HARRISBURG D.A.R. HEARS FINE TALK

Dr. Appleton's Address and Miss Pearson's Historical Paper Receive Hearty Applause

Harrisburg chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, had their first Fall meeting, held in Assembly Hall of the Y. M. C. A., in an address by the Rev. Dr. Floyd Appleton, rector of St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church on the subject of "The Future of a Country," and a most interesting paper by Miss Caroline Pearson, first vice regent of the chapter on "Molly Pitcher."

Dr. Appleton spoke of the military discipline forming so large a part of the life of foreign nations and that he is of the opinion that the present world war is the direct outcome of the great religious war of 300 years ago. "It is the history of the world that after the destruction of peace, the devastated nations experience a reaction of the very virtues that have brought about the conflict—a standing army is a necessity at all times," said Dr. Appleton in part, "for the conservation of patriotism, but the civilized world must and shall outgrow war. It was the natural thing for the imperfect civilization of a hundred years ago, but not for to-day. Military training should not mean murder, but discipline. Our troops in Texas do not mean protection of the Mexican border only, but reach far beyond to such works as the Panama Canal. Everyone knows the big part the military engineering corps plays in such undertakings. The end of all war does not mean the passing of the soldier or the quality of his type. His work should not be destructive, but increasingly constructive for the character and material benefit of our country."

Miss Pearson of Monmouth Realistic Account of "Heroine of Monmouth"

Miss Caroline Pearson, of Monmouth, N. J., gave a wonderfully realistic account of the "Heroine of Monmouth," and her ability to see a need and fill it in time of great stress. "Molly Pitcher," she said, "wrapped in deeds none may defile," made the large audience grateful that one of their own sex was able to do so much active work for this great country then in its infancy. A gravel made of a beam in the Molly pitcher house in Carlisle was used by the regent, Miss Cora Lee Snyder, in presiding yesterday, and after Miss Pearson's paper, Mrs. Charles J. Wood, Jr., the chapter historian gave an account of the recent unveiling of the magnificent Molly Pitcher monument in the old graveyard in Carlisle, Pa., ceremonies attended by three officers of this chapter.

Patriotic songs were sung, Mrs. Charles H. Hunter played a "Plantation Melody With Variations" in her usual delightful manner, and there was much routine business. Mrs. Mary Boyer McCrea, secretary, presented the minutes of the annual meeting and of the governing board which recommended that in future the yearly dues of the chapter be $2.25 instead of $2, to meet the State tax and give an emergency fund. This was unanimously passed.

Elect State Delegates

The following delegates were elected to represent the chapter at the annual State conference held at the Bellevue-Stratford in Philadelphia, October 18-20, in connection with some of the officers: Mrs. Edward Boyer, Mrs. Harry Friel Hershey, Mrs. Harry F. Beck, Mrs. Mary B. McCrea, Miss Anna Walzer, Mrs. Rudolph K. Spior, Miss Grace McChintock and Miss May Jackson. Others who wish to attend the sessions may be on the delegate list by informing the regent of their wish.

Members were urged to attend the Pennsylvania Day celebration at the Central high school Friday afternoon, October 27, when the chapter prizes of gold will be awarded to the successful writers of the essays on "Children of the Revolution."

Some fine specimens of coats of arms done by Miss Eleanor Rutherford Elder, who makes a specialty of this work, were exhibited, and favorably commented on.

Flags and Autumn flowers in profusion artistically decorated the hall, and after the meeting the flowers were taken to the hospital to cheer some of the patients.
