

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NEWS

MATINEE BRIDGE WITH MISS CLARK

Guests Enjoy Cards and Supper Amid Decorations of Autumn Flowers

Miss Eleanor Neal Clark made a charming hostess at cards this afternoon at her home, 109 Rely street. A suggestion of autumn was given in the decorations of marigolds, dahlias and gay hued leaves. A buffet supper followed games of bridge. In attendance were Miss Helen Goodwin Hammond, Miss Dora Wickersham Coe, Miss Mary Elizabeth Meyers, Miss Katharine Etter, Miss Eleanor Earle, Miss Suzanna Fleming, Miss Myrvinne Eason, Miss Frances Bailey, Miss Anna Gay Bradley, Miss Margaret McLain, Miss Martha Elmer Fleming, Mrs. Thomas Baldwin, Miss Emily Bailey, Miss Janet Sawyer, Miss Frances Morrison, Miss Ruth Rilling, Miss Sara Denehey, Miss Alice Wallis, Miss Mary Mitchell, Miss Mary Williamson and Mrs. Elaine Riley.

MISS SHOOP IS HOSTESS FOR DILLSBURG VISITOR

A marshmallow toast in Spooky Hollow given by Miss Mildred Shoop of 216 Muench street was arranged in honor of Miss Maude Forry of Dillsburg. Among the party chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Keller were: Miss Maude Forry, Miss Catherine Gettiss, Miss Ethyl Smith, Miss Hazel Hamill, Miss Helen Bowers, Miss Gertrude Bell, Miss Leola Speese, Miss Agnes Haal, Miss Ruth McCormick, Miss Ethyl Fray, Miss Mildred Shoop, Charles Lingie, Charles Neagle, Herman Lehman, Harry McCabe, George Myers, Jim Klancy, Irvin Malick, Claude Hethelman, Robert Formwall, Oran Beck, George Good, and Walter Myers.

AT OLD SPRING COTTAGE

Recent visitors at Cold Spring Cottage, near Williams Mills, were: Mrs. Gilbert H. Cullinberry, Mrs. John P. Dohoney, the Misses McCabe, George Emma Vollmer, Miss Parlow, Miss Virginia Buehler, Mrs. Charles C. Whitman, Mrs. George Whitney, Miss Maria York, Miss Lois York, Miss Hawkins, Mrs. Emily Miller, Miss Anna Crowl, Miss Stentz, Miss Stewart, Miss Emma Grieshaber, Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson, Miss Dorothy Johnson, Morris Johnson, Miss Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Kitchen.

Mrs. Edward Frickman, of 234 North Fifteenth street, has gone to North Collins, New York, to visit her sister, Mrs. H. E. Rupp.

Mrs. Howard Gordon and small son, of 1413 Market street, is spending a few weeks in Milton.

Miss Janet Hickok, of 119 State street, will leave in a few days for Middlebury, Conn., to enter as a student at the Westover School for Girls.

Miss Mary Kunkel, of 1607 North Second street, left yesterday for Andover, Mass., where she will enter the Amertson School.

Miss Gertrude Olmsted, of 105 North Front street, will leave the latter part of the week for study at the Foxcroft School for Girls at Middleburg, Va.

VISITING IN THE SOUTH

The Rev. Dr. James Fry Bullitt, of Bellevue, left yesterday for Danville, Ky., where he will join his daughter, Miss Martha Bullitt, who returned there after visiting friends in Indiana. Later Dr. Bullitt and Miss Bullitt will go to Lewisville, Ky., where they will be guests of Marshall Bullitt, former senator general of the United States. From there they will return west to St. Louis for a visit with friends.

HOME FROM GETTYSBURG

Paul Clouster, Wilbur Draughba and Robert Wolf, students at Gettysburg College, spent the week-end at their homes in the city.

MRS. WILLIAM HOWANSTEIN SURPRISED BY FRIENDS

One of the pleasantest of surprises was that given by friends of Mrs. William J. Howanstein as a birthday fete for her at her home, 334 South Sixteenth street.

MOTOR FROM PITTSBURGH

Frank W. Pratt, accompanied by Leo Ettinger, motored from Pittsburgh and joined his wife and son, Regis here who were visiting Mrs. Pratt's sister, Mrs. Wm. J. Ettinger of 122 Calder street.

WED IN HAGERSTOWN

Hagerstown, Md., Oct. 3. — A marriage license was issued here yesterday by clerk of the court, Edward Oswald to Lincoln H. McKinley Miller and Ollie Dale, both of Harrisburg, Pa.

