THURSDAY EVENING, OCT. 12

A man should never be ashamed to say he has been in the wrong, which is no saying in other words that he is wiser today than he was yesterday.—Pope.

THAT THREE-MILE LIMIT

RUMOR has it that President Wilson may ask German submarines not to operate so close to American shores as they did on Sunday. He would be justified in so doing if for no other reason than that the three-mile limit is no longer adequate for protection ashore.

THIS CITY AND STEELTON

IN his admirable talk at the recent Chamber of Commerce banquet it was made clear by Mr. Schwab that the activities of the Bethlehem Steel Company at Steelton would not extend to housing and real estate problems.

Politics in Pennsylvania

Men who have been observing the trend of sentiment in Pennsylvania in the last fortnight declare that the rural sections of the Keystone State are as staunch for the Republican ticket as ever.

DEVELOPING PARK ZONE

GOVERNOR BRUMBAUGH and members of the Board of Public Grounds and Buildings today discussed with the City Planning Commission and the Capitol Park Extension Commission the development of the whole Capitol Park zone.

WIRELESS SAVES LIVES OF MANY ON LAND AS WELL AS SEA

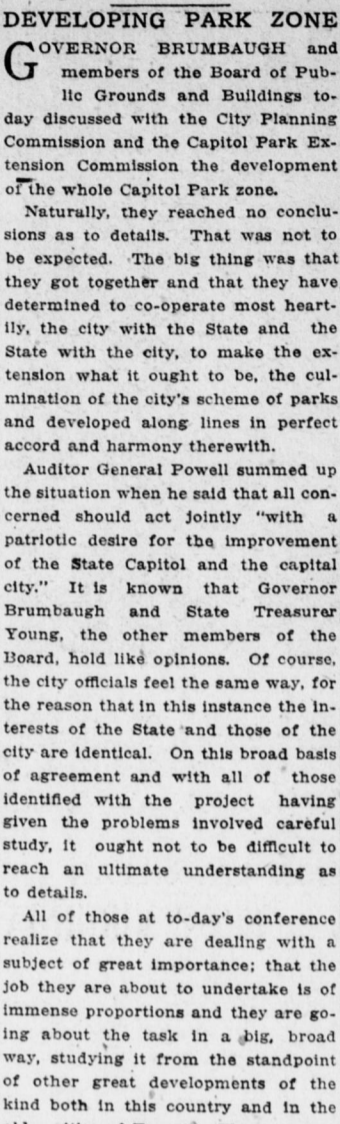

NEWSPAPER readers are accustomed, ever since the days of Jack Binns, to tales of the wireless, and the wonderful work it has done in the saving of lives of those who go down to the sea in ships.

WHAT THE ROTARY CLUB LEARNED OF THE CITY

(Questions submitted to members of the Harrisburg Rotary Club and their answers as presented at the organization's annual "Municipal Quiz.")

When a Feller Needs a Friend

By BRIGGS

Democratic Carbondale shows a Republican gain.

WHAT THE ROTARY CLUB LEARNED OF THE CITY

(Questions submitted to members of the Harrisburg Rotary Club and their answers as presented at the organization's annual "Municipal Quiz.")

Unpublished History

Colonel Roosevelt was revealing a bit of unpublished history in his speech Saturday when he told of his plan to use the United States army to operate the coal mines at the time of the disastrous anthracite workers' strike.

The Model Wife

In carrying on diplomatic relations with Germany President Wilson has been very successful.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

The campaign is on; and so are the voters.—Philadelphia North American.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

WANTS MORE POLICEMEN To the Editor of the Telegraph: The disgrace of the city of Harrisburg is the inefficient police protection afforded the taxpayers, resulting in many robberies in various parts of the city.

DO YOU KNOW

That Dauphin county steel is used for making files? HISTORIC HARRISBURG The Dauphin county prison is one of the new buildings in Harrisburg continuously on the same site.

Our Daily Laugh

AGREED. Sadie—Say, honest now, do you like Maggie? Pauline—Well, she's got a good heart an' she means real well, but— Sadie—Neither do I.

BAG AND BAGGAGE

I noticed one thing about hunting trips: What is that? The baggage usually amounts to a good deal more than the bag.

Evening Chat

By BRIGGS

Captain Frank H. Mille, who recruits for the National Guard recruiting service in the Eighth regiment territory this week, has the distinction of having been the most successful recruiting officer in the State. The two officers sent more men to the National Guard regiments than any others and also about the time the army recruiting, Captain Mille has a fine record of National Guard service.
