SHARP CRITICISM AT U. B. MEETING

Intemperance and Divorce Scored; Appeal For Co-operation in Bible Conference

Philadelphia, Sept. 28.—Intemperance and divorce evil came in for sharp criticism at the opening session of the one hundred and seventeenth annual conference of the Church of the United Brethren in Christ, which

DRINK HABIT

RELIABLE HOME TREATMENT
Thousands of wives, mothers and sisters are enthusiastic in their praise of Orrine, because it has cured their loved ones of the "Drink Habit" and thereby brought happiness to their homes. Can be given secretly.
Orrine is prepared in two forms: No. 1, secret treatment; Orrine No. 2, the voluntary treatment. Costs only $1.00 a box. Ask for booklet, Geo. A. Gargas, 16 N. 3rd St., Harrisburg, John A. McCurdy, Steelton; H. F. Remshouse, Mechanicsburg, Pa.

opened yesterday at the Second United Brethren Church, Fifty-ninth and Catharine streets. Announcement was made of the admission of seven new ministers to the conference and the transfer of six others to other conferences.

New churches which have been built during the last year are at Steelton, Lebanon, Harrisburg, Mount Joy, Freewill, Mount Nebo and the Third Brethren Church, of Philadelphia, at Twelfth and Wyoming streets.

An appeal was made by Superintendent Lowery for co-operation in making the annual Bible conference, held at Mount Gettys in August each year, a greater success.
New ministers admitted to the conference were the Revs. William E. Daniels, Ephrata, Pa.; H. J. Whitman, Williamstown, Pa.; W. H. Kachel, Pottstown, Pa.; C. A. Sollenberger, Harrisburg; Russel Rhoads and J. Paul Hummel, both of Hummelstown, and Martin Broff, of Retton, Pa.
The morning session was opened by Bishop Weekly, D. D., of Parkersburg, W. Va.
Bishop Weekly appointed the various committees, after which the following names were referred to the conference on application: William E. Daniels, of Ephrata; H. J. Witman, of Williamstown; W. H. Kachel, Pottstown; C. A. Sollenberger, of Harrisburg; and Russel Rhoads, of Elizabethville.
The afternoon session was opened by the Rev. H. M. Miller, of Penbrook, who conducted the devotional exercises.
The Rev. D. D. Lowery, of Harrisburg, conference superintendent, presented his twenty-third annual report, which showed an increase in all departments of church work. The report of the boundary committee was submitted by the Rev. L. H. Albright, of Middletown.
The evening session was opened with a song service by the local choir. The address of the evening was delivered by the Rev. Dr. Elias D. Dreyer, superintendent of the Lutheran Church missions of Philadelphia.

One of the prominent lay delegates at the conference is Aaron S. Kreider, of Anville, congressman of the Eighteenth district.
A history of the Hershey church has recently been published. The editor is the Rev. N. L. Linebaugh, who has served the congregation as pastor for the last four years.
One of the oldest members of the conference in attendance is Rev. James Shoop, of Elizabethville. He has served as pastor and presiding elder in the conference for many years.

"Prunella" Receipts May Total Up to $400

The Board of Directors of the Civic Club will meet on Saturday afternoon at the home of the president, Mrs. William Henderson, 25 North Front street, to discuss plans for practical application of the $400 acquired through the two performances of "Prunella." To the expenses incident to furnishing the newly-acquired club house at Front and North streets.
The courtesy of Chief of Police Wetzel in diverting traffic from the stretch along Front street during the course of the play last evening was much appreciated and had a notable effect on the quality of the performance. The experience of the preceding evening was noticeable in the acting and an appreciative audience enjoyed the play to the full.
CHICKEN DINNER ON ISLAND
Dauphin, Pa., Sept. 28.—A party of people enjoyed a chicken dinner on Reed's Island last evening, going over to the island in canoes. The party included Mr. and Mrs. J. D. M. Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Reed, Miss Carrie Elizabeth Gerberich, Miss Anna Houck, Blon C. Welker and

WHARTON SCHOOL COURSES NAMED

Faculty Will Include Strong Men; Registrations Are Coming In

Announcement of the courses to be taught in the University of Pennsylvania Wharton school extension this year was made by faculty officers to-day.
The first year students will study accounting, money and banking, corporation finance and commercial law. The second year subjects will be industrial management, selling and advertising, government regulation of business and commercial law. Third year men will take up accounting practice and procedure or practical accounting systems, investments, real estate, insurance and will finish the work in commercial law.
Classes will be held in the Technical high school every Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings from 7:45 to 9:45 o'clock, with fifteen minutes intermission at 8:45.
Noted men in various fields will be on the Wharton school faculty this year. The 1916-17 corps of instructors will include the following:
Edward S. Mead, professor of finance; James T. Young, professor of public administration; Solomon S. Huebner, insurance and commerce; Thomas Conway, Jr., finance; Ward W. Pierson, law; J. Russel Smith, industry; Edward P. Moxey, accounting; John J. Sullivan, law; Herbert W. Hess, assistant, fiscal science; Gordon B. Anderson, instructor in finance; Irving D. Rosshelm, accounting; Wendell P. Raine, law; Arthur T. Cam-

Duel Is Another French Institution Fallen Into Disuse Since War Started

Paris, Sept. 28.—The duel is one of the ancient institutions of France that has fallen into neglect during the war. The last sensational encounter on the "field of honor"—a bloodless one took place after the election of the Chamber of Deputies in 1914, not long before hostilities broke out. It was between Joseph Calliaux, former minister of finance and his unsuccessful opponent Louis d'Allieres. Calliaux fired into the air and d'Allieres fired into the ground.
Since that meeting M. d'Allieres has been grievously wounded on another "field of honor." Acting as intermediary officer between the firing line and the command in the rear, he was hit by a fragment of a shell that claimed him, probably for life.
It is attributed to the fact that so many Frenchmen, like M. d'Allieres have shed their blood on the battle-

ELMER REEM BURIED

Dauphin, Pa., Sept. 28.—Funeral services for Elmer Reem, who died at his home at Heckton on Sunday were held yesterday morning. The Rev. Francis J. S. Morrow, pastor of the Dauphin Methodist Episcopal Church, was in charge and burial was made in Riverside cemetery.
Some credit the "sacred union" of parties and classes with this reform while there are certain proofs that it is due to popular deprecation of personal conflicts between Frenchmen who the Germans are still Noyon. The "sacred union" has not prevented disputes and provocations.
Two men contesting for a favorable place from which to witness a review of troops on the Esplanade des Invalides came to blows and one of them tossed his card to the other.
"If you are so eager to fight" cried a bystander, "why don't you do as those boys did" pointing to some armless and legless soldiers lined up before the troops to be decorated.
"Two young men in a popular cafe exchanged sarcasms, followed by insults, blows and an exchange of cards. "To Verdun with them!" cried the spectators. "Put them out!"
The manager threw both of them into the street where the idlers jeered them until in common defense they made up their quarrel and walked off together.
There are two hypotheses regarding