Save the pieces

IF Baby plays with your glasses, to your sorrow — "save the pieces" and we can duplicate your lenses exactly — without delay. Or, if your present glasses are not entirely satisfactory, your eyes undoubtedly require re-examination. Let an efficient Optician or Optometrist intelligently prescribe the proper lens for your eyes.

J. S. Belsinger

205 LOCUST ST. Belsinger Opp. Orpheum Glasses as Low as $2 Estab. 1914 Theater

DISEASES OF CHILDREN A SPECIALTY

ALBRA W. BAKER, M. D. Homeopathic Physician and Surgeon 1433 MARKET STREET Harrisburg, Pa.

BIRTHDAY PARTY FOR YOUNG BOY

Little Jack Schumann, Jr., of New York City Visits His Grandfather Here

JACK SCHUMANN, JR. Little Jack Schumann, Jr., of New York City, while visiting at the home of his grandfather, J. F. Ommert, of Nineteenth street, was given a surprise party in celebration of his third birthday.

The little lad who is popular among his acquaintances, tried his best to be a good host and enthusiastically received the gifts so kindly brought him by the guests. Refreshments were served to Miss Ella Reed, Miss Katherine Ommert, Miss Margaret Rickenbaugh, Miss Sara Cawl, Miss Loranna Wood, Miss Martha Rickenbaugh, Miss Elma Ommert, Marion Stoner, Miss Bertha Morrow, Miss Mildred and Estella Ommert, James Wood, Alfred Man, Park Hikus, Jack Schumann, Walter Freeburn, Paul Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Rickenbaugh, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Schumann, Sr., of New York, and J. F. Ommert.

A Prominent Resident Celebrates 80th Birthday

Mrs. Harry G. Keffer was named chairman of a committee which will invite the ladies of the city some time during the month. An automobile ride followed by refreshments will probably be the nature of the outing.

DAVID MARTIN SHELLEY David Martin Shelly, a Harrisburger whom it is a pleasure to know was 80 years young Sunday and fittingly observed the event with a happy birthday anniversary dinner at his home, 2306 North Sixth street. Since the death of his wife on September 9, 1915, Mr. Shelly has been making his home with his daughter, Mrs. W. E. Skeen. He is one of those rare men on whom the passing years rest lightly, and despite his advanced age, his step is brisk and his faculties alert. He takes a lively interest in every day affairs and it is a pleasure to listen to his reminiscences of the early days in this section.

Mr. Shelly was born on Shelly's Island, opposite Goldsboro, Oct. 1, 1836, living there 25 years. He wedded Ann Katherine Knouse at Goldsboro December 27, 1859, and for almost 55 years this delightful congenial pair were permitted to travel life's pathway together. After their removal to this city, Mr. Shelly entered the employ of the Harrisburg Car Works, being a foreman there at the time of that plant's destruction by fire. For twenty years he served as a letter carrier, a change of administration at Washington in the days before Civil Service terminating his employment in that capacity. Then he entered the employ of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company as a special officer at Union Station, being retired on pension ten years ago after a period of twenty years of faithful service.

RUDY-LEEDY WEDDING

Miss Gladys Ada Leedy, daughter of Mrs. Margat Leedy, 1633 Fulton street and Carl Cloyd Rudy of Montgomery street were quietly married last evening at 8 o'clock in the parsonage of the Fifth Street Methodist Church, by the Rev. William W. Hartman, pastor of Ridge avenue Methodist church.

MARRIED IN BALTIMORE WITH PARENTS' CONSENT

Mrs. L. M. Jones, of 1629 Swatara street, announces the marriage of her attractive young daughter, Miss Ivy L. Jones, to William J. Tate, of Cincinnati, Sunday, October 1, in Christ Protestant Episcopal Church, Baltimore, by the Rev. Dr. Edwin Niver.

MOTHER LOVE AIDS SON IN TRENCHES

It Brings Relief To Boy Standing His Watch Deep In Mud. Once upon a time, only a few months after this terrible world war had begun, Private Bailey, a soldier in the ranks had stood for days in the trenches "somewhere in France." The cold rains soaked him to the skin; the mud was deep. He had had no rest. Weary and aching with rheumatic pains, he recalled the faith his mother had in Sloan's Liniment. He asked for it in his next letter home. A large bottle was immediately sent him and a few applications killed the pain, once more he was able to stand the severe exposure. He shared this wonderful muscle-soother with his comrades, and they all agreed it was the greatest "reinforcement" that had ever come to their rescue. At your druggist, 25c, 50c, and $1.00 a bottle.

