On Account of A Religious Holiday

Store Will Be Closed Until 6 P. M. To-morrow Saturday

Open For Business From 6 to 9 O'clock in the Evening

Every Department Will Have

On Sale Extra Special Offerings

OF INTEREST TO THE WOMEN

"THEIR MARRIED LIFE"

432 Market St.

Specials For Saturday

Pure Pasteurized Creamery Butter with

BIG SPECIALS IN VEAL

Veal Chops20c and 22c

SMOKED MEATS Center Cut Sliced Ham

Pressed Ham Sliced

Markets in Principal Cities of 11 States

Lean Pork Chops Buehler Bros. High Grade Butterine, lb. . . 20c

Rib or Loin Veal Roast

Fancy Chuck Roast 15c

Pin Bone Steak

GIRL'S COSTUME IN LITTLE CHECKS

Blouse of Russian Style Held in

Justing Line and Added Justing Line and Added Justing Circle press to 14 years.

A frock that can be made of one as it is here or with the blouse of the skirt of another. A point has it is here or with the blouse of the skirt of another, A point the blouse with a plaid for the late of the compensation and the blouse of the Lussiania and the world was the skirt of another. A point when the skirt of another, A point the skirt of another the skirt of another, A point the skirt of another the skirt of another, A point the skirt of another the skirt of another the skirt of a for two bands of velvet ribbon in place of the belt and that treatment is a pretty one. Each band is supposed to terminate with a small flat bow and, to hold it well in place, it should be tacked to the blouse. High necks make a feature of the Autumn fashions but this blouse can be cut square if the collar is not becoming.

coming.
For the 12 year size will be needed, 6% yards of material 27 inches wide, 5% yards 36 or 4% yards 44, with 3% yard 36 inches wide, for the trimming.
The pattern No. 8903 is cut in sizes for girls from 8 to 14 years of age. It will be mailed to any address by the Fashion Department of this paper, on receipt of fifteen cents.

Owing to the advancing prices of paper and other material used in the manufacture of patterns, the May Manton Pattern Company have been compelled to advance the price of their patterns to 15c.

Sick Dog Certainly

Columbus, Ohio. - If a sick dog will eat $34 worth of food in 136 days ROOT SAYS BIG how much will a well dog eat? That question must remain unan-swered for the time being, but valu-able data on the sick dog's diet was revealed here in the Municipal Court, when Dr. F. W. Simons, veterinarian, filed suit against Charles Snyder for $85.

$85. In addition to the $34 listed for boarding Snyder's dog in his hospital, Simons named other items of $15 and $18 for treatment given the Snyder Pat again newspapers throughout the country who have questioned his right and abused him for sending what he considered to be a perfectly proper telegram to the President of the United States."

UNDERSELLINGISTORE

Former Progressive Urges 'America Only" and Assails Policies of Administration Shriners Are For Hughes

Chicago, Oct. 6. — Albert J. Beveridge, former Progressive party leader and former United States Senator from Indiana, began a speaking campaign in the west for Hughes with an address at the Auditorium here last night. The text of his speech was "America Only."

America Only."

Mr. Beveridge said in part:

We must build for to-morrow and our plan must be as wide as the horizon now opening before us. In this new day and amid these changed conditions there must be a new America. This work means, first of all, a broader, deeper, stronger nationalism. The philosophy of localism is dead; the practice of it must no longer interfere with the unity of the Republic. National law and national authority must deal with all things that help or hurt the

Remember Store Closed During the Day. Open from 6 to 9 P. M. Saturday Evening

Store Open To-morrow Evening From 6 to 9 P. M.Only

SAFETY DEVICE INCREASE NOTED

To-morrow

Saturday

Commissioner Jackson Talks About Success of the Compensation Law

Reports showing a remarkable Lusitania horror, while all the world

ISSUE IS TARIFF

[Continued From First Page]

a warning of what will happen at the end of the war in Europe if the men who framed the Underwood tariff law

In addition to the $34 listed for boarding Snyder's dog in his hospital, Simons named other items of $15 and $18 for treatment given the Snyder pet.

He asked payment also of $1.50 for services rendered Snyder's cat in the Simon's hospital some months ago and of $1, the charge for painlessly killing the cat.

Court officials thoughtlessly neglected to ask how the dog was getting along now and whether he still was under the doctor's care.

who framed the Underwood tariff law are returned to power at the coming election. In one of his striking passenges he said:

