POWDER WORKS CLOSES DOWN

Big Plant of Aetna Explosives Co. at Mt. Union Discharges Its Employees

Mt. Union, Pa., Oct. 2.—Aetna Explosives Company, employing 1,500 men here for almost two years and causing the town to boom along all lines, forcing boarding and rent to the highest point ever known of before in Mt. Union, and causing several hundred houses to be built, has about stopped the manufacture of powder. Only about one hundred men remain at the plant to-day. A number of men were laid off daily for the last two weeks, and today's lay off was the largest scale than before. It was said the shutdown was merely to make necessary repairs and install safety devices, which will require several months. The shutdown, however, will not cause Mt. Union to suffer, as there are still large enough demands to require the extra houses built because of the increased demand for powder, which Mt. Union supplies more than any other town of the world.

MRS. MAY'S LETTER TO WOMEN
More Proof that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Relieves Suffering.

Chicago, Ill.—"I suffered from a bad case of female ill. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended and I took about six bottles. It fixed me up all right. The common symptoms of such a condition—pain when walking, irritation, bearing down pains and backache, nervousness and disordered digestion—soon passed away. I look much better now than I did before, and I recommend the Compound every day for female troubles, as it did for me all it is claimed to do. You have my permission to publish this letter." Mrs. J. MAY, 3648 S. Lincoln St., Chicago, Ill.

If you have any of the symptoms mentioned in Mrs. May's letter, remember what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for her, and try it yourself. It is a good old-fashioned medicine, made from roots and herbs, and it has helped countless numbers of women. If you need special advice, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

For to-day the Victoria presents "The Pretenders," in which Emmy Lynn, the leading role of "The Pretenders" as the name implies, deals with the story of a woman who sent herself to be far above their real sphere in life. "The Spoilers," Rex Beach's famous book, has been dramatized and will be the attraction here Tuesday and Wednesday only. William Farrar, America's highest paid dramatic star, and Kathryn Williams, who was also featured in "The Ne'er-Do-Well," written by the same author, are featured. Admission for Tuesday and Wednesday will be 25 cents for adults, first floor; 10 cents for balcony, and 10 cents for all children.

According to the requests of numerous patrons, the management of the Regent Theater announces the return of the famous comedy "Temptation" today only of Geraldine Farrar in "Temptation." As Renee Dupree, the cafe singer, who is offered the triumphs and glories of an operatic singer, she spurns them rather than lose her sweetheart's love. Her brilliant woman is seen at her best. Gone is the threat of excitement, the shrewd and smirky of the adventurer, and instead is the deep affection, sympathy and respect of a sincere woman.

The attraction to-morrow will be the return of "The Chorus Lady" featuring Cleo Ridgely and Wallace Reid. Cleo Ridgely appears as Patricia O'Brien, the leading role of "The Chorus Lady." Her headstrong, adventurous younger sister, Nora, is played by Marjorie Daw. The clever little 14-year-old protegee of Geraldine Farrar, Wallace Reid is seen as "Danny" Mallory, the detective, who is sincerely in love with the girl behind the scenes.

Unusual interest has been added to the new Triangle-Film Arts feature, "The Devil's Needle," which is showing at the Colonial to-day and to-morrow. This picture was billed to appear in the city several weeks ago, but was unexpectedly held back by the Board of Censors. The picture has been altered to meet with their approval, and is said to be one of the Triangle Company's best offerings. Nam Kuter, the star of this picture, is a wonderful portrayal of a young artist's model, the victim of a power, overcomes the awful habit, and not only succeeds in saving herself, but saves the artist as well. Fully Marshall, in the role of the artist, gives an exhibition of splendid acting as a dope fiend. Mack Swain, the funny Keystone comedian, will be in the same program in a new two-reel Keystone comedy called "Vampire Ambrose."