STORK NEWS

Dr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Bowman, of 1541 State street, announce the birth of a son, Monday, October 2, 1916. Mrs. Bowman was Miss Dorothy Spicer prior to her marriage.

Other Personals on Page 5.

SUNSHINE WORKS IN VARIOUS WAYS

Society Hears of Help Extended to Children and Shutins Throughout the City

A meeting of the Roberta Lloyd Sunshine Society was held at their rooms in the Y. M. C. A. building yesterday afternoon. The annual election of officers resulted as follows:

President, Mrs. Homer Black; first vice-president, Mrs. Melvin B. Cumbler; second vice-president, Mrs. Geo. E. Whitney; corresponding secretary, Mrs. James D. Hawkins; recording secretary, Mrs. Joseph L. Shearer, Jr.; treasurer, Mrs. William E. Seel and assistant treasurer, Miss Miriam Galbraith.

A report of the summer's work was read and proved that because of the generosity of the public and the untiring efforts of the officers and members the society was able to give more real sunshine this year than ever before. One hundred children were given an outing of from two to four weeks at the beautiful summer home established at Manada Gap.

A request was read stating that five little crippled children were sent by the society to-day to Philadelphia for operations and treatment.

The Roberta Dilsbrov Lloyd Sunshine Society is ten years old next month and in celebration of this event a reception will be given during the afternoon of a date to be determined upon later, at which Mrs. Cynthia Westover Alden, president, general manager and founder of the International Sunshine Society will speak to the members and friends of the local branch of sunshine work as it is being done all over the world. An evening meeting will also be arranged for. One of the crying needs of the society is the services of an orthopedic salesman for the American Lithographing Company, of Cincinnati, was about to leave for an extended western trip and they decided, with the consent of their parents, to have the wedding ceremony performed in Baltimore before he left and keep the secret until spring.

Elect Miss Dora W. Coe President Aid Society

Miss Dora W. Coe was this morning elected president of the Aid Society of the Visiting Nurse Association for the ensuing year. The meeting was held at the Visiting Nurse Home, Front and Boas streets, and the following additional officers were elected: Miss Eleanor N. Clark, vice-president; Miss Frances Morrison, treasurer, and Miss Sara Denehey, secretary.

Securing a marriage license and the services of Stewart Kishpaugh, of this city, as best man, they all went to the rectory of old St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church, in Baltimore, where the Rev. Arthur B. Kinsolving refused to perform the ceremony because they wished to keep the marriage secret. The second rector was more kind and "so they were married to live happily ever after."

Securing a marriage license and the services of Stewart Kishpaugh, of this city, as best man, they all went to the rectory of old St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church, in Baltimore, where the Rev. Arthur B. Kinsolving refused to perform the ceremony because they wished to keep the marriage secret. The second rector was more kind and "so they were married to live happily ever after."

Securing a marriage license and the services of Stewart Kishpaugh, of this city, as best man, they all went to the rectory of old St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church, in Baltimore, where the Rev. Arthur B. Kinsolving refused to perform the ceremony because they wished to keep the marriage secret. The second rector was more kind and "so they were married to live happily ever after."

Securing a marriage license and the services of Stewart Kishpaugh, of this city, as best man, they all went to the rectory of old St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church, in Baltimore, where the Rev. Arthur B. Kinsolving refused to perform the ceremony because they wished to keep the marriage secret. The second rector was more kind and "so they were married to live happily ever after."

Securing a marriage license and the services of Stewart Kishpaugh, of this city, as best man, they all went to the rectory of old St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church, in Baltimore, where the Rev. Arthur B. Kinsolving refused to perform the ceremony because they wished to keep the marriage secret. The second rector was more kind and "so they were married to live happily ever after."

Securing a marriage license and the services of Stewart Kishpaugh, of this city, as best man, they all went to the rectory of old St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church, in Baltimore, where the Rev. Arthur B. Kinsolving refused to perform the ceremony because they wished to keep the marriage secret. The second rector was more kind and "so they were married to live happily ever after."

Securing a marriage license and the services of Stewart Kishpaugh, of this city, as best man, they all went to the rectory of old St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church, in Baltimore, where the Rev. Arthur B. Kinsolving refused to perform the ceremony because they wished to keep the marriage secret. The second rector was more kind and "so they were married to live happily ever after."

