Energetic Young Men Open New Offices Here

Frank Gordon Fahnestock, Jr., of Bellevue Park, and John A. Radabaugh, of Baltimore, two energetic young men have just opened offices at rooms 401-2 the Patriot building where they are ready for work in architectural and engineering lines. Mr. Fahnestock, who has a wide acquaintance in this vicinity through his connection with the offices of M. I. Kast, the well-known architect, for a number of years, is a son of James Weir Fahnestock, a former Harrisburger, and a member of one of the oldest families of the city. Mr. Radabaugh, a lifelong friend of Mr. Fahnestock is a Cornell alumnus, and has made quite a reputation as an all-around engineer during his connection with the Allis-Chalmers Co. of New York and the marine department of the Maryland Street Company at Sparrow's Point. Both young men are hustlers and will soon make their way in lines where there is always plenty of room for excellent service.

October 9th to 14th
Home Craft Week
A week devoted to the showing of all that is new in the celebrated Quaker Craft Lace Curtains and Quaker Craft Laces for decorative purposes.
Our New Daylight Drapery Department is in gala attire for the occasion and extends you an invitation to pay us a visit.
In dressing a window every thoughtful woman will dress it so that it shall be just as pleasing to the observer from the outside as from the inside.
This is difficult to accomplish without the use of Lace Curtains.
Lace is the very foundation of the most attractive window treatments. It ensures privacy without giving that "shut in" effect of denser fabrics; it is decorative, graceful and does not interfere with ventilation.
At GOLDSMITH'S New Daylight Drapery Department you will find a most comprehensive display of Laces for the treatment of all kinds of windows and many new and original ideas, some of which may solve your decorative problem for you.
Quaker Craft Lace Curtains and Quaker Craft Laces are demanded by discriminating women—it will pay you to discriminate.
POPULAR PRICES ALWAYS PREVAIL AT GOLDSMITH'S
Quaker Craft Lace at 29c to $5.00 Per Yd.
Quaker Craft Lace Curtains at $2.50 to $10.00 Per Pair
