

CENTRAL WINS FIRST GAME--CRUCIAL WEEK FOR NATIONALS--LOCAL STARS SHINE

CENTRAL WINS OPENING GAME

Scores Touchdown Near Close of Contest With Lancaster High; Good Work

Central high eleven opened the season Saturday chalking up a victory over Lancaster high, score 6 to 0. It was some interesting game, notwithstanding the necessity for putting a number of green men in the line-up. Both teams played a strong defensive game.

The first and second periods were practically warming up opportunities. Both teams sparred for openings. Central had the ball most of the time and played a good game. Local players who had worked hard for this game were barred because of studies and five men, practically greenies were put in by Coach Leo for Harrisburg. The general opinion prevailed that Central's team this year will maintain the standard set in previous years.

In the latter part of the third quarter Central by playing real football had the ball on the ten-yard line. When the final period opened, Hilton carried the ball over the line for the first and only touchdown. Fields failed in a goal trial. The balance of the quarter found both teams putting up a nip and tuck battle. Local stars were Hilton, Wolfe, Selheimer, Frank and Fields. Hester played a good game for Lancaster until he had his hip dislocated and ligaments of the right leg torn. The line-up and summary follows:

Central H. S. H. Swank, I. e. W. Rodgers, I. e. Hostetter, I. g. Gardner, I. g. Good, c. Kelly, r. g. Selheimer, Frank, r. t. Herring, r. e. Wolfe, q. b. E. Rodgers, I. h. Lonsenecker, r. h. Hilton, f. b. Ganezle, f. b. Fields, f. b.

Referee: Johnson, Harrisburg; umpire, Moffit, Harrisburg; timer, Warden, Harrisburg. Touchdown—Hilton. Ten-minute quarters.

NATIONALS MAY BREAK RECORDS

Final Series Opens Today; Race Is Close; Brooklyn Meets Giants

Chicago, Oct. 2.—The National League championship may not be decided until next Thursday, the last day of the season, so close is the race between Brooklyn and Philadelphia. Brooklyn which to-day starts a four-game series with New York, has an advantage of only a fraction of a game. Philadelphia has six games to play yet, all with Boston and they must be played in four days.

Boston Chances Slight Boston has only a slight chance to win, as it must take all six games from Philadelphia and Brooklyn must lose three out of four to New York. All of the western teams have completed their schedule. The standing of the three leaders today is: Brooklyn 91, Philadelphia 89, Boston 85.

Brooklyn Retains Lead; Final Battles This Week By winning the second game of Saturday's double-header with the Phillies, after losing the first, Brooklyn retains its lead in the race for the National League pennant by the score margin of .062 points. The Phillies failed in their effort to wrest first place from the Dodgers in the second encounter. The New York Giants, by losing the second game of the double header with Boston, broke their successive winning streak after taking the first game which made their total twenty-six. The following are the two club's prior to today's games follows: W. L. Pct. Brooklyn 91 59 .607 Phillies 89 58 .605

How Philadelphia May Reach Lead Today There are three ways whereby the Phils can reach the top in the National League pennant fight today: 1. If the Phils win both games from Boston and Brooklyn loses its single game to the Giants. Then the percentage will be: Phillies, .61073; Brooklyn, .62549. 2. If the Phils win both from Boston and Brooklyn wins its single game. Then the percentage will be: Phillies, .61073; Brooklyn, .62549. 3. If the Phils win one and lose the other with Boston and Brooklyn loses to New York. Then the percentage will be: Phils, .60407; Brooklyn, .62549. Should the Phils lose two games and Brooklyn one, then Brooklyn will see its lead advance to one full game.

WELLY'S CORNER

Football had a real opening Saturday. Once more the smaller institutions came to the front with exceptionally strong teams. The one big enterprise was the 3 to 0 score between West Point and Lebanon Valley. Dartmouth was the only victorious team scored on. Penn had an eleventh-hour victory. Yale, Princeton and Harvard had little trouble in landing the first victory. Lafayette and Fordham played a no-score game. Penn-State, Bucknell, and Lehigh came out all right.

