Home Craft Week Presents Many Drapery Ideas

This is National Home Craft Week, in the interest of better window treatment in the home.

Dark houses go hand in hand with dark days. They are equally depressing, and they will often take away the brightest of smiles. The dark days can be made brighter if the windows of every home are made more cheery by the use of curtains — and Quaker Craft Lace Curtains are the cheeriest and finest of window coverings.

Quaker Craft Lace is the newest form of window lace, and among the finest. It is suitable for all types of windows — and moderate in price.

17 Policemen Resign Rather Than Ride on Trolley Cars

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Oct. 9.—Seventeen members of the Wilkes-Barre police force have handed in their resignations and quit their jobs, and five more will join in the walkout rather than obey orders from Mayor John V. Kossek to ride in street cars while the strike is on. Labor leaders got to work early and endeavored to stir up a general walkout. For a time it looked as if their plans might be a success, but when it was discovered that the mayor was in earnest and had men ready to take the place of any who quit, the backbone of the movement appeared to be broken. These labor leaders, however, are continuing their efforts to cause a general walkout. Mayor Kossek has appointed new men to the places of those who have resigned.

FRANK S. EBERLY DIES

Riddle to Be Running Mate of "Butch" McDevitt

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Oct. 9.—John Jay ("Butch") McDevitt left here at 8:30 o'clock this morning over the Lehigh Valley railroad in a special train for New York city to nominate himself for the presidency of the United States as the candidate of the "McDevitt party."

"Butch" has selected as his running mate ex-Mayor William Riddle, of Atlantic City, who has agreed to accept the nomination for Vice-President. "You see," said "Butch," "Riddle is just the man I need. He comes from New Jersey, and can win that state over Woodrow Wilson."

AUTO CRUSHES BUGGY

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Oct. 9.—On Saturday night an automobile crashed into a horse and buggy tied in front of the Yohn home, in South Market street, with a sound of splintering wood that was heard quite a distance. The buggy was overturned and the horse, mixed up in the broken shafts and harness, was thrown on the pavement. The driver and owner of the car, Daniel Brennenman, of Lisburn, immediately stopped and with the help of other men who soon gathered the horse was extricated and gotten to his feet, with no injury except a few bruises. The buggy shafts, with a wheel, were broken. It was the property of Howard Backenstoss, of near Andersontown, York county. Just a short time before the accident his wife was sitting in the buggy.
