Marriage of Miss Jean Frederick and Edwin E. Barnitz a Brilliant Event

Carlisle, Pa., Oct. 12.—A dance held in Mentzer Hall Tuesday evening by the Lotos Club which was attended by 100 persons closed a series of entertainments which have been held here in honor of Miss Jean Frederick, whose marriage to Edwin E. Barnitz, a Harrisburg attorney took place last evening. The dance was given by the club in honor of the couple.

The wedding last evening was one of the most brilliant social functions of the year. The ceremony was performed in the First Reformed Church here at 8 o'clock by the Rev. Emory L. Colbents. The bride was given away by her father, Theodore C. Frederick.

Mrs. C. R. Young of West Chester, was matron of honor and Thomas Smith of Birmingham, Ala., best man. The bridesmaids included the Misses Mabel and Bertha Zullinger, Mount Holly Springs, Miss Anna Bacon, of Harrisburg, and Miss Lena Hartzell, Carlisle. The ushers were Earl E. Carroll, Carlisle; William Barnitz, of Princeton; Robert Myers, Camp Hill, and C. Raymond Young, West Chester. George Bixler played the wedding march and Miss Helen Brindle sang.

The bride's gown was of white satin and taffeta, with trimmings of pearls and princess lace with a train of white satin. She carried a shower bouquet of valley lilies and white orchids. The matron of honor was gowned in mauve tulle and carried pink roses and fern. Pink taffeta and tulle composed the bridesmaids' dresses and they carried old-fashioned bouquets of pink roses.

DAUGHTERS 1812 HOLD A SESSION

Patriotic Society Hears Fine Reminiscent Talk by Thomas M. Jones

The members of the Keystone Chapter of 1812 held the first of their Fall meetings to-day at the home of Mrs. J. E. Dickinson, 228 North Second street. Mrs. James Blair Mercereau, regent of the chapter, presided.

The chief interest of the meeting was a "Reminiscent Talk," by Thomas M. Jones, which dealt with the early beginnings and doings of the now "Greater Harrisburg." An informal program with vocal numbers by Miss Mary Worley and whistling selections by Mrs. Arthur M. Keown followed the general routine of business discussions.

The meeting was followed by a tea and delightful social hour.

Each model, as can be imagined, expresses a different phase of brilliant creative genius of Paris.

The beautiful materials include the handsome broadcloths, solid color velours, whipcords and gabardine and all wool poplins.

We must not forget our Fall coats and dress department, which is very complete in the latest fashions at most popular prices.