The Penbrook All-Scholastics opened the season for the independent teams and won over Camp Curtin eleven, score 49 to 0. These games arouse much interest as the players are former college and scholastic stars. Here is an item from a morning paper for Manager George Cockill and his local admirers. If correct Harrisburg may also have a new face in the New York State league line-up next season: "Ray Cockill, a son of George Cockill, manager of the Harrisburg New York State league baseball club, who has pitched in the Dartmouth-Schuykill league, is filling the center position of the Bucknell eleven. The boy is growing rapidly."

Chicago's defeat on the opening game at Cleveland yesterday clinched the American league pennant for Boston. The final standing of Chicago is 89 won and 65 lost, a percentage of .57702. Boston has won 90 and lost 61, and even by losing all three of its remaining games with the Athletics would finish beyond the chance even of a tie. The Boston percentage is .59603.

when Coach Wilder's Lebanon eleven will be the attraction. The Dutch easily won over Anville High School Saturday by a 72 to 0 score.

LOCAL STARS IN SATURDAY GAMES Six Former High School Athletes in Line-up at West Point No less than half a score of local gridiron stars played important parts in the college football games played Saturday and in another week an additional number will be bringing honors to their Alma Mater, Lebanon Valley, with six lads from this vicinity, gave the Army Mule one of the hardest battles of its life before the West Pointers were able to nose out a 3 to 0 victory. It was the first game played between the two teams and the creditable showing made by the Anville eleven will likely make the event an annual affair. Captain Ross Swartz, Hummelstown; Bill Swartz, a cousin, Middletown; Morrison, Steelton; Rupp, Oberlin; Loomis and Jaeger, former stars at Tech, played an important part in the plucky contest played by the Anville squad. Bob Good at Lehigh Bob Good, after a year out of college, returned to Lehigh, and at a tackle position helped defeat Ursinus, 21 to 0. State College overwhelmed Westminster, 55 to 0. Beck and Captain Clark, of this city, were important factors. The Tech star scored once, while the former Central captain crossed the line three times. Mummert, a local football and baseball star, was prominent in the Lafayette line-up at tackle. The Eastonians played a scoreless tie with Fordham. High school gridiron warriors also got started. Steelton, Central, Allentown, Easton, Lancaster and Lebanon played their initial contests Saturday. Tech will get started next Saturday.

ALLEN TOWN HIGH WINNER Allentown, Pa., Oct. 2.—Allentown High on Muhlenberg field Saturday won the opening game of its football season with its old rival, Holy Infancy, of South Bethlehem, 7 to 6. For Allentown, Halfback Feldman caught a fumble and ran 70 yards for a touchdown. Ruhmel kicked goal. McGlade scored the visitors' touchdown on a forward pass, but his attempt to kick goal was blocked by Ruhmel. Other Sports on Page 6.

DECLARED INELIGIBLE Everett, Mass., Oct. 2.—Search is being made in every city and town in New England for Fred Marshall, captain of the Everett high school eleven, who disappeared Saturday after he had been notified that he would not be permitted to play in a game between this team and that of Colby Academy. He was barred from football because he was behind in his studies. Marshall left this note for his mother: "I have been declared ineligible to play and cannot stay to face the music." His team was beaten for the first time in four years.

MARIETTA WINS FIRST GAME Marietta, Oct. 2.—The football season opened in Marietta on Saturday with a victory for the newly-organized D. G. Dery team. They played on the silk mill grounds, and had as their opponents the ex-high school team, of Colton. The Dery team were completely outclassed in every way, and Marietta had to hold back not caring to run up a higher score. The windup was 18 to 6, in favor of Marietta.

ROSEWOOD JUNIORS WIN The Rosewood Junior football team was a victor over the Summit A. C. eleven by the score of 6 to 0 in a game played Saturday afternoon. McGuire, Connor and Weidman were the stars for the winners, while B. Shultz played the best game for the losers.