Securing a marriage license and the services of Stewart Kishpaugh, of this city, as best man, they all went to the rectory of old St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church, in Baltimore, where the Rev. Arthur B. Kinsolving refused to perform the ceremony because they wished to keep the marriage secret. The second rector was more kind and "so they were married to live happily ever after."

Securing a marriage license and the services of Stewart Kishpaugh, of this city, as best man, they all went to the rectory of old St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church, in Baltimore, where the Rev. Arthur B. Kinsolving refused to perform the ceremony because they wished to keep the marriage secret. The second rector was more kind and "so they were married to live happily ever after."

Securing a marriage license and the services of Stewart Kishpaugh, of this city, as best man, they all went to the rectory of old St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church, in Baltimore, where the Rev. Arthur B. Kinsolving refused to perform the ceremony because they wished to keep the marriage secret. The second rector was more kind and "so they were married to live happily ever after."

Securing a marriage license and the services of Stewart Kishpaugh, of this city, as best man, they all went to the rectory of old St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church, in Baltimore, where the Rev. Arthur B. Kinsolving refused to perform the ceremony because they wished to keep the marriage secret. The second rector was more kind and "so they were married to live happily ever after."

Securing a marriage license and the services of Stewart Kishpaugh, of this city, as best man, they all went to the rectory of old St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church, in Baltimore, where the Rev. Arthur B. Kinsolving refused to perform the ceremony because they wished to keep the marriage secret. The second rector was more kind and "so they were married to live happily ever after."

Securing a marriage license and the services of Stewart Kishpaugh, of this city, as best man, they all went to the rectory of old St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church, in Baltimore, where the Rev. Arthur B. Kinsolving refused to perform the ceremony because they wished to keep the marriage secret. The second rector was more kind and "so they were married to live happily ever after."

Securing a marriage license and the services of Stewart Kishpaugh, of this city, as best man, they all went to the rectory of old St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church, in Baltimore, where the Rev. Arthur B. Kinsolving refused to perform the ceremony because they wished to keep the marriage secret. The second rector was more kind and "so they were married to live happily ever after."

Securing a marriage license and the services of Stewart Kishpaugh, of this city, as best man, they all went to the rectory of old St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church, in Baltimore, where the Rev. Arthur B. Kinsolving refused to perform the ceremony because they wished to keep the marriage secret. The second rector was more kind and "so they were married to live happily ever after."

Securing a marriage license and the services of Stewart Kishpaugh, of this city, as best man, they all went to the rectory of old St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church, in Baltimore, where the Rev. Arthur B. Kinsolving refused to perform the ceremony because they wished to keep the marriage secret. The second rector was more kind and "so they were married to live happily ever after."

Securing a marriage license and the services of Stewart Kishpaugh, of this city, as best man, they all went to the rectory of old St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church, in Baltimore, where the Rev. Arthur B. Kinsolving refused to perform the ceremony because they wished to keep the marriage secret. The second rector was more kind and "so they were married to live happily ever after."

Securing a marriage license and the services of Stewart Kishpaugh, of this city, as best man, they all went to the rectory of old St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church, in Baltimore, where the Rev. Arthur B. Kinsolving refused to perform the ceremony because they wished to keep the marriage secret. The second rector was more kind and "so they were married to live happily ever after."

Securing a marriage license and the services of Stewart Kishpaugh, of this city, as best man, they all went to the rectory of old St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church, in Baltimore, where the Rev. Arthur B. Kinsolving refused to perform the ceremony because they wished to keep the marriage secret. The second rector was more kind and "so they were married to live happily ever after."

Securing a marriage license and the services of Stewart Kishpaugh, of this city, as best man, they all went to the rectory of old St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church, in Baltimore, where the Rev. Arthur B. Kinsolving refused to perform the ceremony because they wished to keep the marriage secret. The second rector was more kind and "so they were married to live happily ever after."

Securing a marriage license and the services of Stewart Kishpaugh, of this city, as best man, they all went to the rectory of old St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church, in Baltimore, where the Rev. Arthur B. Kinsolving refused to perform the ceremony because they wished to keep the marriage secret. The second rector was more kind and "so they were married to live happily ever after."

Securing a marriage license and the services of Stewart Kishpaugh, of this city, as best man, they all went to the rectory of old St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church, in Baltimore, where the Rev. Arthur B. Kinsolving refused to perform the ceremony because they wished to keep the marriage secret. The second rector was more kind and "so they were married to live happily ever after."