Philip Bartholomea, who gave us "Over Night" and "The Dreams Come True," is responsible for "Very Good Eddie," which, put in at the Princess Theater, New York, last Fall, ran at that popular metropolitan playhouse for over a year. The music is by Jerome Kern, and the farce is sponsored by the Marbury-Comstock Company. The basis of the story is the same author's delightful farce, "Over Night." It is scheduled for the Orpheum Theater to-morrow evening.

Miss Inez Bauer, who portrays the part of Madam Mischkova, a Russian dancer, in "Lady Luxury," which opens at the Orpheum Theater on Wednesday, matinee and night, has been with the following successes as a premier danseuse: "Richard and I," "The Merry Countess," "The Rose Maid" and with a number of Eddie Foy's, including "Over the River."

Hughes' Whiskers Win Him One Vote
Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 2.—"We men of whiskers must stand together," declares William E. Saxton, a gallant ex-Confederate soldier, pioneer realty owner and possessor of a beard which might be the envy of a Mohammedan prophet.

"We must vote down" candidates who use the safety razor every morning, and, carrying out these sentiments, Saxton says he will break the life-long Democratic record this Fall by voting for the whiskered candidate, Charles E. Hughes. Saxton's whiskers are eighteen inches long.

DIGESTION WORTH HAVING
Good digestion is not appreciated until you lose it. Then you cannot afford to experiment on remedies. Strong medicines are hard on weak stomachs.

To be able to eat what you want and to digest it is a priceless blessing. If you have lost it do not be deceived by the claims of predigested foods and stomach tonics, so-called.

There is no tonic for the stomach that is not a tonic for every other part of the body. As the blood goes everywhere, an improvement in its condition quickly results in strengthening weak organs. Rich, red blood is absolutely necessary to digestion. If your stomach is weak and you are troubled with gas, sour risings in the throat, a feeling of pressure about the heart and palpitation, try the tonic treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

So many dyspeptics have been helped by this simple treatment that every sufferer from stomach trouble should try it. The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., has issued a booklet "What to Eat and How to Eat" that should be in every home. It gives just the information that you want regarding your diet. The company will mail Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, postpaid, at fifty cents per box of your own drug store can supply you.

The coming of Fritz Kreisler to the Orpheum, Wednesday evening, October 11, for a violin recital for the benefit of the Harrisburg S. P. C. A., is a prominent feature of the musical season of Harrisburg.

It is the great Austrian violinist's first concert for the season of 1916. That means he comes to his audience physically refreshed, eager to give his best. That "best," invidious as are comparisons, can be equaled by no other violinist in the world to-day save, perhaps, by the great Belgian, Ysaie.

The audience, also, is musically unjaded, hence more responsive. Harrisburgers are noted for their musical appreciation—though sometimes unjustly accused of coldness—therefore, there should be a great "music feast" when Kreisler arrives for his second visit to Harrisburg.

The board of reserved seats opens at the box office of the Orpheum on Wednesday morning next. Seats may be had at S. P. C. A. headquarters, No. 7 North Third street, at C. M. Singer, Inc.; J. H. Group Music House, and Rothert Company.

An unusual attraction is announced to appear at the Orpheum to-night, the organization being "The Junior Mimic World of 1916," composed of thirty juvenile performers, all of whom are well known on the vaudeville and legitimate stage. The company is headed by Felix one of the cleverest imitators on the stage to-day. There are thirty songs and dance numbers, composed by the popular song writers, with costumes by Janet Fox, of New York.

Some Person Put Whisky in Editor's Wooden Leg

Williamson, W. Va., Oct. 11.—Thomas Garner, owner and editor of the Williamson Daily News, wears a wooden leg. The following advertisement tells its own story. We wear an artificial leg. We frequently take off this leg and lay it in a neatly covered box in our office. In examining the leg yesterday we were surprised to find a quart of whisky liquor, which had been only slightly sampled, secreted away down in the socket of the leg. We have been doing the work in the past year. The Smails family has been doing the work in the past year.
