Ebbets Field, Brooklyn, Oct. 11.—Defeating the Brooklyn Nationals by a score of 6 to 2 the Americans have the Boston world's series championship al-most within their grasp. The series now stands Boston Ameri-

series now stands Boston Ameri-cans, 3; Brooklyn Nationals, 1. Dutch Leonard's drop curve and speed ball was Brooklyn's undoing to-day. After the first inning when the home folks micked him for two runs, the Boston southpaw held the cham-plons of the National League help-less. Marquard started for Brooklyn but a base on balls followed by Lewis' double and Gardner's home run un-settled the Brooklyn pitcher and he was taken from the box after the fourth inning. For three hours yesterday at the Harrisburg Club the directors listened to the suggestions and inspected the tentative plans of two architects who desire to have a hand in the design-ing of the big building. Other archi-tects will meet the directors at noon-day luncheons during the rest of this week. (Continued on Page 11) Hist! Burglarman! Cops Are Going to School to Learn How to Catch You
