REGULATES PLAGUE

...Mexico City, Oct. 12.—Stringent regulations of the manufacture and sale of pulque, the principal strong drink of Mexico, is ordered by First Chief Carnanza in a decree which has just been promulgated. The beverage is made from the juice of the maguey cactus. The new regulations double the tax on bringing pulque into towns, and require manufacturers of it to record with proper authorities all details concerning their business.

The decree provides that no factories may be established more than forty be closed.

Early Coal Buying Advisable

It's the part of wisdom to buy your winter supply of coal now. Once the frost and ice and snow of winter get busy, it's pretty difficult to keep the coal free of dust and dirt. Summer-mined caol by the very nature of things is cleaner, the screening we give it insures practically a complete absence of dust and dirt. Phone your order now.

Wednesday, matinee and night, October 18—"The House of Glass." Coming for two days, October 20 and 21—Lyman H. Howe's Travel Festival. MAJESTIC—Vaudeville. COLONIAL—"The End of the Trail." GRAND—"For a Woman's Fair Name." VICTORIA—"Jaffery."

Oliver Morosco's production of "Peg o' My Heart," the comedy of youth which will be the attractive which will be the attractive which will be the attractive which will be the moroscopic with the word of Saurday, with daily matinees, is said to be the most popular play offered in New York in years.
"Peg" is a selfish little human being with a child's outlook on life and a child's naive ways. The story concerns a little Irish girl, brought up by her father in poverty and suddenly introduced into a family of aristocratic relatives. The story concerns a little in the will be will Travel, more and more, is becoming an essential part of an education. No doubt this fact explains the great vogue and success of Lyman H. Howe's Travel Festival, which comes to the Orpheum, Friday and Saturday, with daily matinee, October 20-21. Over 3,000,000 people who travel annually with Lyman H. Howe know from experience that no entertainment wholesome and satisfying pleasure. For the student with this green of life, customs, and activiting scenes of life, customs, and activiting incessmanny woman it is an enjoyable relaxation, while for the whole family it is a most welcome diversion from daily cares or the demands of society.
