In each case, these great style-masters have been influenced by Paris originators; the changes they have effected leaves on the finished garment a mark of splendid American individualism.

75TH SESSION OF LUTHERAN SYNOD

Harrisburg Ministers Attending Annual Meeting at Messiah Lutheran Church, Phila.

Philadelphia, Oct. 4.—Two hundred and fifty pastors and lay delegates of the East Pennsylvania Synod are gathered here for the seventy-fifth annual session, in Messiah Lutheran Church. Elaborate plans have been made by the entertaining congregation, featuring special music and social features. The opening services of the synod were conducted by the officers of the synod, assisted by the Rev. D. B. Smith, formerly pastor at Hummelstown, and the Rev. H. S. Garnea, present pastor at Hummelstown. The president, Dr. Pohlman, preached. Dr. Pohlman said an appropriate slogan for the four hundredth anniversary of the great Protestant Reformation, to be celebrated in 1917, was "Christ died for all." The vast membership of the Lutheran Church in the world, consisting of more than one-half of all Protestants, was stated as being a tremendously solemnizing fact, presenting unmeasured possibilities. At the first business session the Rev. A. Pohlman, D. D., of Philadelphia, and the Rev. D. F. M. Myers, of Darby, were re-elected president and treasurer, respectively. The newly elected secretary is the Rev. E. E. Shantz, of Schaffersville. The synod at present assists in the education of seventeen young men for the ministry, one of whom, Robert Wolf, of Harrisburg, will be licensed to preach at this session. The committee on temperance reported continued activity of the educational campaign conducted by the General Synod committee and recorded its approval of the work of the Anti-Saloon League. The synodical business committee reported as the result of fifteen years'

Among the Harrisburg laymen enrolled are E. G. Hoover, W. C. Beldeman, Luther Minter and Grant Martz. Pastors of all the Harrisburg churches are in attendance—the Rev. Messrs. Meisenhelder, Manges, Markward, Hanson, Stamets, Snyder, Reisch, Shafer and Herman.

Celebrates Death of His Wife With Big Banquet

Newburgh, N. Y., Oct. 4. — Standing before a company of guests who had assembled at dinner at his invitation, Joseph Krill, of Cornwall, made a strange after-dinner address. "Ladies and gentlemen," he said, "several of you have asked me for the occasion for this spread, but I told you to wait. The time has come to tell you. Twenty-three years ago my wife elected to leave me and run away with another man, leaving me with three small children. One of them was 5 years old, another was 3 and the third was a baby 7 months old. I tried to locate her, but never succeeded until last week, when through relatives I learned she was dead. The greatest joy of my life was to hear that she had gone forever and that I am now free. To celebrate this I have called you together, and I want you to rejoice with me in my release." Krill said his wife had eloped with Frank Fredenburg, of Mountainville, and they had since been living in New York. One of his daughters was Emma Krill, who was accused of the murder of Dr. Stanley E. Trou, a Utica physician, in August, 1913. She was acquitted.

TYPHOID DEATH AT ENDERS

STATE FIGHTING PINE TREE PEST

Five Men Have Been Put in Charge of the Activities of the Department

Five fieldmen of the State division of Economic Zoology have started a systematic survey of the State to ascertain in what districts the white pine blister rust is prevalent and to take immediate steps to give advice to halt its spread. Zoologist J. G. Sanders who recently took charge of the Bureau of Zoology has made a special study of the white pine blister rust and he says that it is very important that every effort be made to prevent the spread of the disease in the State. In England where the blister rust has had a great spread it is impossible to grow white pines in many sections and should there be a spread in Pennsylvania many thousands of dollars of timber would be lost. Already there are six places in the State where the blister rust has been found on white pines and both the Federal and State Departments of Agriculture are making every effort to stamp it out. The five fieldmen assigned to the work have recently returned from the Federal Laboratory at Providence, R. I., where they studied the habits of the blister rust and methods to be used for its extermination. The Department of Agriculture is working in conjunction with the State Department of Forestry which is making every effort to keep blister rust from the forest preserves of the State. On cultivated lands the blister rust spreads to currants and gooseberry bushes and it may be necessary to destroy these bushes for a considerable distance where an infection is found. The men assigned to the work and their districts are: H. E. Backus—Blair, Cambria, Center, Clearfield, Huntingdon, Somerset, Bedford and Fulton counties. Ira C. Cherrington—Lackawanna, Luzerne, Susquehanna, Wayne, Pike, Wyoming and Columbia counties. F. L. Holdridge—Bradford, Lycoming, Sullivan, Tioga, Potter, McKean, Elk, Cameron and Clinton counties. E. F. Felree—Bucks, Montgomery, Chester, Delaware and Philadelphia counties. Francis Windle—Dauphin, Cumberland, Franklin, Adams, York, Lancaster and Lebanon counties.
