HOME FURNISHING WEEK

Vacation days are over. Undoubtedly, all of our much appreciated customers have enjoyed these days at seashore or mountain side and are now home again for the winter months.

In many homes will be found an article or two of furniture, a rug, or draperies that "have seen their best days," and which need to be replaced with new.

Our Home Furnishing Week which begins to-morrow (Tuesday) will be found of real service to these people and to many because of our variety of goods to meet your needs.

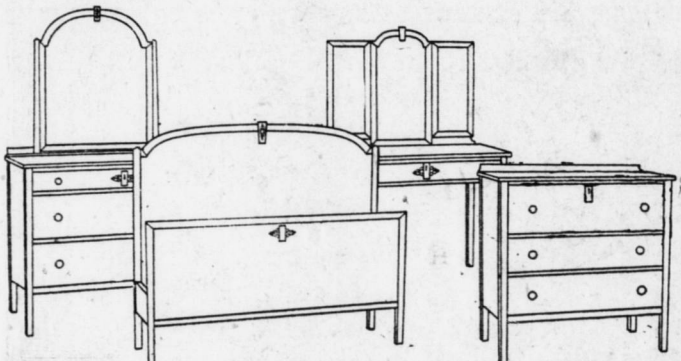

Fortune smiles on the man and his family prepared to receive her.

Make your home a spot where comfort finds a welcome and hospitality will feel at home.

Nation Will Be Canvassed to Raise Recruits For Army

Washington, D. C., Oct. 9. — Virtually a house-to-house campaign throughout the nation is being planned by the War Department to obtain the 100,000 regular army recruits it will be necessary to enlist annually hereafter in order to keep the army up to the strength authorized by Congress in the reorganization and appropriation bills, according to a new recruiting order made public yesterday. Through the aid of available postmasters, a conveniently located recruiting agency will be

Higher Cost of White Paper Reason for the Merger

Specials For Homefurnishing Week

Satin Damask — colored borders, in delft blue, mustard, pink and lavender; floral patterns; 64 inches wide. Yard, 39¢.

Action in this respect by the courts is recommended.

"The crowning evil of the institution," points out the report, "is idleness and the vice resulting therefrom. Twenty men may have some light work to do about the premises, but some 160 have nothing to do. Some measures must be taken to prevent economic waste of time, amounting to 58,400 days a year. Place these men on penal farms. How much stone can they crush in a year? How many miles of macadamized roads could be supplied with material?"
