REVIEW OF 'LADY LUXURY'

A Show With Catchy Music, Good Humor and Excellent Singing

The New York Casino success, "Lady Luxury," was the bill for yesterday, matinee and evening performances, at the Orpheum. Unfortunately, the city did not seem to have even a fair idea of what was in store in this show, for but medium houses greeted the company for either performance. The show deserved considerably better, for there was humor aplenty, good, catchy songs, well sung, especially by the male chorus (and that is the place where most shows are weak), and dancing, and splendid scenery. "Lady Luxury" is quite unusual both in theme and presentation, both elements which add to the delight of an audience jaded with the stereotyped form over which the majority of musical comedies are cast. For the cast let it be said it was excellent; improved if possible, by the out-of-the-ordinary vocal abilities of the principals. And what is most to the credit of any show, the humor was clean and wholesome; the situations designed to create hearty laughter, the show to entertain as well as amuse. The name might imply, only enough of local theatergoers didn't know it, hence the scanty houses.

ORPHEUM — Saturday, matinee and night, October 7 — "Vogel's Big Musical," Tuesday evening, October 10 — Cohan and Harris present "Hit-the-Trail-Holiday." Wednesday night, October 11 — Frita Kreisler, benefit S. P. C. A. MAJESTIC — "Under Two Flags." COLONIAL — "The Money Kings." VICTORIA — "The Combat."

George M. Cohan, who usually hits the bull's eye when he writes a play, "Hit-the-Trail-Holiday" has just written his title as the cleverest showman of all America. The playwrights through the agency of his latest farce, "Hit-the-Trail-Holiday," a piece which has just been produced at the Orpheum Theater and the Harris Theater, New York, is one of the most explosive laughs, and they will be enjoyed at the Orpheum Theater on Tuesday night, October 10. The central figure of "Hit-the-Trail-Holiday" is Billy Holiday. In the play Holiday is a 400-a-week Broadway character, who accepts a position in a small New England village. A series of episodes occur immediately upon his arrival in the town and causes him to transfer his activities to a temperance movement. It is this incident followed by numerous others of a highly humorous nature, that makes Cohan's farce one of the most amusing entertainments imaginable.

The Majestic Theater has been the center of interest all this week on account of Catherine Crawford's big Fashion display, but now that the Fashion Show at Girls are wearing garments supplied by Bowman and Company the remainder of the week, everyone is doubly interested in this attraction. In a hoop-rolling act, the International Four, entertainers of comedy and song; Eugenie Leblanc, comedienne, and Larry and Sally Clifford, in a comedy blackface act.

"The Woman in the Case," with Pauline Frederick in the stellar role, will be shown at the Regent. In this play the great emotional actress appears, not as the Woman, but as the devoted wife. The tragedy of the story takes place in America, where Claire Foster, the woman of the world, conceives the villainous plan of accusing Julian Foster, her husband, of the murder of one of her victims. The great struggle between Margaret and Claire, the one who saves her husband and the other to condemn him, is one of the most gripping incidents imaginable. To-morrow the Billie Burke and Charlie Chaplin divide the honors. Charlie Chaplin will be seen in "The Pawnshop" in this comedy. Mr. Chaplin is supported by the usual able cast, which includes pretty Edna Purviance, who appears in the role of the pawnbroker's daughter, and Robert and the Stafford yacht in following the fugitive. Gloria proves to be relentless in her pursuit of the mysterious murderer. In the sixteenth installment of the serial feature, "Gloria's Romance," entitled, "A Modern Pirate," Gloria, who had escaped from the clutches of the pirate, enlists the aid of her father, Dr. Rance and the Stafford yacht in following the fugitive. Saturday morning, between the hours of 10 a. m. and 12 m., a special Chaplin show is scheduled for the schoolchildren.

Theda Bara, said by many to be the most popular and most admired actress on the motion picture screen, will be at the Colonial Theater for the last time to-night, in her latest screen success, "Under Two Flags," which was shown in capacity houses yesterday. In this

Sure Way to Get Rid of Dandruff

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This dissolves it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.
By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.
You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.
You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.

State Firemen's Convention Ends With Monster Parade

Scranton, Pa., Oct. 5. — The State Firemen's convention closed to-day with a parade of ten thousand men with 45 bands witnessed by the greatest crowd of Scranton's semi-centennial week. In the line of march was the modern automobile fire-fighting apparatus and the old-time hand pumping engine, and darktown brigades. Companies and bands from all parts of the State were in line, Greensburg, Johnstown and Pittcairn sending the largest delegations from the western part; Sayre and Towanda from the north, while all the central part of the State and the anthracite region cities and towns were out in full force.
Eugene C. Bonniwell, of Philadelphia, re-elected president yesterday, and other officers of the State association, headed the line of march. Next year's convention and parade will be at Johnstown.

Henry F. Meissel alleges that he agreed to relieve the late James N. Fallis, of New Castle, of "fear and dread," in a suit for $65,685 against Harry K. Gregory, executor of the Fallis estate, now on trial here before Judge Emory. Fallis died January 20, 1915. Doctor Meissel presented his claim in the form of a note for $35,000, dated June 30, 1904. Gregory refused payment. Suit was filed for the amount of the note and interest. Counsel for the estate filed a demurrer on which arguments were heard, the point at issue being whether "relief from fear and dread" constituted a sufficient consideration for a note for $35,000.
