Millersburg Corporation Buys Out Newport and Mifflin Companies

Millersburg, Pa., Oct. 9.—Last week the Millersburg Electric Light, Heat and Power Company made a great forward stride when it purchased the electric plants at Newport and Mifflin. An entire new plant will be built by the Millersburg company on the site of the present building east of the borough limits. Machinery has already been ordered and will consist of two huge generators of the latest design and modern Corless engines and boilers. The construction work on this new central power plant has already begun and day and night service for Millersburg is assured this fall.

The new company will extend its lines to Halifax, where it has the contract to light that borough, and will complete the work to that point before the new year. The new plant will run wires across the Susquehanna river and furnish electric power and light for Newport, Mifflin, Millerstown, New Bloomfield, Port Royal, Thompsonstown, Mexico and possibly Duncannon and Liverpool. The coal dealer's margin of profit on high grade coal is much less than is generally supposed.

And to hear this record is to know why the greatest artists in the world make records for the Victrola exclusively. The Victrola is more than the voice of the great artist. It is his genius.

MOTHERS WEEP AS WIFE JUST WAITS

Three Youths Unclasp Parental Army as They Leave For Huntingdon Reformatory

While three weeping mothers to-day clasped their sons in a farewell kiss in the Dauphin county courtroom, the girl-wife of one of the youths sat back in the room, wide-eyed and terror-stricken, wondering what was to become of herself and baby, while the husband and father was held as a ward of the State within the walls of the Huntingdon Reformatory. R. J. Anderson, Joseph Osborne and Maxwell E. Fasick were the young men who were sentenced by President Judge Kunkel to the State Reformatory; all are still in their teens. Fasick, however, is a husband and father.

The trio had been convicted of attacking a man and two women in the River Front Park and all three had been on probation. President Judge Kunkel declared that the court would administer in the "old-fashioned way" that the three had had their chance and had "disgraced the court," by their behavior while on parole.

Ida M. Sponzier and Harry E. Von Hoffa, convicted of fraudulently withholding funds in the "V. A. S." partnership, were fined $15 apiece and the costs, totaling $150 each.

Following sentence court, both Judges Kunkel and McCarrell heard a big calendar of non-support and desertion cases.