Securing a marriage license and the services of Stewart Kishpaugh, of this city, as best man, they all went to the rectory of old St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church, in Baltimore, where the Rev. Arthur B. Kinsolving refused to perform the ceremony because they wished to keep the marriage secret. The second rector was more kind and "so they were married to live happily ever after."

Securing a marriage license and the services of Stewart Kishpaugh, of this city, as best man, they all went to the rectory of old St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church, in Baltimore, where the Rev. Arthur B. Kinsolving refused to perform the ceremony because they wished to keep the marriage secret. The second rector was more kind and "so they were married to live happily ever after."

Securing a marriage license and the services of Stewart Kishpaugh, of this city, as best man, they all went to the rectory of old St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church, in Baltimore, where the Rev. Arthur B. Kinsolving refused to perform the ceremony because they wished to keep the marriage secret. The second rector was more kind and "so they were married to live happily ever after."

Securing a marriage license and the services of Stewart Kishpaugh, of this city, as best man, they all went to the rectory of old St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church, in Baltimore, where the Rev. Arthur B. Kinsolving refused to perform the ceremony because they wished to keep the marriage secret. The second rector was more kind and "so they were married to live happily ever after."

Securing a marriage license and the services of Stewart Kishpaugh, of this city, as best man, they all went to the rectory of old St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church, in Baltimore, where the Rev. Arthur B. Kinsolving refused to perform the ceremony because they wished to keep the marriage secret. The second rector was more kind and "so they were married to live happily ever after."

Securing a marriage license and the services of Stewart Kishpaugh, of this city, as best man, they all went to the rectory of old St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church, in Baltimore, where the Rev. Arthur B. Kinsolving refused to perform the ceremony because they wished to keep the marriage secret. The second rector was more kind and "so they were married to live happily ever after."

Securing a marriage license and the services of Stewart Kishpaugh, of this city, as best man, they all went to the rectory of old St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church, in Baltimore, where the Rev. Arthur B. Kinsolving refused to perform the ceremony because they wished to keep the marriage secret. The second rector was more kind and "so they were married to live happily ever after."

Every Day Here is Bargain Day
LADIES' BAZAAR
 All Departments Here on First Floor
 10-12 S. 4th St.
 We Advertise the Truth.
 The Truth Advertises Us.

Madam! Here's Good News

Come to this store to-morrow. The fact that remodeling work on our front is going on at Nos. 8 and 10 S. Fourth Street should not keep you away. Use the entrance at No. 12, and we assure you that what you will find on the interior will overshadow the present uninviting appearance of the exterior, due to rebuilding work. Temporary partitions effectively separate the store from the contractor and his work. And best of all, during present conditions, an additional incentive is given you to come here in the way of special low prices on new Fall apparel.

New Expert Fitters in Our Workrooms insure prompt and satisfactory alterations, which are made without any extra charge.

New Fall Suits $10.98 to $44.98
 New Fall Coats $8.98 to $44.98
 New Fall Dresses $7.98 to $25.00

Wednesday Special $2.50 Silk Vests, 98¢
 Ladies' Italian Silk Undervests, in light blue only; sizes 36 and 38, regular $2.00 and $2.50 values; special Wednesday day only, each (Limit—2 to a customer) 98¢
 Wednesday Special $1.50 Corsets, 79¢
 Thomson's Glove-fitting and R. & G. Special Corsets, in the new Fall models, regular $1.50 value; special Wednesday day only, choice 79¢

April, but while visiting the bridegroom's parents in New York recently Miss Jones met with an accident on the ferryboat, from which she has not entirely recovered. Mr. Tate, a traveling salesman for the American Lithographing Company, of Cincinnati, was about to leave for an extended western trip and they decided, with the consent of their parents, to have the wedding ceremony performed in Baltimore before he left and keep the secret until spring. Securing a marriage license and the services of Stewart Kishpaugh, of this city, as best man, they all went to the rectory of old St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church, in Baltimore, where the Rev. Arthur B. Kinsolving refused to perform the ceremony because they wished to keep the marriage secret. The second rector was more kind and "so they were married to live happily ever after."

Says Simple Remedy Prolonged His Life

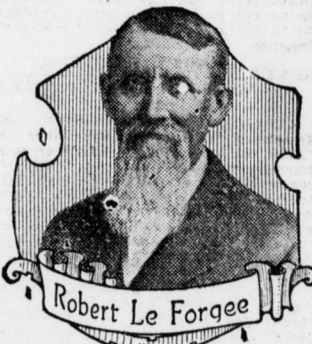

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin Effective as a Remedy for Constipation.

