resulting from an accident which occurred in October 1915, when Beattie's car ran into that of Pease while it was being driven by the physician's chauffeur on a trip. Mrs. Christiana Nease, of Steelton, and Mrs. Beattie were both injured in the crash and were attended at the Harrisburg Hospital.
