

FIRST FOOTBALL GAME AT ISLAND PARK TO-MORROW

LEBANON VALLEY PLAYS WEST POINT

Bar Spectators From Game Because of Infantile Quarantine; Team in Good Shape

Annyville, Pa., Sept. 29. — Coach Guyer left this morning for West Point with a squad of nineteen men. Final practice was held last night in the form of a long signal drill after which the men were named who would make the trip. Great enthusiasm was shown by the student body when a mass meeting was held in the chapel to give the team a send-off. Many had planned to accompany the team but a telegram was received by Manager Wagner to the effect that no spectators would be allowed. This is due to the strict infantile paralysis quarantine in the State of New York.

Players in Good Shape

The players themselves are in the best of condition and are highly expectant of making a good showing against the Army. The probable lineup that will start the game is: Wrenrich at center; DeHuff and Buckwalter, guards; Loomis and Captain Hackert, tackles; Morrison and W. Swartz, ends; while the back field will consist of Rupp at quarterback; Keating and Joeger, halfbacks, with R. Swartz at fullback.

For substitute linemen there will be Lerew, Winnesek, Koslek; ends, Adams and Walters; back field, Donohue, Goff and Westock. The first line-up is composed wholly of last year Varsity men.

While the Varsity plays at West Point the Second team will meet the strong Palmyra A. C. aggregation on the College athletic field.

WELLY'S CORNER

The wild duck season in Pennsylvania opens Sunday. It being illegal to shoot game on Sunday hunters will open the season on Monday. There will be no Spring shooting. The season ends January 15. After October 1, under the provisions of Federal Law no swan or wood duck can be legally killed before September 1, 1918.

At a pennant celebration banquet held at Syracuse last night, Manager Mike O'Neill of the victorious Stars was presented with a purse of $1,000. It came from baseball fans in that city. It is a long time since any purse was raised in Harrisburg for a winning manager.

The Harrisburg Academy eleven will open the season on October 7 with Lykens high. There are 15 candidates out under the direction of Coach Schlichter and every man is showing lots of "pep."

The Favored Loving Cup tournament will take place at the Reservoir Park links to-morrow. It will be a medal play and all members of the Harrisburg Park Golf Club are urged to compete.

It's a long time off until the Pirates go into training for the 1917

Trap and Field Notes About Women Shooters

By Peter P. Carney
It is the ambition of Mrs. L. C. Vogel, of Detroit, Mich., to win one of the "big" shoots, and it wouldn't surprise many of the shooters if she did come through some time. She is always up with the leaders.

Mrs. Harry L. Potter is not only the champion woman trap and shotgun. The name of the young lady is Elizabeth Anderson.

Annapolis, Md., has discovered a eight-year-old trapshooting marvel. The name of the young lady is Elizabeth Anderson.

There are more women trapshooters in Chicago, Ill., than in any other city in America. The name of the young lady is Miss Leaphy C. Gough. She accompanies her father to the shoots every Saturday, and with a 29-gauge gun averages better than 70.

SOME EASY MONEY

A one dollar parlay on the Giants to win 20 straight games would give the winner odds of 2,097,151 to 1.

In other words, if a better put up one dollar at even money on the game played September 7 and he continued to follow the fortune of the Giants in each game, betting the entire amount each day, he would now have a bank roll of $2,097,152, provided, of course, that he would have placed his bet each day.—Elmira Star Gazette.

Reading Players For Giants; Buy Pitcher Bill Donohue

Three Reading New York State League players are likely to be seen with the New York Giants next season. Pitcher Bill Donohue, the leading pitcher of the Reading team this season, is McGraw's latest acquisition.

Donohue was sent to the New York State League team from Detroit last season. He was not recalled or drafted, but after the season closed here Dr. F. N. Tate sold him to the Giants on the optional agreement. Dr. Tate will, therefore, get a stipulated amount for Donohue if he makes good. The pitcher's home is at Scranton.

In an exhibition game at New Haven, Conn., last Sunday, Donohue, who is now with the Giants, did some of the pitching. The New Yorkers met a club composed of former Federal League players and won by a score of 8-1. Donohue pitched the last two innings, after five runs had been made on Pie Way, the Yale star. Bill did not allow a batter to get as far as first base in the two rounds that he served. Bill Schuppner, the baseman, and Babington, outfielder, who were with the Reading team, are members of the Giants.

In addition to the sale of Donohue by the optional agreement, Dr. Tate gets $750 for "Lefty" Gerner, who was drafted by Cincinnati.

New York Wins Two More; Eliminate Boston Red Sox

New York, Sept. 29. — Boston was virtually eliminated from the National League pennant race here yesterday, when New York twice defeated the visitors 2 to 0 and 6 to 0. The victories boosted the New York winning streak of twenty-five straight games.

Schupp saved another finished performance in the second game. Not a man reached base against him until the sixth inning, when Blackburn walked. Konetchy got the only hit, a single in the seventh. These two are the only players to reach first base. Benny Kauff hit a home run in the third inning of the second contest with the bases full. In this inning Goyer was banished from the game for disputing a decision by Umpire Rigler.

In the first game Tesreau and Rudolph engaged in a pitching duel. The Giant hurler had the better of his rival. Robertson virtually decided this game by lifting the ball into the upper tier of the grandstand in the fourth inning for a home run.

Baseball Situation in National League

Less than two points behind Brooklyn with two more games to play than the Dodgers and with still two more games to play at Brooklyn, the Phillies are now right in a position to put over the finish punch. It is quite possible that rain may figure in deciding the winner of the pennant. The weather man last night said there were grave fears of there being a storm both in this city and at Brooklyn to-day. He is no more certain of it, however, than the Dodgers are that they will win from the Phillies.

Team	W.	L.	Pct.
Brooklyn	90	58	.60811
Philadelphia	88	57	.60829
Boston	84	60	.58333
New York	84	62	.57334

Rain to-day at Brooklyn would cause a double-header to be played Saturday, which would not benefit the Phillies, who have double-headers at home on Monday and Tuesday with Boston. It would place an additional strain upon the pitching department.

As the race stands now Brooklyn has 6 games to play to the Phillies' 8. If both clubs win all those games, which is impossible, the Phillies would win the pennant. If Brooklyn wins one game from the Phils and all four from the Giants the Phils would have to win all six remaining games from the Braves to win the pennant. So, weather conditions may figure decidedly in the final reckoning.

Team	W.	L.	Pct.
Boston	88	61	.59060
Chicago	86	64	.57333
Detroit	85	66	.56258

American Athletes Sail For European Shores

New York, Sept. 29.—Five American athletes who are going to Sweden, Norway and Denmark to meet the pick of these countries in competition, sailed from this port yesterday aboard the steamship Oscar II. They are J. G. Loomis, J. E. Meredith, Fred Murray, Robert Simpson and Andrew Ward. Meredith stated that he will go to England and enter business there if the outlook is good.

Up to almost the last hour Ward was in suspense as to whether he would be able to go. He arrived here yesterday aboard the steamship Oscar Frederick Ruben, secretary of the A. A. U., joined him in his final successful efforts to get the document. Ward, who is from the Chicago Athletic Association, won the 100 and 220-yard national championships in the Amateur Athletic Union games at Newark, N. J., recently.

A large delegation of sport followers was at the pier to see the five athletes off.