"What will be the attitude of the nations who covet the wealth and opportunity of the new world when the great war is over if we return the Wilson administration to power? Will they have a conviction that courage and resolution stand behind the assertion of our rights? Will they believe the certainty that the great powers of this people will be used to maintain their rights, and that our government has the wisdom and skill to use those and ill-defended wealth of the new world loom larger on the horizon of their desires. Then will come the pressure of competition backed by force. Then must be determined whether the Monroe Doctrine has behind it the sincerity and courage of a great nation or is to be surrendered as an idle boast." Mr. Root then reviewed the sinking of the Lusitania and American ships by German submarines. He went on: "Immediately upon the shock of the Lusitania horror, while all the world look of the Mr. Wilson that he would "feel deeply mortified to have you (Mr. O'Leary) or anybody like you vote for me," adding: "Since you have access to many disloyal Americans and I have not, I will ask you to convey this message to them." In the statement attributed to Mr. McCormick, criticising him for sending an "insulting message." to President Wilson. In that message, Mr. O'Leary or insulting message, Mr. O'Leary or insulting message, Mr. O'Leary or insulting message." In the statement attributed to Mr. McCormick, criticising him for sending an "insulting message." to President Wilson. In that message, Mr. O'Leary or insulting message, Mr. O'Leary or insulting message." In the statement attributed to Mr. McCormick, criticising him for sending an "insulting message." to President Wilson. In that message, Mr. O'Leary or insulting message. The president Wilson that he would not vote for the re-election of the President Mr. Wilson that he would not vote for the re-election of the President Mr. Wilson that he would not vote for the re-election of the President Mr. Wilson that he would not vote for the re-election of the President Mr. Wilson that he would not vote for the re-election of the President Mr. Wilson that he would not vote for the re-election of the President Mr. Wilson that he would not vote for the re-election of the President Mr. Wilson that he would not vote for the re-election of the President Mr. Wilson that he would not vote for the re-election of the President Mr. Wilson that he would not vote for the re-election of the AT ONCE! STOPS STOMACH MISERY AND INDIGESTION

Penrose Meets Perkins

as Friend "of 30 Years"

Instant relief from sourness, gas heartburn, acidity, dyspepsia.

disloyal Americans and I have not, I will ask you to convey this message to them."

In the statement attributed to Mr. McCormick, appearing October 4, and upon which Mr. O'Leary said he based his suit for libel, the chairman of the Democratic National Committee was quoted as having commented upon the presence of Charles E. Hughes, at the Union League Club reception Tuesday night, concluding with the statement that there could be no doubt about Mr. Hughes' position because of his silence on the message sent to the President by Mr. O'Leary. John R. Jones, attorney for Mr. O'Leary, declared that Mr. O'Leary "also intends to begin other libel sults again newspapers throughout the 'Pape's Diapepsin" is quickes and surest stomach relief known.

Wonder what upset your stomach— which portion of the food did the lamage—do you? Well, don't bother if your stomach is in a revolt; if your, gassy and upset, and what yo ust ate has fermented into stubbor Just ate has fermented into stubbo lumps; head dizzy and aches; bel gases and acids and eructate ungested food; breath foul, tongue cos ed—just take a little Pape's Diape sin and in five minutes you wond what became of the indigestion addistress.

New York, Oct. 6. — Senator Boies
Penrose, of Philadelphia, called at headquarters of the Republican National Committee yesterday, where he had a conference with Chairman William R. Willcox and afterwards a chat with George W. Perkins.

The meeting between Mr. Perkins and Senator Penrose was by accident and occurred in Chairman Willcox's room. Newspaper men who remarks ed on the cordiality shows by the control of the cordiality shows the control of the cordiality shows the control of the cordial transfer of the cordinal transfer of the cordinal

The meeting between Mr. Perkins and Senator Penrose was by accident and occurred in Chairman Willcox's room. Newspaper men who remarked on the cordiality shown by the friend of Colonel Roosevelt for the man the Colonel in his Armageddon days branded as the worst of "reactionaries" were informed by the Senator that George Perkins and he had been close personal friends "for thirty years or more." Senator Penrose as he left said he was not worrying about the outcome of the election in Pennsylvania. "Pennsylvania will give Hughes a majority of from 200,000 to 300,000" he said. "Many lifelong Democrats will cast their vote for a Republican candidate for President for the first time this year." WOODMEN OF 1809 SPARED NO TREES

Logs of Gutelius House Sugges Forrest Memories of Auld Lang Syne

When the woodchoppers and car Even if It Was a Hoax penters who built No. 28 North Sec street needed the materials for Philadelphia, Oct. 6. — Shriners hroughout the city say there is every ndication that Charles E. Hughes will be the next President of the United a pretentious dwelling, they went to indication that Charles E. Hughes with the the next President of the United States.

More than 4,000 members of their organization at the Metropolitan Opera House last evening burst into an uproar when W. Freeland Kendrick, receiver of taxes, walked out quietly and announced that "the Republican presidential candidate" would say a few words. "Mr. Hughes" appeared. He looked dignified and conservative. He bowed majestically right and left.

The "candidate's" lips were moving and his eyebrows were elevating while his arms flapped and his fists thumped the table in the center of the stage.

But what he was saying no one could tell, for cheers, cheers and more cheers rent the air. Applause and the stamping of feet mingled with shouts of "We want Hughes!" "On to Washinston!" "You're elected now!"

The bedlam didn't appear to bother "Mr. Huges" in the leaste He had a speech to make and he intended to finish it, and he did. Then the audience was let into the secret.

Noble William Buehler, whiskered president of the Massonic Hospital of Chicago, made up to impersonate the Republican nominee, was the orator who caused all the uproar. The hoax was so successful that several morning papers carried front-page stories of the Republican candidates hurried visit. The Shriners say they are for Hughes anyhow.

Cream Cheese Brick Cheese .

Main Office Packing House