Among older people the various organs of the body have a tendency to slow up and weaken, and this is usually first manifest in a pronounced inactivity of the bowels.

Good health is dependent on regularity in this important function; when ever there is the slightest indication of constipation a mild laxative should be taken to relieve the congestion and dispose of the accumulated waste. Cathartics or purgatives should not be employed, however; these are too violent in action and their effect is only temporary.

A mild laxative such as the combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin, known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, is the ideal remedy. It is gentle in its action, bringing relief in an easy, natural manner, without griping or other pain or discomfort, is pleasant to the taste, and can be obtained in any drug store.

Mr. Robert LeForgee, 918 Kirkwood Boulevard, Davenport, Iowa, says he has always had a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin in the house for the past eighteen years, and that by using it occasionally as the need arises, and in this way keeping his health good, it has prolonged his life, and brought ease and comfort.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is sold by druggists everywhere, and costs only fifty cents a bottle. To avoid imitations and ineffective substitutes be sure to get Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. See that a facsimile of Dr. Caldwell's signature and his portrait appear on the yellow carton in which the bottle is packed. A trial bottle, free of charge, can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. E. Caldwell, 455 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.

Alas, Poor Hector!

When Hector was a wee small pup, some well-intending person presented him with a neat little doghouse.

However, being a pup, Hector grew—Hector expanded.

Now, he's tied down to a bit of a two-by-twice affair and he's worse off than a dog with no house at all.

Lots of us are in Hector's position. How 'bout YOU? Have you outgrown YOUR house, or flat, or rooming quarters, or neighborhood?

Then sit right down, call Bell phone 4100 and tell your requirements to the courteous and capable young lady, who'll place your Want Ad in the Classified columns of the Telegraph.

Your "want" is flashed before 22,000 readers within a few short hours—readers who have the sort of house, or apartment, or room that you're looking for.

Special Disposal of Our Sample Line of Baby Carriages

The open air—the kind we are having these days—is the place for the master of the house. He'll enjoy his "trips" better if he's tucked into one of our Bloch Baby Carriages.

We are disposing of this season's entire sample line—Gray and White Enamel, also Straw and Brown Color Carriages—Pullman style.

Large variety to select from. Note the savings:

$17.50 Baby Carriages at $14.00
 $22.50 Baby Carriages at $18.00
 $27.00 Baby Carriages at $21.50
 $31.50 Baby Carriages at $25.00

EXCEPTIONAL $7.50 Strollers at $5.00

EXTRA SPECIAL Regular 75c Sunfast Drapery Material; all colors and designs, for this week only 50c Per Yd.

GOLDSMITH'S North Market Square

Millinery Opening Thursday, October 5th

MRS. E. WALZER 27 South Second St.

Present Mrs. Geo. Eberly With Beautiful Gifts

A surprise party was arranged by some friends of Mrs. George Eberly, of New Cumberland, in celebration of her birthday anniversary. Gifts and flowers were presented with hosts of good wishes for the future years.

The party included: Mr. and Mrs. Stinemann, Mr. and Mrs. Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. Sterline, Mr. and Mrs. Maley, Mr. Mumper, all of New Cumberland; Mr. and Mrs. Fordney, Mrs. Jennie Looker, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Eberly, Mr. and Mrs. Long, Miss Ruth Long, Mrs. Emma Kaufman, Mr. and Mrs. Demmy, Miss Esther Demmy, Miss Esther Lauck, all of Harrisburg, and Mrs. William J. Scheel of Penbrook.

SHOWERS LOTS OF RICE AS COUPLE LEAVES MANSE

The marriage of Miss Bessie May Flynn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Flynn, 1213 Green street to William Burnham Benedict, son of Mathias Benedict, 1123 Green street took place Saturday evening, September 30, at 8 o'clock at the parsonage of the Ridge Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church, with the pastor, the Rev. William W. Hartman officiating.

PLAYING IN WILLIAMSTOWN

Miss Sara Lerner and her orchestra have gone to Williamstown to play this evening for the third time at a large dance given by the Phi. Club of that place.

For the Women Who Have from $3.50 to $5 to Spend for a Hat

We have this important message Every Trimmed Hat we sell at the above prices represents an extraordinary value — and is a true expression of the season's newest style ideas.

Wonderful assortments to select from, including Tams, Turbans and Silk Velvet Sailors—trimmed with fur, beaded and iridescent ornaments.

Buy your Hat today while selections are at their best.

The Louvre Millinery Shop 4th and Walnut Sts. Opp. Y. W. C. A.

